A POPULAR HOSTESS

MRS. CLIFFORD S. WALTON.

SOCIETY

Belvedere Hotel. The wedding will be a military one and the bridal party will be large. The bride will have as her maid of honor Miss Lydia Miller, her youngest sister; Miss Credilla Miller, her cousin; Miss Margaret Stirling, daughter of Rear Admiral Stirling, United States Navy, and Miss Elizabeth Williams of this city, sister of the bridegroom.

Capt. Beaumont, U.S.M.C., will be best man, and the following will serve as ushers: Maj. Leonard, Capt. Hooker, Capt. Lay and Capt. Little of the Marine Corps; Lieut. Ross of the army, Lieut. Bagby, Dr. Haynes and Lieut. Osterhaus of the navy.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Col. Charles W. Williams, U.S.A. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth O. Williams, resides in this city. Capt. Williams will bring his bride to one of the new residences just completed at the Marine barracks here for the officers.

Of the army and navy weddings of the near future which always attract attention, no matter where they take place, among the first will be that of Miss Sanna Livingston Glover, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Glover, and Capt. Oscar J. Charles of the Infantry, U.S.A., which will be solemnized in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York city, at noon Easter Monday. Archbishop Farley will officiate. It will be a military wedding.

Miss Glover, who was one of the passengers on the ill-fated White Star line steamer Republic, has chosen as her attendants her sister, Miss Anne W. Glover, Miss Ernestine Glover, a cousin; Miss Gladys Blodgett, Miss Martha A. Montgomery, a cousin and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Montgomery of Flushing, and Miss Helen Charles of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom.

Capt. Charles, who is now stationed at West Point, will be best man. The ushers will be Capt. Morton S. Smith, 20th Infantry, U.S.A.; Capt. Lowell O. O'Brien, U.S.A.; West Point; Lieut. E. Llewellyn Bull, U.S.A.; Mr. Robert A. Livingston, Jr., a cousin of the bride; Dr. H. S. Corwell and Capt. Charles' two brothers, Messrs. Frederick and Albert Charles of Chicago.

The ceremony a reception will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Glover, 36 East 76th street.

Miss Eva Tucker McGuire, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William P. McGuire of Winchester, Va., will be married to Lieut. Alney Fiske, U.S.A., April 24.

The wedding of Miss Anne Decker Orr, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Orr's daughter and Lieut. Walter Roswell, U.S.A., will take place at the southern home of the bride's parents. A wedding supper will follow the ceremony, and at the conclusion of a wedding trip Lieut. Roswell and his bride will be at home at Fort Logan, Denver, Col., after June 1.

Miss Jessie Wisdom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wisdom, will be married this spring at her home in New Orleans to Ensign Roland Monroe Stranard, U.S.A.

Another New Orleans wedding of great social interest will be that of Miss Katharine Isabella Bruce Langtry and Capt. Edward Warren Banker, U.S.M.C., which will be celebrated also before the summer.

The news of the engagement of Miss Mabel Mathewson, an Ensign Guy Edwin Langtry, N.S., comes from Coronado Beach, Cal. The formal announcement was made at a dinner given last week by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aicher, Mathewson of Coronado Beach, Cal. Miss Mathewson is very popular in California cities, and is accounted one of the most lovely some belles of the south. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Della Pringle, a pioneer resident of Port Townsend, Ensign Langtry was attached to the U. S. S. Maine during the visit of the Atlantic fleet, and is now on U. S. torpedo boat destroyer ferry. The wedding will take place in Coronado June 1 and the young couple will spend the summer in Seattle.

Miss Winifred Higgins will be married April 15, at her home in Portland Ore., to Lieut. Richard Park of the Engineer Corps, stationed at Vancouver. A large reception will follow the ceremony. Miss Higgins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higgins, and her father is a bank president. Miss Higgins was a student at Stanford and is a Gamma Phi Beta. Her attendants will be her sister, Mrs. Walter Stokes, as matron of honor, and the Misses Isabel and Jessie Beckwith of Portland as bridesmaids. A club of girls of which the bride is a member, will also be of the wedding party. Lieut. Park's brother, who is also in the army, will come from the east to attend him.

Mrs. J. W. L. Carty and daughters Virginia and Roberta of Frederick, Md., are guests of Mrs. A. B. Carty of 1234 Harvard street.

The minister of Bolivia and Mme. Calderon and Miss Calderon are leaving for their own country about the 1st of May, and will be away for the summer months.

A mid-let fete was given by Col. Charles Page Bryan, the American minister at Lisbon, both Mrs. Emma Nevada and her daughter, Miss Mignon Nevada, sang Mrs. Nevada had not sung in Lisbon for nineteen years. Supper was followed by a dance, which lasted until the early hours of the morning. Miss Bryan, sister of the minister, spent the past winter in this city with a relative.

Mr. and Miss Hinchley, who went abroad some time ago, are now at Nice, France.

Mrs. MacVeagh, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, will be here Tuesday and will spend a few days as the guest

Free Flesh Builder
Any Man or Woman Can Now Be Plump and Well Developed.

50-Cent Package Free.

Just because you are thin and underweight, do not think you have to stay in that condition. Thanks to a new discovery, you can be plump, symmetrical, well developed and vigorous with the bones covered with good, solid flesh, the hollow places filled out and the cheeks and face made plump, full and attractive. And the beauty of it is, it will not cost you a penny to see whether this treatment will do all this for you or not, as a full-sized 50-cent package will be sent you by mail without charge if you simply write for it. (See coupon below.)

There is no strenuous exercising required, no drastic diet necessary. All you have to do is take, four times a day, a little tablet of Sargol, the new flesh-building principle, then weigh yourself once a week to note the increase as the pounds add up.

The new treatment increases the red corpuscles in the blood, strengthens the nerves and puts the digestive tract into such shape that your food is assimilated and turned into good, solid, healthy flesh instead of passing through the system undigested and unassimilated. It is a thoroughly scientific principle.

COUPON
This certificate entitles you to 50 cents to help defray distribution expenses entitles the holder to one 50-cent package of Sargol, the bone treatment which makes thin folks plump and attractive.
