Comfort Your Stomach

We pay for this treatment if it fails to promptly relieve Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Reall Dyspepsia Tablets remedy stomach troubles because they contain the proper proportion of Pepsin and Bismuth and the necessary catenatives that help nature to supply the elements the absence of which in the gastric juices causes indigestion and dyspepsia.

Carry a package of Reall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket, or keep them in your room.

We know what Reall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, or to refund your money if they fail to do so.

You can buy Reall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our stores:

CARING FOR LAWNS

F. L. Mulford, Landscape Gardener, Gives Directions for Their Treatment.

PREPARATION OF SOIL BEFORE PLANTING SEED

Advice Given Regarding Use of Fertilizer—Address Before Y. M. C. A. Educational Department.

Detailed directions for making and caring for lawns were given by F. L. Mulford, landscape gardener of the Department of Agriculture, in an address before the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Mr. Mulford's lecture was "Developing and Caring for the Lawn." He illustrated his talk by a display of lantern slides, about half of which were taken in and around this city.

The future course of the national woman suffrage campaign, as conducted in Washington, is being decided today.

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and Miss Lucy Burns, vice chairman of the committee, are meeting with other members of the national board of the association at the home of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the association, outside of Philadelphia.

Miss Paul's plans for a national meeting and short tour in Washington the opening day of Congress, April 7, were to be placed before the national board for discussion at this meeting.

It was reported today that there were to be some efforts to curtail the activities of the committee, but the report was vigorously denied at suffrage headquarters, 1420 F street northwest.

To Appeal Again to Wilson. President Wilson will be appealed to again Friday morning to incorporate a recommendation for a woman suffrage constitutional amendment in his message to the extra session of Congress.

Senator Cummins of Iowa has a delegation of the President to receive a delegation of the women of the White House. They will appeal to him as representatives of the college world from which he comes.

Prof. Anna Abel of Goucher College, Baltimore, where two of the President's daughters formerly attended, will be Miss Elsie Hill, daughter of former Representative Hill of Connecticut, and Mrs. Mary Beard of New York.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for a special train to take a large delegation of Washington suffragists to New York for the suffrage parade to be held there May 2.

THE MODERN WOMAN.

1—WOMEN'S PRESENT SPHERE.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

Woman's sphere is the home. This dictum is accepted both by men and women.

Consequently the red glare of the steel furnace is reflected upon women's faces.

The industrial revolution which eliminated so many industries from the home also changed its sociological and economic outlook.

It is not the woman's fault that her relation to society has changed, and is still changing.

These two revolutions, industrial and domestic, that were set on foot by the invention of labor-saving machinery.

Important Bearing saving and time-revolutions.

For thousands and untold thousands of years woman stayed at home, kept house, reared children, and carried on manufacturing enterprises.

About the middle of the eighteenth century things began to change.

The dust and the dirt from unclean streets and the smoke arising from improperly built

Woman's War on Dust and Dirt.

Work Now Done spinning and weaving is done in the factory, and most of the sewing.

The economic advantage of employing mechanical rather than human power to accomplish laborious work will not be disputed at this late date.
