DISCUSS VARIOUS TOPICS

MEMBERS ADDRESS SPEAKERS

OF Y. M. C. A. BRANCH.

Moral and Physical Training and Weight of the Soul Among the Subjects.

Members of the various branches of the Y. M. C. A. heard a number of addresses last evening on various religious and social topics. Before the Life Problem Club Dr. Maurice Miller spoke on moral and physical training. He said that the physical and moral training of a man is needed for perfect development is strict obedience of the laws of health. Excessive training, he said, lessens the power of the body for resisting disease. In the same way, he said, perfect observance of the spiritual laws means perfect moral health and righteousness.

Physical Standard Lacking.

There is not only no physical standard by which the soul can be weighed, he declared, but there is no public standard by which its workings could be measured. The way a man appears to his fellow men is no criterion of the way he appears before God, who sees the motives that govern his actions, and that there is no talk to the members of the Round Table Club was by Charles F. Nesbit, who spoke on the attitude of the soul toward the criminal has changed greatly in recent years. Less than three hundred years ago in England were three offenses punishable by death. That drastic code of laws had rapidly changed to a more lenient and forgiving attitude toward social offenders. He said that the three greatest men in the world were Lincoln, Tolstol and Victor Hugo, because they had taught forgiveness.

ATTRACTIONS OF PRISON.

"Johnny" Murry reconsiders his objections to the workhouse. Because "Johnny" Murry wearied of the religious services at the Gospel Mission yesterday and started a rough house with several companions who attempted to keep him quiet, he was halted before acting Judge Auker of the Police Court this morning upon a disorderly conduct charge and committed to the workhouse for fifteen days in default of a five-dollar fine. "I don't want to go down," Murry vehemently protested. "I don't remember nuthin' I did, and when a fellow don't remember he ain't responsible, is he?" "But you've got to go," insisted a court attendant. Then to humor him he added, "Of course you don't recollect it—it's a shame."
