

LANCASHIRE FURNITURE CO. AND CARPET CO. 512 NINTH STREET.

LIBERAL TERMS THAT WILL SUIT YOU

SAVE MONEY ON YOUR PURCHASE—SAVE TIME ON YOUR PAYMENTS

LINEN SLIP COVERS Made to Order in a Way to Please You

Save Money, Time & Worry by Letting Us Make Your Window Screens and Screen Doors

We have a stock that anticipates every want. Mail us a representative will call and estimate your needs.

The hundreds who have their screens made here are permanently relieved of the troubles usually associated with these essential summer needs.

THIS FULL SIZE FELT MATTRESS

$12.00 Value $6.85

A comfortable, sanitary and long-wearing Felt Mattress that will insure sound sleep for all who use it.

While these Mattresses are built in perfect order, some of them have been packed too high and too heavy, hence have suffered somewhat from the extra weight.

You are the one who must pay the dentist and the one who must care for your teeth, and you owe it to yourself to demand painless dentistry.

Don't Let Others Do Your Thinking. Painless Dr. White. About my dentistry or about anything else. Whenever a man presumes to tell you or not to do it is an insult to your intelligence.

My Anchor Suction Teeth $5. GOLD CROWNS, BRIDGEWORK, $3, $4, $5. FILLINGS, 50c. DR. WHITE, Painless Dentist. 407 Seventh St. N.W. Opposite Woolworth's SAY SHE DREW REVOLVER. Constables Make Charges Against Mrs. Mickel—Parish Election. Special Correspondent of the Star. HAYTTSVILLE, April 12, 1913.

THE TEST. Mariboro has brought in four presentments against Guy P. G. of Prince George's county for forgery, it being alleged that the young man signed the name of James E. Ridgely to several checks which he had cashed.

The President and Mrs. Wilson will receive the General Federation of Women's Clubs while the organization is here in session, April 21-24. Other entertainments being arranged, as a social contrast to the council, are a trip to Mount Vernon, a reception by the District Federation of Women's Clubs and a trip to Baltimore where the visitors will be the guests of the federated clubs of that city.

The thirteenth meeting of the Washington Culture Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Copeland, 3723 Morrison street, Chevy Chase. The program was headed by a paper, "The Beginnings of Art and Science," by Mrs. Charles F. Nesbit; an account of the career of the artist, Appleton Clark, and a talk upon "Flemish Art," by Mrs. George W. Harris.

The Mary Bartlett Chapter, D. A. R., gave its annual dinner in honor of the state regent and state vice regent Tuesday evening at the Potomac. After the toast to our president, general will regrets at her absence and our assurance that her memory will ever remain fresh in our minds.

The District of Columbia Woman Suffrage Association met Thursday in the parlors of the Portner. Mrs. William E. Andrews, president of the Federated Clubs of the District, spoke of the organization's work for a clubhouse "for all the clubs."

The Federation of Women's Clubs will entertain the Woman's Council, which will be here April 21-24. The bureau of information will be located at the Raleigh tomorrow and Tuesday.

The Columbia Heights Art Club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. Carl-Smith, Mrs. J. Finney Engle for the day. A Mrs. Marion Miller on the Irish drama was given by Mrs. Edward Hardy. Belfast was the subject of the drama.

The "at home" to the members of the Anthony League and of the American Woman's Republic was held Tuesday at the Portner. Miss Genevieve L. Porter presided. The program was headed by violin numbers. Dr. Cora Smith King told of the experiences of the women of the state of Washington in their work for suffrage.

The Cercle des Preieuses Ridelles met Wednesday at the home of the president, M. Edmond Becker. The program opened with a sonata by Grieg, Miss Selma Dorich; and was succeeded by the following numbers: "Recits Humouristiques et Calambours," Charles Rivet; reading, "If Paot Mourir," Mile. Marie Becker; piano solo, "Poem," MacDowell, Mile. Becker. The club is preparing a three-act comedy to be given at the Playhouse later in the spring.

The Woman's Single Tax Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Julia A. Thompson, 1600 13th street northwest. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. F. Swanton, and the club was addressed by Miss Frances S. Cunden. The program was headed by "The Slums of Washington." It was stated that the death rate among infants in the city is exceedingly large, while among the correspondingly poor of the suburban sections a very marked improvement in the death rate is observed.

The members of the Farragut W. R. C. met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bell Harris, 511 C street northeast. The executive board was present and the program was headed by Mrs. Harris. There was a large attendance and refreshments were served.

The Florence Crittenton Wheel Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. H. at the home of Mrs. Clara Fouse of Philadelphia and Mrs. E. L. Robertson, secretary of the club. The latter gave a talk which served to keep the club in touch with the work of the organization.

The annual business meeting of the Capitol Hill History Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Webb, 314 10th street northeast, with twenty-two members and several visitors in attendance.

The Lafayette Corps, No. 10, W. R. C., entertained Commander Bricker of Lafayette Post, No. 1, of Prince George's county with a banquet Wednesday night. The table was decorated with flowers and the program was illuminated with seventy candles in national colors, a gift from Commander Bricker's wife.

The Washington Readers' Club, for the study of expression, met recently at the residence of Mrs. Josephine Arnold Rich, with the president, Claude N. Bennett, in the chair. The program was headed by the study of expression in Indian literature. Miss Anne Rothwell Stewart of Baltimore gave a recitation of "The Man Who Married the Moon."

The Mount Pleasant Auxiliary, W. C. T. U., met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. T. U., 1222 Kenyon street. Thirty-six in the chair. The program was headed by the study of expression in Indian literature. Miss Anne Rothwell Stewart of Baltimore gave a recitation of "The Man Who Married the Moon."

The Manor House Chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. Stuard, registrar, and was presided over by the president, Miss Mary Lee Goddard. Many matters of business were discussed and topics of interest to the organization discussed. Mrs. William Cummings Story was unanimously elected president general of the D. A. R.

The chapter entertained, as guest of honor, Mrs. Charles A. Goldborough of the Manhattan Chapter of New York City. The gavel used by Miss Goddard in presiding was turned from wood used in building the Van Cortlandt manor house on the Hudson, and presented to the chapter by Miss Van Cortlandt.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union parson were filed Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Story Club, with Mrs. Leonard P. Wilder in the chair. The program was in charge of HEARD AND SEEN HERE AND THERE By Earl Godwin.

J. J. Speight, clerk to the House committee on the judiciary, is not at all the serious young man that any one would take him to be. Not at all. In spite of the fact that Speight sits in that large and impressive committee room which probably is worth more money than all the halls the continental congresses ever dreamed of, and in spite of the fact that he is steeped in the lore of trust investments, judicial secrets, possible constitutional amendments, possible trials and Alabama politics, Mr. Speight is always ready with a nifty little yarn.

Henry P. Holden, and included chiefly original work by the members. A feature of the entertainment was a brief description of Lincoln's characteristics, given by Mr. Morris, an intimate friend of President Lincoln, and his guest at his last dinner at the White House, the evening of his assassination. A reproduction of a printed portrait of Lincoln, by Mrs. Nellie M. Home of Boston, was on view and described by her in detail as having been painted from the artist's "dead mask" owned by the Oldroyd Museum, in this city, and being the only Lincoln portrait to be seen in the city.

William L. Slaughter gave dramatic selections, including a "Hindoo Legend"; a satire on the "Hindoo" religion; a description of the pleasure and "bother" in possessing "Dot Liddle Baby." The Washington Parade of March 3 received its panegyric in Mrs. C. A. Thomas' verses, which was followed by the "Hindoo" song, "The Hindoo Day" and an Italian dialect description in rhyme of a "banana" merchant's queer ideas concerning George Washington.

The "board meeting" of the Sunshine and Community Society" was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. George Lewis Peckham, 317 12th street northwest. The object of the meeting was to formulate plans for the summer work, it was decided to hold one large table, Mrs. Ella S. Knight, president of the society, and Mrs. Henry N. Couden, vice president, were the main speakers.

The members of the Farragut W. R. C. met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bell Harris, 511 C street northeast. The executive board was present and the program was headed by Mrs. Harris. There was a large attendance and refreshments were served.

The Florence Crittenton Wheel Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. H. at the home of Mrs. Clara Fouse of Philadelphia and Mrs. E. L. Robertson, secretary of the club. The latter gave a talk which served to keep the club in touch with the work of the organization.

The annual business meeting of the Capitol Hill History Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Webb, 314 10th street northeast, with twenty-two members and several visitors in attendance.

The Lafayette Corps, No. 10, W. R. C., entertained Commander Bricker of Lafayette Post, No. 1, of Prince George's county with a banquet Wednesday night. The table was decorated with flowers and the program was illuminated with seventy candles in national colors, a gift from Commander Bricker's wife.

The Washington Readers' Club, for the study of expression, met recently at the residence of Mrs. Josephine Arnold Rich, with the president, Claude N. Bennett, in the chair. The program was headed by the study of expression in Indian literature. Miss Anne Rothwell Stewart of Baltimore gave a recitation of "The Man Who Married the Moon."

Open a Charge Account Mayer's 400 to 417 Seventh Street.

$6.98

For the New "Balkan Blouses" Stunning new Spring Jackets in the "Balkan blouse" models. The materials are flannels and serges; colors including white, light tan, garnet and navy blue. You can have it charged if you desire.

Fine All-Wool Serge Suits $24.98 Strictly Tailored All-wool Serge Suits, in brown, navy blue and black; three-button cutaway models; satin linings and skirts with side pleats; finished with buttons and fastening at the side of back.

New One-Piece French Serge Dresses $9.98 Fine French Serge One-piece Dresses, in navy blue, brown, light tan and black; collars of self material trimmed in ratine; cuffs and shields of ratine and skirts with two-inch tucks down center of back and front.

Mayer & Co. 400-417 Seventh St.

discharged without honor. Private A. M. Forrester, 1st Artillery, to Company C, 1st Infantry.

ALONG THE RIVER FRONT. Arrivals. Sloop Quicktime and flattie Sarah Ellis, oysters from the river beds, at 11th street wharf for the market; schooner Dorchester, power boat to this city; canal boat No. 16, from 9th street wharf, with lumber for Brunswick, Md.; schooner Maud S., light, for a Potomac point, to load cord wood for the Washington market; schooner Carrie Revel, light, for Mattawoman creek, to load cord wood; schooner Mattow creek, to load cord wood; schooner Mattow creek, to load cord wood; schooner Mattow creek, to load cord wood.

Departures. Steamer Daniel K. Jackson, light, from Alexandria for Aquia creek, to load lumber or wood back to this city; canal boat No. 16, from 9th street wharf, with lumber for Brunswick, Md.; schooner Maud S., light, for a Potomac point, to load cord wood for the Washington market; schooner Carrie Revel, light, for Mattawoman creek, to load cord wood; schooner Mattow creek, to load cord wood; schooner Mattow creek, to load cord wood.

SCORES OF WINNING TEAMS. Standings, King's Post, Total. Private J. C. Callahan, 22 22 44. Private F. D. Hood, 22 22 44. Private R. L. Price, 21 17 38. Private A. B. Schell, 20 15 35.

The Burkhardt medal match-1, Private Earl C. Castle, Company L, 1st Infantry, 67; 2, Private H. Bailey, Company H, 1st Infantry, 67; 3, Private J. D. Hood, Company C, 1st Infantry, 66; 4, Private William B. Stansbury, Company A, 1st Infantry, 65; 5, Private T. Tierney, Company B, 1st Infantry, 50.

SCORE OF WINNER OF MEDAL. Standings, King's Post, Total. Private E. C. Castle, 24 24 48. Companies C, 1st Infantry, G, 2d Infantry, and L, 2d Infantry, were not represented.

Diseases of Poultry, Lecture Topic. Announcement is made that Dr. B. A. Gallagher of the division of pathology, Department of Agriculture, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday evening, before the Greater Washington Poultry and Pigeon Club of this city. Diseases of Poultry and Pigeons, and Some Remedies.

CONTESTED. The following discharges have been ordered: Without honor, on account of being continuously absent for three months: Ordinary, Roscoe Gardiner, John A. Belden, fourth division; Moore, fourth division; Yeoman (second-class) W. C. Holmes, fourth division; Fireman (second-class) F. A. Butler, fourth division; J. T. Marks, fourth division; Moore, fourth division; J. Warren, fourth division; N. A. Keese, fourth division, and G. F. Keese, fourth division.

Check to Teach in Samoa. The commissioner of education has designated Paul T. Cheek of Hillsboro, N. C., as teacher of the government school at American Samoa. Cheek will sail from San Francisco on the Ventura May 6, 1913. Mr. Cheek attended the University of North Carolina, and received the degree of A. B. at Georgetown.

Mrs. Randall—Those two women don't speak any more; each claimed to have the smartest child in town. Mrs. Dart—"Which was right?" Mrs. Randall—"Neither of them—I have."