

MOST STRENUOUS DAY FOR WILSON Democratic Standard Bearer Addresses 40,000 People, Traveling 210 Miles.

ROOSEVELT CONTINUES VERMONT SPEAKING TOUR Nears Canadian Border and Then Turns Toward Southern Part of State.

SEAGIRT, N. J., August 30.—Tired wrists and aching fingers reminded Gov. Woodrow Wilson today that he had spent the most strenuous day of his life in his trip through Pennsylvania. The governor estimated that he had spoken to an average of 10,000 people in the last 24 hours.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., August 30.—Col. Roosevelt was within a few miles of the Canadian border when he started on his second day's stumping tour of Vermont today. He turned south, however, from the meeting with the big fair at Morrisville, a smaller gathering at Barton and an evening meeting at St. Johnsbury as the other speaking points on the day's journey.

Noises Are Distracting. "I would enjoy all-in fact, I like it," said the governor today, speaking of his back-pain talks, "if it were not for the spectrophones. It is difficult to talk while engines are being switched around you and the noise of the railroad yards are distracting. If I didn't have to make speeches and could just shake hands I would mind it all because the people seem so straightforward, so hearty, and so sincere."

Wants Penrose Ousted. "Mr. Archibald didn't complain because he was blackmailed. What he complained of was that he didn't get the goods. Penrose testified that he tried to blackmail the Standard Oil Company by saying that if it didn't contribute it might incur hostility in certain quarters. As the senator has admitted what he has done, he should be thrown out of the Senate of the United States. The man who swears his own condemnation down himself."

Additional Speeches Expected. The governor liked his Pennsylvania experience so well that he may make more speeches there. He goes to Scranton, Pa., September 19, but indications are that he will concentrate his campaign in the next month on New York and Pennsylvania, and more speeches in the latter state may be looked for. The state committee of Pennsylvania, who accompany the governor, urged him to do so.

Attacks Old Parties. "Both the old parties, on the contrary, have confined themselves to thrashing over and over again the old straw. There is not one particle of hope for social or economic reform contained in the program of either the democratic or republican parties. Each is boss ridden and privilege controlled. "We are for the immediate repeal of the reciprocity treaty. Many of us originally supported the treaty. "We are for the immediate re-creation of the tariff life commission. One of the main reasons for the high cost of living is the failure to get the most out of our soil, and the failure to improve the products of the soil. Altogether too much is absorbed by the middleman."

MILITIAMAN ILL OF TYPHOID. Sergt. E. E. Roberts Had Refused to Be Inoculated at Camp.

Editor Says Former Used $25,000 Archbold Contribution in Pennsylvania Fight.

Eugene E. Roberts, first sergeant of Company B, 1st Infantry, N. G. D. C., has developed typhoid fever since leaving the home of his parents, 707 M street northwest.

EXPECTS ROOSEVELT TO SPRING SURPRISE. NEW YORK, August 30.—Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, chairman of the Senate committee investigating the campaign contributions during the presidential campaign of 1904, left this city for Vermont, where he will make several bill-moose speeches between now and election. Senator Clapp arrived from Washington Wednesday night. At the Hotel Manhattan he met members of the national progressive committee, who took him to the Harvard Club, where he spent some time with Col. Roosevelt. It was rumored that Senator Clapp read over the letter which Col. Roosevelt will send the Senate investigating committee in regard to the testimony of John D. Archibald that the Standard Oil Company contributed $150,000 to Col. Roosevelt's campaign in 1904. Senator Clapp denied this. "I had no time to talk business with Col. Roosevelt," he said. I was on my way to fight for him in Vermont, but it was only through accident that I learned he was here and met him at the Harvard Club. I don't

EXPECTS ROOSEVELT TO SPRING SURPRISE. NEW YORK, August 30.—Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, chairman of the Senate committee investigating the campaign contributions during the presidential campaign of 1904, left this city for Vermont, where he will make several bill-moose speeches between now and election. Senator Clapp arrived from Washington Wednesday night. At the Hotel Manhattan he met members of the national progressive committee, who took him to the Harvard Club, where he spent some time with Col. Roosevelt. It was rumored that Senator Clapp read over the letter which Col. Roosevelt will send the Senate investigating committee in regard to the testimony of John D. Archibald that the Standard Oil Company contributed $150,000 to Col. Roosevelt's campaign in 1904. Senator Clapp denied this. "I had no time to talk business with Col. Roosevelt," he said. "I only had a few minutes to talk with him before he caught his train, and the investigation at Washington was not mentioned. I didn't come here for a conference with Roosevelt. I was on my way to fight for him in Vermont, but it was only through accident that I learned he was here and met him at the Harvard Club. I don't
