

The Exclusive Style Shop  Correct Dress For Women

Paris Creates We Duplicate Fashionable Woman's Apparel

Our Paris fashion artist is right on the field. The best every shop along the Rue de la Paix has to offer is accurately sketched in colors. His entree to all the ultra-fashionable shops even permits the sending of samples of the materials together with his sketches.

How faithfully our New York tailoring staff duplicates these original creations only an inspection of our exclusive stock can disclose. A close inspection proves that, aside from designing, American tailors exercise greater care in the execution than the French! The very reasonable prices at which these out-of-the-ordinary garments are marked emphasizes what heavy import duties these clever adaptations escape. This applies to

SUITS---DRESSES---GOWNS

We are now busily engaged on 50 Exquisite Robes, consisting of heavy Irish linens and debutante French batiste embroidered with the finest Swiss, French and Irish hand-work.

These garments, when fitted to your figure under the direct personal supervision of a practical man dressmaker, lend the same perfect lines to your form as though originally designed and constructed to your own measure.

NOTICE—OUR DEPARTMENT OF ALTERATIONS gives one the same satisfactory fit as though originally constructed to meet the purchaser's exact measure requirements.

The hall was decorated in the colors of the order. At the conclusion of the ceremonies supper was served.

last at North-east Temple. Among the business matters considered was the initiation of several candidates for membership. The social features of the evening included an apron party, at the conclusion of which a musical program was given and refreshments were served. Congressional Circle, No. 588, has completed arrangements for a St. Patrick's party to be held March 17, when the colors and insignia of the emerald isle will compose the main decorations. Reports received from District Deputy W. A. Cline show that the various circles are striving hard in friendly competition to win the prize offered by the Supreme Circle as a reward for increasing membership. Local Deputies W. J. Armstrong and Julius Helm are each claiming an advantage for their respective circles.

STOMACH PRESCRIPTION CAUSES BIG STR.

(Chicago Record-Herald)

The prescription for stomach troubles published in this paper some days ago has created a big stir in drug stores. The manager of the largest prescription drug store in the city says that they have filled this prescription hundreds of times and find it the very best they ever put up for stomach troubles. Here is the prescription: cut it out and keep it; if you do not need it yourself, hand it to some friend who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia; Compound Tincture of Cinchona, one ounce; Pepsine Compound, one ounce; Sherry Wine, half a pint. Mix together and take in teaspoonful doses before meals and at bed time in water. This druggist states it is the Pepsine Compound that is so valuable. It supplies the stomach with pancreatic juice and this in what digests what you eat, while the Cinchona and Wine act as a general stomach tonic. Any first-class prescription druggist can fill this simple prescription, as all the ingredients will always be found in any well-stocked prescription drug store.
