 Acted Upon.

Special Correspondence to The Star.
 ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 4, 1912.
 With fair weather predicted for tomorrow, there is every indication that a large vote will be polled here and in the county. The polls will open at sunrise and close at sunset. Local election returns will be known two hours after the closing of the polls.

In addition to the presidential ticket, three amendments to the Virginia constitution to be voted on, two in reference to commissioners of revenue and city treasurers succeeding themselves. The third amendment provides for a commission form of government for the city.

Many clubs and other organizations have planned to receive the returns tomorrow night. Hundreds of Alexandri-ans will also go to Washington.

Saloons Will Close.

In compliance with the state law the saloons here will close at 6 o'clock this evening and not reopen until Wednesday morning.

For the benefit of Alexandrians and residents of Fairfax and Alexandria counties who go to Washington to hear the election returns, the Washington Railway Company has arranged to run late trains for those who remain over.

The last car for this city will leave Washington at 1 o'clock; for Fairfax from 12th and Pennsylvania avenue at 12:15 a. m. and for Aqueduct bridge at

 a. m.

Court Term Begins.

The November term of the circuit court for this city, Judge J. R. Thornton presiding, convenes this morning. The docket was called and cases were set for trial.

The court formally entered the order overruling the demurrers filed in the suit of the Board of Armaments against the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, which was announced several days ago.

In the case of E. L. Sinclair against Fairfax & Co., which was slated for trial Friday, a postponement was granted until the 11th inst. The case will be heard at 10 o'clock.

Following a business meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks tonight, there will be a social session at 9 o'clock.
 Thomas Chaucery is chairman of the committee in charge. It is expected that the affair will be attended by many members of the order and their friends.

Ministers in Conference.

The ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church of Washington and vicinity held a meeting today at the local church and discussed a number of church problems. At 1 o'clock this afternoon a luncheon was served by the ministers by the ladies of the congregation at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Well will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary with a reception at their home, 314 South St. Asaph street, next Sunday evening. The affair will be attended by a large number of out-of-town guests. Prior to the reception, a family dinner will be served.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane E. Fairfax took place yesterday afternoon from the Methodist Church at Acostock. Fairfax county. Services were conducted by Rev.
 G. A. Luttrell, pastor of Trinity M. E.
 Church, this city.

The funeral of Frank Beach took place at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from the Episcopal Chapel at Bailey's Cross Roads, Fairfax county. Services were conducted by Rev. S. A. Walls of this city. Burial took place at the Episcopal cemetery at Falls Church.

 a young son of Mr. and Mrs.
 Thomas Silcox, who died Saturday night at the hospital from typhoid fever, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon

 Demaine's undertaking establishment.

 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the parish hall of the Dutch Church under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel Broodck Heights Chapel.

 was caused by the burning of some trash in an ash barrel in the rear of the residence of Mr. E. Knight, 297 Prince street.
 The fire was extinguished before the arrival of the department.

Court of Appeals of District Rules on Will of Mrs.
 Rosa G. Simms.

The Little Sisters of the Poor lose a bequest of $500 left to them by the will of Mrs. Rosa G. Simms, who died December 25, 1910, by a decision rendered today by Chief Justice Shepard of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

Other charities named in the will were made wholly inoperative by the action of the appellate court which included $500 to the Home for Incurables, $500 to Providence Hospital, $250 to St. Ann's Infant Asylum and $500 to St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum.

Mrs. Simms made her will five years before her death and in it provided for the sale of certain real estate, out of which the bequests mentioned were to be made. The executor sold the real estate and invested the proceeds in real estate notes. She made no change in her will after the executor was named.

The Little Sisters of the Poor were ready to make distribution question arose as to the right to pay the bequests out of the changed form of investment. Attorney R. Golden Donaldson, the executor, submitted the matter to the Equity court which held the bequests absolute and directed the executor not to pay them. The beneficiaries appealed, but the higher court sustained the executor's ruling.

The amount of the bequests will become a part of the general estate, which is to be divided equally among the Little Sisters and the heirs of Mrs. A. Holtzman, who were sisters of Mrs. Simms.

VIRGINIA'S HOPES ARE MUCH RAISED

Figured That Eleven Is Bracing After Showing at Vanderbilt.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
 CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., November 4.—The 13-0 defeat by Vanderbilt was anything but a crepe on the shirts of Virginia students here. The showing the Orange and Blue eleven made at Nashville was a big surprise to their admirers, as to any other close follower of the game. While the students have supported the team loyally all season, and gave the squad a big send-off when leaving Thursday night, it was a surprise to have the team defeat a Vanderbilt team that Virginia was in for a good beating, regardless of her renowned fighting spirit. The showing made was a revelation, though a defeat, and Virginia students believe the team will continue to improve to the point of having an evening change at Georgetown. Georgetown is the next game, two weeks hence.

Returning from Nashville, the Virginia players are scheduled to arrive at noon today. Arrangements have been made whereby the student body will meet them at the station, whence the University Drum and Band will lead a parade of students and foot ball men back to college.

Both going and returning this team will have received great ovations that have never given a Virginia team. Interest in the coming conflict with Georgetown is very intense a ready. Georgetown's prowess in football is recognized, but the Virginia eleven has now enjoyed the experience needed to develop the natural strength she possesses.

BECAUSE CHILD IS BLIND

Party of Incoming Passengers Held at Ellis Island Pending Investigation.

NEW YORK, November 4.—Mrs. Katherine McMorris, a pretty young woman of Greensburg, Pa., who went to Ireland on a visit last summer with her two babies, Kathleen and Edward, is now on Ellis Island with the children and her husband, Christopher McMorris, a machinist of Greensburg, because she brought them from Dublin Cecil Morris, a seven-year-old blind boy.
 With them are the boy's father, Reuben William Morris of Akron, Ohio, and Mr.
 McMorris and Mr. Morris as voluntary guests, of course, until the government decides as to the disposition of the sightless child. The one came from Akron to meet his child and the other from Greensburg to meet his wife and children, who arrived yesterday on the Cameronia from Londonderry.

The elder Morris came to this country three years ago with his wife, and is employed in Akron as a rubber dpper. They left Cecil in Dublin with an aunt.

Knows Father's Voice.

The meeting between the blind boy and his father on board the Cameronia was affecting. The child, although he could not see, recognized his father's voice and caress, and the tears fell from the parent's eyes upon the red cheek of the child. The child, who had first time in three years, hugged his father.

The father of the child told the immigration inspectors that his child was born in Bandon, County Cork. His sight began to fail when he was eight months old. When he was a year old an operation was performed. Ever since then Cecil has been stone blind.

The father said he had bought lots in Lawndale, a part of Akron, and he showed a letter from his employers here stating for him to correspond with Commissioner of Immigration Williams as to the proper methods to be pursued to get the boy into this country.

May Require Bond.

But the letter from his employers was two years old, the inspectors said. Morris had not become an American citizen yet. He declared his intentions to become one. The government would probably require at least a five-hundred-dollar bond to protect this country against the possibility of Cecil becoming a public charge.

The board of special inquiry will sit this afternoon. If it requires a bond then Mr. Morris must telegraph to his employers for the amount. If the board of the bond must be sent to Washington to be approved and filed. All this ceremony will require perhaps four days.
 On entering the naval service dentals officers are credited with five years' constructive service, and for every year's service the pay is increased 10 per cent. At the age of sixty-two years a man's pay is $120 a month, and the highest pay of his grade at the time of retirement.

Cruiser Baltimore Laid Up.

NORFOLK, November 4.—The United States cruiser Baltimore from Philadelphia to Santo Domingo, broke her heartline on the outside and limped into Hampton roads Sunday night. She came at once to the Norfolk navy yard, where repairs will be made. These cannot be finished within less than three days, and may require much longer.

Boy Winner of Prize.

OAKLAND, Md., November 4.—Austin Broadwater, aged fourteen years, won the first prize for the best corn of crop raised by the Allegheny and Garrett County Agricultural Society. His acre yielded nineteen barrels of the corn.

Charles F. Weller Discusses Program of National Recreation Association.

Charles F. Weller, former playground organizer here and now associate secretary of the National Playground and Recreation Association of America, spoke last night at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church on the recreation movement throughout America, advocating the performation of dance halls to save young working girls from ruin, the use of public schools as social centers, proper street play by children in unfrequented streets, and the safeguarding of moving picture enterprises.

Liberal Returns on Money.

Mr. Weller said, in part:
 "Every $100 contributed to the national association brings about $30,000 in local playgrounds to the children of this country. For example, it costs the association $92 for the work of its field secretary in Lawrence, Mass., but the result was that 800 children have wholesome play each day. In Washington, Vt., recently $158 was spent for the work of the field agent to engage a local play leader at $1,000 a year. From another city a leading citizen wrote that the work of the field agent had developed had a school of excellence and led to the development of recreation facilities before land grew too expensive for such a purpose."

"The field secretaries of the national association work on these vital community problems where the national committee of six field experts, for example, visited thirty-five cities last year, but refused invitations from forty-six other cities in his territory because the forty-five didn't need him as much, perhaps more than the thirty-five; but simply because he had no more time to spare."

"One of my tasks," added Mr. Weller, "is to help make him into twins—to double his force to meet the present urgent calls for vital services."

Praises Washington Equipment.

Washington's playground and recreation movement was praised by the speaker. "The $1,000,000 spent in Washington by the national association," said Mr. Weller, "in getting friends of the cause throughout America to help convey congressmen on whose votes depend the fate of the Washington work, in sending a national cadre here to help the local campaign at a time of crisis and in helping to bring from his successful work in Columbus playgrounds Mr.
 Edgar S. Martin, the efficient recreation director of the National Capital."

GAUGED BY P. O. RECEIPTS

Prosperity Indicated by Increased Sales of Stamps and Stamped Paper.

It has long been the custom of the Post Office Department to measure the prosperity of the country by the postal receipts, the argument being that a big increase in the sale of postage stamps indicates a general prosperity and contrary conditions in the commercial world.
 A condition of great prosperity therefore is indicated by Postmaster General Hitchcock's statement today that the postage stamp issues for the month of October show an increase of 13 per cent over the total for the corresponding month of last year.

Gains Almost Double.

The business of the post office, as measured by stamp issues, is a good sign of prosperity, said Mr. Hitchcock, who points out that the usual rate of increase is only 7 1/2 per cent per month, the gain of the past month being, therefore, almost double of the customary increase. Stamps are issued to postmasters in response to their requisitions, and every postmaster is supposed to be in a position to judge discriminately of the activity of business in his immediate neighborhood. He is expected in forecasting what demands will have to be met. These requisitions for stamps are therefore in the nature of a business barometer.

In the present instance part of the unusually large increase may be due to preparation for holiday business and part to greater business activity.

KILLS HORSE HE LOVED.

Use of Pet Denied Him, Young Miner Attempts Suicide.

BISEEE, Ariz., November 4.—His remarkable attachment for a horse, the use of which had been denied him, led Glen Shipley, a young miner, to kill the horse and then attempt to commit suicide after gaining forcible possession of the animal early today.

Shipley went to the livery stable where the horse was kept, held up the man in charge at the point of a revolver and, after securing the animal, rode into the hills and put a bullet through its head.
 Lying down beside the dead animal, Shipley shot himself just below the heart.
 He had used the horse for six years, and complained that others who rented the animal mistreated it. Frequently he rendered the horse and kept it tied up all day, so that careless drivers might not get it.
 Shipley was brought to a local hospital where it was said that he had a chance to recover.

CHANCE FOR NAVY DENTISTS.

The bureau of navigation of the Navy Department has issued a circular giving information for those desiring to enter the new Dental Corps of the navy. As an acting assistant dental surgeon an applicant must be between twenty-four and thirty-two years old and a graduate of a reputable medical or dental school legally authorized to confer the degree of doctor of dental surgery.

The candidate will have to pass both a physical and a professional examination.
 No allowance will be made for the experience of persons applying for examination. On entering the naval service dentals officers are credited with five years'
 constructive service, and for every
 highest pay of his grade at the time of retirement.
