A SERIES OF WHITE HOUSE LAWN FETES FOR MAY.

Marriage of Miss Church and Mr. Yearley—Other Weddings. Personal Notes.

That the White House will play an appreciable part in the May time sociabilities of the capital is pretty generally believed. While not definitely announced, it is understood that Mrs. Taft has in contemplation a series of lawn parties and other events for which arrangements are now in progress.

The President and Mrs. Taft will receive the members of the D. A. R. congress at the White House tomorrow at 2:30.

Rev. Dr. Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, performed the marriage ceremony at noon today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McCall Church for their eldest daughter, Miss Helen Durant Church, and Mr. Alexander Yearley, third of Baltimore. Their spacious home on 28th street was elaborately decorated with spring blossoms, Easter lilies, apricot blooms, etc., carrying out a color scheme of green and white which was adhered to in all the other daily arrangements for the event. An orchestra played the wedding march as the bridal party came through the drawing room suite to the place of the ceremony, the floral bower arranged across the front half of the first room.

When this charming bride came in with her father she made a lovely picture in her trained dress of white duchess satin, with trimmings of real lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was crowned with orange blossoms, and she carried an exquisite bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Her sister, Miss Mallory Church, a debutante of the past season, was her maid of honor, and was prettily dressed in light green cotton made over satin of the same shade. Her shower bouquet was of white sweet peas, and her white hat was trimmed in green and white. Another sister, Miss Maxwell Church, was bridesmaid, and was dressed in white silk muslin, with pale green ribbon accessories. Her hat and bouquet were like those of the maid of honor.

Mr. Harry N. Baltzer of Baltimore was best man. Only a family party was present during the ceremony, the large company came in for the brilliant reception which followed at 12:30. The bride's presents, a valuable collection, were shown the guests.

Mrs. Church, the bride's mother, was fitted in gown of pale gray satin, with insertion of lace in the same shade. Mr. and Mrs. Yearley left during the afternoon for their wedding journey, and will, in connection, take up their residence in Baltimore.

Among the relatives of the bridegroom here for the wedding were his sisters, Mrs. Hill and Miss Yearley of Baltimore.

Mrs. George Downey, U.S.A., and Mrs. Downey gave a dinner dance last night at the Chevy Chase Club for Miss Mary Lodge McKee, granddaughter of the late President Harrison. The party included Capt. Frederick W. Sladen, U.S.A., and Mrs. Sladen, Capt. George Sumner, U.S.A., and Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. McKee, Miss Sheridan, Miss Katherine Elkies, Mrs. McCallum, Mr. Yoachim, first lieutenant of the Chilean legation, Miss Williams, Col. Spencer Cosby, U.S.A.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Brooks, Miss Barry, Capt. Sherwood A. Cheney, U.S.A., Capt. Arthur J. Capron, Arthur Johnson, U.S.A.; Miss Boyd, Lieut. A. D. Davis, U.S.A.; Lieut. Commander D. F. Shepard, Col. Spencer Cosby, U.S.A.; Philip S. Brown, Maj. Blanton Winship, Capt. G. L. Irwin, Maj. William E. Horton, U.S.A.; Miss Sallie Garlington, Capt. Howard H. Irwin, U.S.A.; Capt. A. Delaney, U.S.A.; Miss Armstrong, and Mrs. Archibald W. Butt, U.S.A., and Mrs. Elbridge Jordan, Mr. Miere, Mr. Sommes and Mr. Goldsborough of Baltimore. The table was beautifully decorated with fruit blossoms strewn over the cloth in a pyramid in the center. Electric lights also gleamed among the flowers.

Miss Mildred Lindsay Dick, daughter of Mrs. Ewell Dick, and Mr. George Cornell Collins will be married at 10 o'clock in the Church of the Covenant, the Rev. Charles Wood officiating. Mr. Murray, organist, will render the wedding march and will give several appropriate selections during the ceremony. Mr. Curry Miller will act as best man, and the usher will be Mr. Frederick Wilhelme Albert, Mr. Harold Stonebraker, Mr. Whitney Kipp and Mr. S. R. Wallace. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. William E. Dick. She will be gowned in white duchess satin, with lace and pearl trimmings in the design. A tulle veil caught with a spray of orange blossoms will carry a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Dick, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, gowned in green mesaline. The bridesmaids will be Miss Irene Meyers, Miss Mima Mackall and Miss Mary Minix. Two of the bridesmaids will wear pink and the other two white.

Miss Mary Goodman of 1322 12th street will be tomorrow for a visit of several weeks to her sister, Mrs. G. M. Givin of 1504 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.
