PRESENCE OF POLICE NEEDED

VIOLENT DEMONSTRATIONS MARK LABOR DISTURBANCES.

Striking "White Wings" Attack Men Who Replace Them—Tilers Besiege Building.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Violent demonstrations which required the presence of the police to quell marked two of the labor disturbances prevalent here today. The most serious trouble occurred in the downtown district, when a force of striking "white wings" attacked the street sweepers who had taken their places.

A bitter fight in the courts is being prepared by the Associated Building Trades Council against the injunction applied for by the Chicago Mangle and Tie Dealers' Association. The building trades will have the support of the Chicago Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 3.—Edward Franklin Linder, fifty-seven years old, today shot and probably fatally wounded Mrs. Claggott Munsen, a widow, and then shot himself in the right temple, dying instantly.

The tragedy occurred at the home of Linder's son, where Mrs. Munsen and her daughter had apartments. While domestic trouble is believed to have been the primary cause of the shooting, the case has been surrounded by much mystery.

DEATH LEAP FROM WINDOW

HOSPITAL PATIENT IMPALED ON PICKET FENCE.

Jumped Five Stories—Stole Out of Bed When Nurse Went for Water.

NEW YORK, April 3.—While in a delirium following a serious operation and partly in stupor from anesthesia, Santo Lovecchio, a young Italian laborer, leaped from the window of his room on the fifth floor of Columbus Hospital, at 223 East 20th street, at 5 o'clock this morning and was impaled on a picket fence in the courtyard. He was dead when discovered by internes.

Lovecchio lived with his wife and four children at 79 Baxter street. Several days ago he was taken with severe pains and was removed to the hospital, which is conducted by a religious order known as the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. It was found necessary to operate on Lovecchio, and after his removal from the table he was placed in a private room on the fifth floor for rest and quiet.

Nurse Left Him a Moment. Catalina Joseph was the special nurse assigned to Lovecchio. This morning the nurse was sent out of the room to get a drink of water for his charge.

It was while Joseph was absent that Lovecchio stole from his bed and crept on all fours to the window. The upper sash was down partly and Lovecchio did not have strength to raise the lower half. He climbed up and through the small opening and then plunged down to the yard below.

Joseph was gone only a minute, and when he got back to his patient he discovered the empty bed and partly opened window. This told a story, but Joseph threw open the lower sash and, peering down through the window, he saw the outlines of Lovecchio's body fast on the iron pickets.

Police Are Notified. The house staff of surgeons went out and removed the body. Coroner Harburger was notified by the sisters in charge of the institution, and he went at once to the hospital. The police did not receive a report of the suicide until 9 o'clock in the morning.

Columbus Hospital has 150 beds for the poor, and thirty nurses conduct the charitable work connected with the sick and impoverished. There is no charge attached by the corner to the authorities.

Dr. D. M. Mack, who went to the rescue from his room, was operated on for appendicitis several days ago. Lovecchio was twenty-nine years old.

STATES ASKED TO PAY BACK

TREASURY SURPLUS OF $28,000,000 DISTRIBUTED IN 1836.

Bill Introduced by Representative Murdock—Takes Cognizance of Old Loan.

The publication yesterday over the country of the introduction by Representative Murdock of Kansas of a bill to call upon the twenty-six states to repay to the government $28,000,000 distributed during Andrew Jackson's administration was followed immediately by a flood of telegrams upon representatives, senators and newspaper correspondents for more light on the subject.

"I introduced that bill two years ago," said Mr. Murdock. "No one paid any attention to it.

Since the special session began I received a letter asking what had become of my bill to have the money repaid. So I reintroduced the bill.

"Evidently the mind is in a state now to consider the nation's finance. I shall do everything in my power to press the bill for passage—if not at the special session, then at the regular session."

In 1836 there was a surplus in the federal Treasury of $28,000,000, due largely to the sale of public lands. The central Congress authorized the distribution among the states upon their promising to repay it upon demand of the Secretary of the Treasury.

After $28,000,000 had been distributed, but before the fourth installment was paid, Congress passed a law providing payment of the final installment and incorporating as a "joker" a proviso that the money distributed should be subject to the demand of Congress, instead of the Secretary of the Treasury.

It is said that the matter of the repayment was called up by Murdock's attention to the fourth installment.

The twenty-six states received the three installments in proportion to their representation in Congress. The amount in round figures deposited with them was as follows:

- Maine, $656,000. Maryland, $656,000. New Hampshire, $656,000. Vermont, $656,000. Massachusetts, $1,312,000. Connecticut, $753,600. Rhode Island, $284,000. New York, $4,015,000. Pennsylvania, $2,808,000. New Jersey, $753,600. Ohio, $1,312,000. Indiana, $656,000. Illinois, $753,600. Michigan, $284,000. Virginia, $2,808,000. North Carolina, $1,312,000. South Carolina, $1,312,000. Louisiana, $753,600. Mississippi, $284,000. Kentucky, $1,312,000. Missouri, $284,000. Arkansas, $284,000. Delaware, $284,000.

CHANGES HIDING PLACE.

Crazy Snake Succeeds in Eluding His Pursuers.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 3.—That Crazy Snake, the Creek leader, has changed his hiding place, and in so doing successfully eluded apprehension by the state troops was made practically certain today, when a posse of officers from Henryetta accosted a party of the leader's scouts near Hoffman. The Indians were ordered to surrender, but they fled.

The officers fired about a dozen shots, the Indians escaping unharmed into the hills to the west. They are believed to have returned to Crazy Snake's new retreat. Officers who have been in the field with the militia for several days returned to Henryetta today. A new posse probably will go out tomorrow.

Camp Hickory has again been garrisoned with a majority of the state troops.

FOUND DEAD IN THEIR HOME.

CHESTER, Pa., April 3.—The bodies of Mary Lee and her brother, James McAvoy, were found tonight in their home in this city. The body of the woman was lying at the foot of the stairs in the hallway, while that of her brother was found hanging by the neck to a banister on the second floor. McAvoy, the police say, evidently committed suicide. An examination of the woman's body disclosed no marks upon it, and it will require an autopsy to determine how the woman met her death. McAvoy and his sister were both more than seventy years of age.

FUNDS FOR MAINE MONUMENT

ASSOCIATION AT MEETING DISCUSSES PLANS.

Lecture by Capt. Sigbee Proposed. To Meet Again Next Thursday Evening.

Further plans for raising funds with which to erect in Arlington a national monument to the memory of the brave men who lost their lives in Havana harbor when the battleship Maine was blown up were discussed at a meeting of the Maine Monument Association held in the room of Representative Joseph A. Goulden in the House office building last night. Admiral Charles D. Sigbee, who commanded the ill-fated vessel on the night it was blown up, presided over the meeting as president of the society.

With the object of interesting the school children all over the country in the project for a national monument to the Maine's dead, the association expects to form branches in the public schools.

The association last night considered a plan to have Admiral Sigbee give a lecture in the National Theater May 2 on the blowing up of the Maine.

Mrs. Isabel Worrell Ball, chairman of the committee on certificates of membership, reported to the association that the committee was not ready to make a definite recommendation. More bids for furnishing the certificates will be considered by the committee.

Reports were received showing that the subscriptions for the monument fund are growing and the association that the committee was not ready to make a definite recommendation. More bids for furnishing the certificates will be considered by the committee.

Present at last night's session were Admiral Sigbee, Mrs. Charles W. Dunlap, secretary; Mrs. Annie W. Johnson, Mrs. Mary W. Goulden, Mrs. Isabel Worrell Ball, Mrs. M. McCallister, Mrs. J. Campbell, Mrs. Mattie R. Sprague and Miss E. F. Hayward.

CHARGES SHORTAGE IN WEIGHT

ASSISTANT SEALER 'ARRESTS MARKETMAN'S CLERK.

Requires Defendant to Deposit Collateral in Sum of $100—Details of Charge.

The sale of several packages of meat purporting to weigh fifty pounds, but which, it was charged, actually weighed only thirty-six pounds, caused the arrest yesterday of Robert L. Payne, clerk for William B. Payne, meat dealer in the Center market, for selling short weight meat, has been reported to the District Commissioners.

In his report to the Commissioners, W. C. Haskell, sealer of weights and measures, stated that "a few days since the manager of the New England dairy lunch-room, 525 9th street northwest, made a complaint to the office that he thought he was receiving short weight meat from Mr. William B. Payne, a meat dealer in the Center market. I sent my assistant, Mr. Howe, to investigate the matter this morning with directions to be at the lunch-room to see the delivery made. When the meat was delivered it was taken possession of by Assistant Sealer Howe, who upon weighing the several kinds found the following:

"Amounts purchased as per Mr. Payne's bill—25 pounds Hamburg sausage, weighed 17 pounds; 15 pounds smoked sausage, true weight 12 pounds; 10 pounds stew beef, true weight 7 pounds.

Weighted on Dealer's Scales. "The several packages were then taken to Mr. Payne's stand in the Center market and weighed on his own scales. The ones used in weighing the meat before it was sent out, and the shortages in weight were verified.

"Robert L. Payne, the clerk who weighed the meat, was arrested and taken to the first precinct, where he was directed to put up $100 collateral for his appearance in court."

Robert L. Payne deposited the collateral and was released from custody. When seen last night at the Center market, Mr. William B. Payne said that to his knowledge his scales were correct, and that if there was a shortage in weight it must have been due to a mistake by the clerk in weighing the meats and sausage.
