We Advise Prospective Buyers Who Appreciate First-Class

Residences to See These Without Delay—

Open Until 9 O'Clock Every Evening.

The Safe and Sane Homes,

3210 to 3220 13th St. N.W.,

Between Kenyon Street and Park Road.

Columbia Heights.

Open Every Day and Night Till 9 O'Clock.

Safe to buy from every standpoint—the value is here and the certainties of increase are apparent. You'll never want to move away. Sane construction, arrangement and finish—free from "pink tea" decorations and painted woodwork of various hues to catch the eye. Every evidence at a glance of lasting durability. Erected by day's labor (no subcontract work) by a builder of prominence and unimpeachable reputation. NOT OF THE SPECULATIVE TYPE OF HOUSES.

THE LOCATION is all that can be desired—high elevation, excellent surroundings. Main car lines one square away. Thirteenth street is a through thoroughfare—a street of prominence. No lonely off-place to leave the family in the husband's absence. No ravines or low grounds to create dampness and fog. Atmospheric conditions here are perfect.

THESE ARE IMPORTANT ITEMS TO CONSIDER. THE HOUSES—ONLY SIX—have fronts of stone and brick. Full three-story bay windows. BRICK AND STONE PORCHES—far better than wooden structures. The first floor has parlor, library, dining room, pantry and kitchen. The massive mantels, together with the plate-glass mirrors in the library, serve to make this a beautiful floor.

THE TWO BATHROOMS are models of beauty and completeness. Expensive fittings. Pedestal wash-stands. Large tubs and medicine cabinets. Perfect ventilation. ELECTRIC LIGHTS THROUGHOUT. The fixtures positively surpass any ever installed in this section. Expensive quality of paper, special imported designs. The "Gaiety" hot-water heating plant—best of all. Rear stairway of solid oak. Laundry room. Instant water heater.

GENUINE OAK WOODWORK THROUGHOUT. Equal to your furniture in finish and quality. Beautifully polished floors. Two-story back porch affords an unobstructed view of an entire square. This wide, open space is a great advantage. THE HOUSES ARE NOT "HEMMED IN." Light and air in abundance. THE BIG LOT extending back to this open area of ground is another valuable asset. Stable or garage space.

PRICE, $2,500. TERMS REASONABLE. MODERATE CASH PAYMENT. MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS LESS THAN THE PROPERTY WILL RENT FOR. NOTE THE LOCATION—13th st. between Kenyon st. and Park road—Columbia Heights—the prettiest spot in town. The houses face the east.

Open Day and Night Until 9 O'Clock.

The Grand Lodge of Masons for the District of Columbia will hold its third stated communication of the year at Masonic Temple Saturday evening, September 25.

At the reassembling of the Worshipful Masters Association for 1909 the 29th instant, President Roe Fulkerson has a big program outlined. Among other topics the formation of a Masonic duck-club league will be discussed.

Grand Master Richard A. Ford has decided to request the noble and vice grand officers to record a special session of each of the subordinate lodges to meet the grand officers Friday evening, September 24, at 7:30, in the west lodge room of Odd Fellows Hall, 7th street northwest.

It is his desire that the officers make no engagements for that evening that will interfere with their being present. A personal call will be issued to each officer.

Tuesday, October 5, will commence the fall series of visitations by the grand officers and it is the intention of the grand master to follow the same course pursued during the spring series, which appeared to be so successful.

October 5, the grand officers will visit Washington Lodge, No. 6.

The evening of September 30 has been set apart by Columbia Lodge, No. 10, as "roll call and home-coming evening," and the lodge committee is endeavoring to make that evening one of unusual interest to the members of the lodge and those of other lodges who may avail themselves of the privilege of being present.

Light refreshments were served and dancing closed the evening's program.

Knights of Pythias.

Grand Chancellor Albert Kahler and his staff of Grand Lodge officers opened the series of fall visitations to the subordinate lodges of this domain last Tuesday evening, when they visited Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, at Pythian Temple.

The date was also the occasion of the celebration by that lodge of its fortieth anniversary, and the main auditorium of the temple was profusely decorated with the colors of the order, cut flowers and palms.

The exemplification of the unwritten work of the order by Grand Lecturer Robert Sproule, it is said, was one of the best ever heard here. The hall was crowded to the officers of the Grand Lodge entered the room escorted by a large detail of Washington Company, No. 1, and J. Caldwell Company, No. 7, Uniform Rank. When they had assumed their stations Maj. Thomas A. Bynum, commanding the 1st Battalion, 1st Regiment, uniformed and escorted a brother Pythian during a fire in that city in the early thirties, shortly after the birth of the order.

Part Supreme Representative J. B. Conner of Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, in the course of his remarks, made an earnest appeal for the support of the movement to erect in Richmond a suitable memorial to the memory of Samuel Holder Hines, a Pythian martyr, who lost his life in the burning of the city.

Past Chancellor Gibbons of Excelsior Lodge presented a token of affection and Seal to Grand Keeper of Records and Seal E. J. Casson, who is a member of Excelsior Lodge.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies refreshments were served in the army of the temple.

The next visitation of the Grand Lodge officers will be to Amaranth Lodge, No. 28, at Northeast Temple, the 25th instant.
