NEW YORK, August 20.—Stocks were lower again this morning and some large blocks of Reading, Union Pacific and United States Steel were sold at prices below yesterday's closing figures.

The bears did not follow up their advantage at the outset, and prices consequently worked back nearly with yesterday's closing. Most of the business centered in Reading, Union Pacific and United States Steel, which likewise covered the widest fractional range.

American Agricultural Chemical yielded 1/4 and American Car and American Locomotive 1. American Cotton Oil gained a point.

Traders Lose Interest. The market closed easy. After prices had returned to where they left off yesterday interest in the market abated and speculators worked back to normal.

REFUSED BIG SETTLEMENT

Illinois Central Could Have Had $700,000 to Drop Prosecutions.

Suicide Averted Arrest.

CHICAGO, August 20.—John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper of the Illinois Central railroad and who with Frank B. Harriman, former general manager of the road, and Charles L. Ewing, former superintendent of lines north of the Ohio river, is charged with conspiracy to defraud the road, was arraigned before Judge Cottrell in the municipal court today.

Taylor requested a continuance until August 23, but Chief Justice Olson ordered Judge Cottrell to set the case for Olson's court next Monday. The cases of Harriman and Ewing are set for next Friday.

Harahan Swore Out Warrants.

The warrants for Harriman, Ewing and Taylor were sworn to by President J. T. Harahan. Harriman and Ewing were taken to the Harrison street police station. Their bonds of $10,000 each were signed by a professional bondsman.

"We will get the last man in this conspiracy, down to the fellow that drove the spikes in the road bed, if there are any such, that had guilty knowledge of the scheme," said Murray Nelson, jr., attorney for the railroad, after the arrests.

The same attorney announced that some idea might be conveyed to the public of the strength of the criminal cases that have been worked up against the alleged offenders by reason of the fact that the road this week refused an offer of $700,000 to drop the prosecution.

Glady's Vanderdecken was a homely little girl. Her nose resembled putty and her hair it wouldn't curl; She had a voice, however, that resounded 'wide and far—' 'We'll have that cultivated,' said her mamma to her pa.

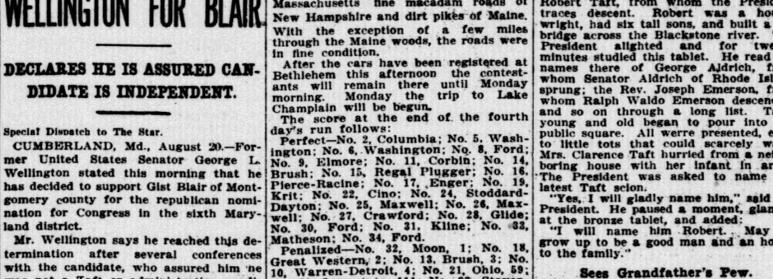

So Gladys went to Europe when she grew into her teens, Professors praised her highly while pa dug into his jeans To pay the fees for tuning up his daughter's tra-la-la— 'She'll make a fortune for us,' said her mamma to her pa.

But Gladys's ambition for a prima donna's life Went flying when her teacher said, 'Oh, sweet one, be my wife.' And after the eloquent in her father's touring car— 'Forgive me, please,' wired Gladys to her mamma and her pa.

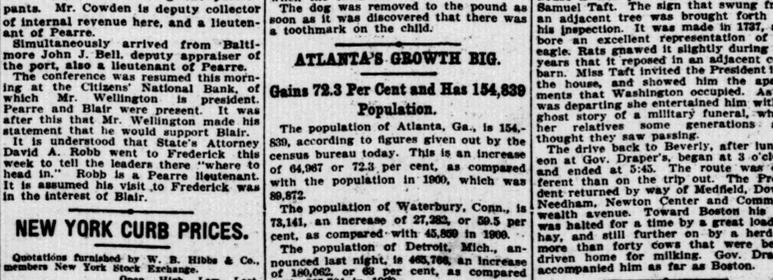

Now Gladys Vanderdecken (hyphen) Von de Mozart Stage Keeps up her vocal training, but she uses it on twigs; Her parents both forgave her, though it was a sorry jar— 'Oh! something always happens,' said her mamma to her pa.
