Special Dispatch to The Star.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 8.—The Athletics beat Washington in an exciting game at Shibe Park this afternoon by a score of 1 to 0.

There was a lot of interest in the game and the 8,576 spectators were kept on the qui vive from the start to the finish. To begin with, Manager Cantillon announced that Keeley would be his pitcher and Umpire Connolly made his statement to the crowd to that effect. When the Athletics went to the bat, however, Cantillon made a switch and substituted Burns. This at once caused a protest from Harry Davis who claimed that Keeley must retire at least one man before going out of the game, but Umpire Connolly argued that Keeley had not been in the game. He promised to put the question to President Johnson, and with that understanding the game proceeded. Cantillon sending Burns to the slab.

Hughes to the Relief.

Burns did well for four innings and only one solitary safe hit was chalked up against him, but in the fifth Danny Murphy started the session with a long drive to left. That was the finish of Mr. Burns, and Hughes was called upon to take up the running. He looked like a forlorn hope, but he went at his task gamely and managed to persuade Davis to place an easy one before Conroy, who, with Street, valiantly downed Murphy between third and second. Hughes finished out the inning in clever style and in the sixth Smith was called into requisition. He had a wild pitch, but the game went on without any man crossing the pan. In the seventh inning, the Athletics' lucky number, 0-0-0, began by getting a runner on base, followed, and as he had made two hits he was not figured as a dangerous proposition, but he fooled the talent by hitting a screaming single to center. Collins hit Smith in the chest with a pile-driver and was thrown out at first, but Baker moved up to take the place of Collins, and the game went on without any man crossing the pan. In the seventh inning, the Athletics' lucky number, 0-0-0, began by getting a runner on base, followed, and as he had made two hits he was not figured as a dangerous proposition, but he fooled the talent by hitting a screaming single to center. Collins hit Smith in the chest with a pile-driver and was thrown out at first, but Baker moved up to take the place of Collins, and the game went on without any man crossing the pan.

Krause a Wonder.

Krause was the slabman for the Athletics, and he worked like a veteran all the way. He gave four bases on balls and made a wild pitch, but he invariably followed up any break by bracing up and pitching sterling ball. In the second Conroy got a three-bagger, but Krause managed to retire the bopper on the third strike. In the sixth session, with one down, Unslaub hit the left field fence for two bags and took third on a wild pitch, but Krause got out of trouble by faning Delehanty and making Clymer fly to Barr. Only in the eighth inning were the Nationals dangerous. Street got a base on balls and after Ganey had gone out on a pop fly, which was intended for a sacrifice, Blankenship was sent in to bat for McRide. He had his eye on the ball and drove a single to left. Unslaub came next and put a Texas Leaguer to the infield, filling the bases. Delehanty hit a hard one down to short, but Barry grabbed it and heaved it to Collins, getting Unslaub, and then fired it to Davis in time to nail Delehanty at first, completing a double play and averting danger. The score:

Notes of the Game.

The Athletics made five hits off the three pitchers, Baker getting three and Murphy two. Unslaub and Conroy each got two of the five hits credited to Washington. Without counting Keeley, Washington used fourteen men during the game.

point which has not been raised before. The only Combs Mack prompted Davis to make the kick on the play, and he is sure Han Johnson will uphold his side of the argument.

Delehanty was the bright star in fielding for the Nationals. He showed good work and an handling several difficult plays in masterly fashion.

YANKEES WALLOPED BY BOSTON REDS

NEW YORK, May 8.—Boston lunched four hits on Quinn in the fourth inning today and thereby, with the assistance of Knight's error and two bases on balls, scored six runs, defeating New York, 6 to 4. In the inning, Speaker sent three men over the plate with a double. The New York club has released Pitcher Ford, who was with Atlanta last year, to Jersey City. Score:

NAPS TRIM SOX BY GOOD HITTING

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 8.—Cleveland made it three out of four from Chicago today, defeating the latter 8 to 4. Smith was batted hard and forced to retire at the end of the fifth. Rhodes was wild and was taken out after pitching four innings. Liebhart and Owen, who finished the game, were effective. LaJole's batting and fielding were the features. He and Hinchman drove in all of Cleveland's runs. The score:

"THE MAN BEHIND"

NEARLY A RIOT AT BROOKLYN GAME

Three-Cornered Fight Between Lennox, Knabe and Gleason Stirs Up Things.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 8.—A three-cornered fight between Lennox on the one side and Knabe and Gleason on the other nearly caused a riot at the game between Brooklyn and Philadelphia here today.

In the fifth inning Knabe, going to third base on Titus' single, spiked Lennox, although he appeared to have plenty of room to pass the Brooklyn man. Lennox resented the act by striking Knabe on the jaw. Knabe hit back and the two clinched. Gleason, who was on the coaching line, jumped in, but before the fight became general, cooler players separated the combatants. All three were ordered out of the game.

As Gleason walked to the bench a spectator in one of the boxes threw a paper and a pop bottle at him. A special policeman, who started to arrest the player's assailant, was interfered with by the spectators, while many of the crowd of 12,000 rushed on the field. But a swarm of policemen and detectives, who were outside of the grounds, rushed in at this period and quelled the disturbance.

CHICAGO CUBS BEAT CINCY IN A DRIZZLE

CHICAGO, May 8.—Chicago made it four straight from Cincinnati today. The game was played in a drizzling rain, and at one time the game was called for forty-eight minutes to allow the base lines to be laid with sawdust. Two gifts, an error and a single won the game in the eighth. The score:

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS SHUT OUT PIRATES

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 8.—St. Louis broke the winning streak of Pittsburgh here today when they shut out the local club by a score of 8 to 0. Lush pitched a splendid game, keeping the hits well scattered. Adams was weak and was replaced in the fourth by Brandon, who did well. The visitors secured four runs in the sixth inning after two men were out without having a hit. Maddox, who relieved Brandon, hit two batters and gave two bases on balls, which, with a base on balls by Powell, who was sent in for Maddox, forced in three runs. Two errors were responsible for the other tally. Score:

GIANTS AGAIN LOSE TO THE BOSTONS

BOSTON, Mass., May 8.—Boston defeated New York in the fourth pitchers' battle of the current series by a score of 2 to 1 today. With the bases full in the third inning, Ames forced one run in with a base on balls, and again in the eighth a pass resulted in a run. Score:

BAITMORE, Md., May 8.—Nearly 10,000 persons went to the Pimlico track today and saw some interesting sport. A feature of the card was the Merchants' handicap, at six furlongs, with fourteen starters. This event provided the biggest kind of an upset, for R. E. Watkins' Lad of Langdon, a 29-to-1 shot after a brilliant stretch run, came home in triumph a length in front of Siskin, backed from 100 to 40. It was a hard drive for the place, Siskin beating Gowan, 4 to 1, by three-quarters of a length. August Belmont's Half Soverign, 5 to 1, with top weight, had early speed, but tired in the last quarter. Statesman, 7-to-2 favorite, never could get out of the rack. The time was 1:44 3/5.

WATERWAY, 7 to 5, made all the running in the Chesapeake steeplechase, at about two miles, and won in a gallop. Touchwood, second in favor, was always the contender and had no trouble in taking the place from Dr. Keith, 30 to 1. Sun Glow, 30 to 1, would have been third if he hadn't stumbled at the last jump. The time was 4:25.

Mr. Wright, riding his gelding Rio Grande, 11-to-20 favorite, carried off the honors in the amateur cup for gentlemen riders at a mile and a half. He had the others safe at all stages and breezed home with plenty to spare in 1:43. Mr. E. Tucker got Aster d'Or, 8 to 5, to win the place in a wide margin over Perserverance, 15 to 1, with Mr. Nicolais in the saddle.

Reynour, a 12-to-1 shot, made a clean sweep in the first race for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs, and won easily. A bad start gave him an advantage, which was a big help. Compton, 8 to 5, ran into the place, with five lengths over Busy, 9 to 5. The time was 0:56.

Momentum, 6 to 1, came fast in the last furlong, won the second race at six furlongs in a drive by a head from George W. Le Bolt, 2 to 1. McIntyre set too fast a pace, but he beat Simple Honors, 3 to 1, three lengths for the place. Tim Pippin was run off his feet. The time was 1:14 1/5.

Queen of the Hills, 3 to 1, romped home with the sixth race, at a mile and sixty yards, in 1:50 1/5. The men who were paired for the last race at six furlongs in a drive by a head from George W. Le Bolt, 2 to 1. McIntyre set too fast a pace, but he beat Simple Honors, 3 to 1, three lengths for the place. Tim Pippin was run off his feet. The time was 1:14 1/5.
