ANACOSTIA.
 L. C. G. Craig has taken out a permit to build an addition to his premises at Stanton and Elvin roads, and the work is being done. Philip Diggs is also having a two-room addition placed on his home at 1808 Talbot street. Jacob M. Shepherd is remodeling the front of premises 1918 13th street, and Eliza Blackman will erect an addition to her residence on the Bowen road. Mr. and Mrs. William V. King have moved into their new residence recently completed on Mount View place and Mrs. Braunman and her two daughters are occupying their new home on Maple View avenue. Robert Woodland will erect a two-story frame dwelling on Howard road, near the Barry farm.

The October meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Home at Anacostia was held yesterday afternoon in the boardroom of the institution, with Mrs. F. H. P. presiding. Reports of the work during the past month were submitted and new work outlined. The society is planning several reports for the winter months. The members were with supper at the close of the meeting.

The membership of Elecia Church, No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, at Anacostia is still increasing, as evidenced by a meeting held last evening in the Masonic hall, where several new members were admitted. Mrs. Francis Frazier, worthy matron, conducted the ceremonies, with the assistance of her officers. A social time followed the business of the meeting and refreshments were served.

The District will shortly begin the laying of several new branch water mains in this section, including 1,375 feet of eight-inch water main on S street between 13th and 16th streets, 210 feet of eight-inch main on 14th street between Good Hope road and S street, 120 feet of eight-inch main on 14th street between Good Hope road and S street, and 545 feet of eight-inch main on 14th street between Good Hope road and S street.

FRANCIS A. SPRINGER
 TO BE BURIED ON MONDAY
 Services at McKendree Church, With Masonic Rites at the Grave.

PROF. FRANCIS A. SPRINGER.
 Funeral services for Francis Asbury Springer, well known as an educator in Washington, who died at the age of seventy-two years yesterday evening shortly before 7 o'clock at Garfield Hospital, after an illness of one day, of abdominal trouble, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at McKendree M. E. Church, with Rev. Edgar Cordell Fowers, pastor of Brookland M. E. Church, of which Mr. Springer was a member, officiating. Rev. John Reid Shannon, pastor of the Metropolitan M. E. Church; Rev. E. T. Mowbray, pastor of McKendree M. E. Church; Rev. W. A. Hagerty, pastor of Peiworth M. E. Church; and Rev. A. J. Thompson of Waugh M. E. Church will assist. Masonic rites will be performed at the grave in Congressional cemetery.

Native of Maine.
 Mr. Springer was born in Portland, Me., November 13, 1838. He prepared for college at Hallowell Academy, Hallowell, Me., and at the Division of the Washington, Kent's Hill, Me. He entered Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., and after a year there transferred his connection to the Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., which institution he graduated with a degree of A. M. He was a member of the faculty of Rock River Seminary, Mount Morris, Ill., for some time as professor of Latin and Greek. He came to Washington in 1861, and became principal of the West End English, Classical and Mathematical Academy, and later supervising principal of the Division of the Washington public schools and principal of the night high school. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

Had Many Affiliations.
 Mr. Springer was for many years associated with the Y. M. C. A., and he was an honorary member of the Washington District Preachers' Meeting, being the only local minister not actively engaged in pastoral duties accorded this honor. At the time of his death he was dean of the Intercontinental Correspondence University. He also was a member of the Brookland M. E. Church quarterly conference, of the church of Acadia, Acadia, N. S., and of the Y. M. C. A. In 1866 Mr. Springer married Miss Anna Virginia Bates, daughter of the late Rev. W. W. Bates of the same denomination. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mrs. J. M. Springer, and his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Springer, and his son, Charles A. Springer. Mr. Springer had made his home with his sons at 3325 13th street for many years ago.

AMUSEMENTS
 "The Balkan Princess."
 In "The Balkan Princess," which the Messrs. Schubert will present at the Belasco Theater for five performances next beginning Tuesday evening, Louise Gunning and her company will be seen in a musical comedy which won recognition in London, where it ran for a year, as well as in New York, where it met the same success.

Harry Lauder.
 William Morris will present the intimate Scotch comedian, Harry Lauder, at the Belasco Theater next Monday for a matinee and a night performance only. Mr. Lauder will be supported by a big company of vaudeville artists recruited from the stars of all nations, including the great headline act of the eccentric genius, Trovato, in a novel offering.

"The Old Homestead."
 "The Old Homestead" is to be the attraction at the Columbia Theater next week with the ever-popular Uncle Joe, whose joys and sorrows, failures and successes invariably interest and arouse the sympathies. Joshua Whitcomb is the New England farmer as he is actually in an amusing way portrayed on almost lost sight of the idea that he is a dramatic counterfeiter folk notable. In addition to some apparently steps from his hayfield to the barnyard of the Whitcomb household, the play has lost none of its popularity and seems rather to increase in favor as the years go by.

Will Talk About Alaska.
 Miss Georgia Robertson will address Women's Home Missionary Society.

Seriously Hurt by Fall.
 Lewis Watson, who fell from a second-story window at 118 H street northwest last night, is in Emergency Hospital suffering from a fracture of the right knee, a compound fracture of the left ankle and cuts and bruises about the body and face. In addition, the surgeons say, he is badly shocked, and suffers from a haemorrhage, but in spite of his badly shaken condition, it is believed at the hospital he will recover.

Gayety.
 The Gayety will offer next week Harry Hastings' new contribution to burlesque—an entertainment consisting of two one-act burlesques and an elaborate vaudeville menu. The opening skit is called "An Ocean Joy Ride," providing an opportunity for some unique scenic effects. The closing number is "At the College Inn," in which the gay life in New York's famous athletic club is satirized. The latter number affords occasion for the introduction of Mr. Hastings' "punchdrummed chorus" in a variety of glittering costumes. The vaudeville feature of the entertainment is an important element in the success of the attraction. The singing contingent is headed by Viola Sheldon, advertised as the "California Nightingale." Bohannon and Corry introduce a picturesque novelty, "Fighting the Flames"; Hill, Cherry and Hill do some daring bicycle tricks, and the Dancing Kleins are said to be marvelous of grace. Mona Raymond is the soubrette of the organization, and Tom Coyne furnishes the Irish brand of humor. Beginning Saturday and continuing through the week, the world's greatest electric score board at the Gayety Theatre. There will be no extra charge for tickets.

"The Whirl of Mirth."
 The offering at the Academy next week will be a new drama by John Oliver entitled "A Prisoner for Life." A cast of excellence has been secured with the object of obtaining the best results from every line or phrase of the author. The master mechanic, it is promised, has some surprises in the line of scenic effects.

First Elmdorf Lecture.
 From Nice in France to Porto Fino in Italy is the itinerary mapped out by Dwight Elmdorf for the tourists who will accompany him on the first stage of his pictorial tour through Italy, at the National Theater, tomorrow afternoon. Nature in her wilder aspects is to be found all along this picturesque, rugged coast of the Mediterranean. The Riviera with its beauty and the marvels of a wondrous past, has become a source of inexhaustible delight to countless thousands. Mr. Elmdorf will conduct his hearers first to Genoa, the chief commercial city of Italy and the birthplace of Christopher Columbus; then along the coast through storied cities and past picturesque villages to Nice, "The Queen of the Riviera." From Nice a visit will be made to Monte Carlo, the most famous of the resorts of the Riviera, and thence to Grasse, the city of flowers, where perfume is made.

Washington Girl Plays "Electra."
 Mary Fuller, a Washington girl, played the part of Electra in a splendid production of the play "Electra" at the National Theater last night. Her performance was highly praised by the audience and the critics.

First Elmdorf Lecture.
 From Nice in France to Porto Fino in Italy is the itinerary mapped out by Dwight Elmdorf for the tourists who will accompany him on the first stage of his pictorial tour through Italy, at the National Theater, tomorrow afternoon. Nature in her wilder aspects is to be found all along this picturesque, rugged coast of the Mediterranean. The Riviera with its beauty and the marvels of a wondrous past, has become a source of inexhaustible delight to countless thousands. Mr. Elmdorf will conduct his hearers first to Genoa, the chief commercial city of Italy and the birthplace of Christopher Columbus; then along the coast through storied cities and past picturesque villages to Nice, "The Queen of the Riviera." From Nice a visit will be made to Monte Carlo, the most famous of the resorts of the Riviera, and thence to Grasse, the city of flowers, where perfume is made.

Washington Girl Plays "Electra."
 Mary Fuller, a Washington girl, played the part of Electra in a splendid production of the play "Electra" at the National Theater last night. Her performance was highly praised by the audience and the critics.
