SECRETARY COOPER ARRIVES

WILL BE IN CHARGE OF LOCAL Y. M. C. A. WORK.

Formal Welcome to Be Given to the New Official at the Association Building October 2.

William K. Cooper, the recently appointed general secretary of the local Young Men's Christian Association, arrived in the city yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, and was met at the station by representatives of the secretarial force of the association and board of directors.

In the evening Mr. Cooper visited the association building and met the secretaries in the board room for a brief conference. He was introduced to the attaches of the building and many members of the association.

The new secretary will be formally welcomed to Washington by the members and friends of the association at the members' annual reunion, Friday, October 2, in the association building. He will be greeted in an informal way by the members of the association residing at the Y. M. C. A. building, now numbering 140, next Thursday evening. The association quet will furnish music.

Prior to leaving Springfield, where he has been Y. M. C. A. secretary for ten years, Mr. Cooper gave a great send-off at the rooms of the Central Association. Talks were made on behalf of the association and the city expressive of the great regret felt at the departure of the popular secretary.

A pleasant feature of the reception was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper of a book containing the signatures of 600 persons who wished to be counted as "special" friends. The engraved silver plate which held the book also contained $50 in gold as further testimonial of regard.

Several days ago Ernest Gatewood and Louise Dutch, a young colored couple from Washington, visited Rockville for the purpose of getting married, but the license was refused them because the young man gave his age as only twenty. Yesterday they returned and tackled a different clerk, who issued the license, as the young man the second time gave his age as twenty-two.

The annual fall meeting of the Maryland Presbytery, which convened in the Presbyterian Church here Tuesday evening, adjourned last evening. The closing sermon was delivered by Rev. Henry E. Kirk, pastor of Franklin Street Church, Baltimore. The presbytery will meet in Rockville in October for the purpose of installing Rev. A. W. Shaw as pastor of the Rockville church.

The funeral of William Henry Piles, who died early Wednesday morning at the home near Cabin John Bridge at the age of ninety-eight, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from his late residence, a large number of the residents of that section of the county attending.

The services were conducted by Rev. Parke P. Flournoy, pastor of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church, who was assisted by Rev. Philip B. McGuire, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, but Father McGuire could do nothing for them as they had failed to bring with them a pastoral letter of identification. As the young man had said he did not care to have the ceremony performed by a Protestant minister it is supposed the young folks left town without having the knot tied.

Robert Louis Davis of St. Mary, Pa., and Miss Lynn Rebecca Eppley of Union Bridge, Md., Wednesday afternoon obtained a marriage license here and started out to use it. They first tried to get married by a justice of the peace, but such officials have no authority to tie nuptial knots in Maryland. They next called upon Rev. Philip B. McGuire, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, but Father McGuire could do nothing for them as they had failed to bring with them a pastoral letter of identification. As the young man had said he did not care to have the ceremony performed by a Protestant minister it is supposed the young folks left town without having the knot tied.

Mrs. E. J. STEARN DEAD.

She Was One of the City's Oldest Residents. Mrs. Elizabeth J. Stearn, widow of William G. Stearn, and one of Washington's oldest residents, died today at the home of her daughter Mrs. M. B. Atkinson, 700 street southwest. She was sixty-seven years old and had resided in this city for more than forty years.

Mrs. Stearn had a wide circle of friends here. Her long and earnest work in connection with the affairs of the West Washington Baptist Church connected her prominently with that institution. She leaves two daughters and two sons, all of Washington. They are Mrs. Samuel Artz, Mrs. M. B. Atkinson and William P. and Thomas M. Stearn.

Intermment will take place probably Sunday in Oak Hill cemetery, but the funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.
