MADE DEBUT YESTERDAY.

noon for her young daughter, Miss Charlotte Pettus, and her guest, Miss Marie Louise Elkins of Philadelphia.

Mrs. and Mr. Harry R. Howser presided at a large tea yesterday afternoon at their home, on 17th street.

In the drawing room the debutante's friends, with evergreens and palms, formed the decoration, and it was here that Mrs. Howser, in a handsome gown of black lace, received, assisted by her daughter, whose gown was of white satin, trimmed with silver spangled gauze. She carried an armful of roses chosen from among the large number sent her.

In the dining room, where the decorations were in red and green, Mrs. Conrad Syms, Mrs. David Moore and Miss Gardner did the honors at the daintily appointed tea table.

The other members of the receiving party were Miss Nina Van Arsdale, Miss Lucinda Pennebaker, Miss Lauck, Miss Elizabeth Bouvier Walsh, Miss Helen Whyte, Miss Elanice Howser of Baltimore, Miss Ruby Young and Miss Elizabeth Howser, the schoolgirl daughter of the house, a supper and an informal dance closed the evening, a number of young men remaining after the tea.

A small company of relatives and personal friends attended the marriage last night at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howser, 1117 14th Street N.W. Miss Edwina Hanna, youngest daughter of the late Mr. E. P. Hanna, solicitor of the Navy Department, and Mr. William Leroy Fairbanks of Georgetown, Mrs. Rev. Dr. Charles Wood of the Church of the Covenant of the city, and Mr. Henry Sheffield of Cleveland, Ohio, nephew of Mrs. Boardman, are her guests this week.

Secretary Carpenter announced today that the number already invited to the reception to be held at the White House Tuesday, January 4, has become necessary to close the list. No more invitations will be issued.

Mrs. Lewis More and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Cincinnati, sisters of Mrs. Taft, are expected at the White House during January. The Misses Anderson, daughters of the latter, will also be here.

Mrs. Galt's cotillon, Mrs. William Haywood's dance for her young daughter, Miss Doris Haywood, and Mrs. Boutell's dinner for Miss Alice Sorrell Blech, Mrs. Mary Albert of Annapolis and Mr. Ladd of Boston, which will be followed by a dance at the Highlands, are the social events of the day.

Mrs. Guidet Durvee had a company of young people dining with her last night. Her guests were Miss Mary McCauley, Miss Jessie Kroegstad, Miss Frances Noyes, Miss Olga Roosevelt, Miss Elizabeth Howry, Miss Marguerite Barbour, Miss Leonora Finley, Miss Conrad, Miss Katherine Hest, Miss Elsie Downing, Miss Helen Parker, Miss Pichon, Rustem Bey, charge d'affaires of Turkey; Mr. de Thal of the Russian embassy, Baron Hardenbrook and Lieut. Von Breuning, both of the German embassy; Mr. Henri Martin of the Swiss legation, Mr. Bowler, Mr. Jack Siebert, Mr. Frank Scott, Mr. John Henderson, Jr., Mr. Totten, Mr. Weldon, Lieut. Commander White, Mr. Myer and Mr. Henry.
