

will be some way to make it known that there will be great doubt as to whether...

Letters Are Read.

What were said to be carbon copies of letters from the American Beet Sugar Association...

Dissatisfaction Expressed.

The committee got possession by subpoena duces tecum of copies of the letters and telegrams in the files of the beet sugar interests in Washington...

Reply to Senator Clark.

Hamlin's telegram in reply, sent to his uncle, Senator Clark, was given to the committee...

"Have wire from Palmer suggesting retain attorney to prevent delivery of my papers to committee...

Immigration Action

Senator Smith finds little consolation at White House for legislation now—Other Callers.

The next governor general of the Philippine Islands may be ex-Gov. John A. Dix of New York...

"Many farmers read those patent laws in the week-end paper and I found that a stick of stuff every week was not exorbitant in price...

"Had Interesting Time." "We have had an interesting time," the letter continued...

"I suppose it was Mr. Oxnard," said Senator Reed. Mr. Oxnard's initials are "R. O."

"Bristow insists that he will get in his copy of the letter purporting to have been written by Hamlin to J. Ross Clark of Los Angeles...

"We think it would be a wise plan to have Mr. C. T. Fenton, manager of the Minnesota Sugar Company...

"Mr. Pickett of Iowa, who is classed as a sugar man, has written me a long principal speeches in opposition to any sugar measure that may be brought before the Senate...

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

about public men and membership on Senate committees. "Woke up," said Uncle Joe for four hours, and feels that he accomplished something, though he did not get a promise relative to the sugar and tobacco industries.

"He is leaving no stone unturned in his efforts to get real protectionists put into the committee," says Uncle Joe. "He is certain that Fordney, for one, will be appointed, but did not mention any other names."

"It strikes me that if this is done, and with each one it is mentioned to that one he should be the advisability of it, and he urged his friends to try to get the next two months ought to pile up such a lot of letters as to at least make an impression on the Speaker."

"You have such a raft of friends among prominent business men that if you were to write a little note to seeing and writing them the results would be surely worth while."

"Of course I will do what I can to show in committee, of course the more votes we get in the House, and the more strongly we develop, the stronger we will be in the Senate."

"I agree with you that there can be no harm come from having Newlands in fact for the Philippines committee. In fact, I believe it will be better to have it that way."

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

ORPHANS OFF FOR HAPPY DAY AT MARSHALL HALL.

SCENE ON UPPER DECK OF STEAMER CHARLES MACALESTER JUST BEFORE START OF TRIP DOWN POTOMAC RIVER, SHOWING SOME OF THE CHILDREN WHO WERE GIVEN AN ALL-DAY OUTING BY THE WASHINGTON LODGE OF ELKS.

CAN YOU GIVE A MITE?

Then Send It to Aid the Fourth of July Celebration.

25-Cent Contributions Wanted. Republicans, democrats, progressives, mugwumps, bull moose...

Public spirited citizens of Washington generally are invited to attend the meeting of the Joint committee on the celebration of Independence day to be held this evening in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, 1202 F street northwest.

Thousands of children are to be consumed according to the historical periods which they will represent, games are to be played, folk plays and dances given...

Details in regard to these events will be laid over at tonight's meeting, and it is particularly desired to have a large attendance, as the question of the celebration will be up for discussion.

BEGIN A "HUNGER STRIKE." Six Suffragette Leaders Aim to Compel Their Release.

LONDON, June 18.—The six suffragette leaders who were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment yesterday for conspiracy began a "hunger strike" immediately after reaching the jail.

Word of Cheer From Marshall. "I just called to bring the President a word of good cheer from the people," said Vice President Marshall today.

MOVES VOTE OF CENSURE. Unionist Member Acts in Ministerial Marconi Transaction.

LONDON, June 18.—The climax was reached today of the scandal connected with the ministerial transactions in Rhodes, which were disclosed at the time the British government was negotiating contracts with the company.

RESISTS DEPORTATION. Local Chinese Laundryman Appeals From Federal Order.

Bing Chong, alias Ping Chong, laundryman of this city, has appealed from the sentence of the United States Commissioner, Arthur S. Taylor, yesterday ordering him deported.

TO TRY SENATOR B. A. SMITH FIRST. WEBSTER SPRINGS, Va., June 18.—A surprise sprung in court here today at the opening of the trial of the seven members of the West Virginia legislature charged with receiving bribes in connection with the United States senatorial campaign last winter.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE TO UTILIZE NEW CONTRACT SYSTEM. CHICAGO, June 18.—A bill legalizing "puts" and "calls," recently passed by the legislature, will be ignored by the Chicago Board of Trade, and trading will be done according to a contract system devised by the rules committee.

"PUTS" AND "CALLS" IGNORED. A letter from Oxnard to Palmer, August 1, 1907, says, in part: "Concerning the vacancies on the Philippine committee, it is true that nothing can be done until next winter, but me he was O. K. in the matter."

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

"I have been reading the letters in the Evening Star and I feel that it might be better if we also made use of the press in view of the fight being made by the refiners for free sugar...

"Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...

"Several of the letters written by Oxnard to Palmer proved interesting. One of these, dated July 1, 1908, follows: 'Dear Mr. Palmer: After going over the situation with our friends here most carefully, it was deemed best that I should not put in an appearance at the Denver convention...'

WASHINGTON ELKS ARE HOSTS TO THE ORPHANS

More Than 1,200 of This City and Alexandria Enjoy Outing at Marshall Hall.

More than 1,200 orphans from eleven institutions in Washington and Alexandria today are being shown the "times of their young lives" by the Washington Lodge No. 101 Elks.

The income tax may be considerably altered by the Senate. The proposal of the subcommittee to add to the four-thousand-dollar exemption an additional $500 for each minor child in a family is favorably considered by some members of the majority and may be recommended to the caucus.

MAY REDUCE EXEMPTION. The subcommittee has not adopted, but may suggest for discussion another amendment reducing the general exemption from $4,000 to $3,000.

UNDER PURE FOOD LAW. Secures Ruling Authorizing Seizure of Meats.

Adulterated or misbranded meat and meat products in interstate or foreign commerce may be seized as a result of the repeal of the regulation adopted in 1906, which prevented the Department of Agriculture from proceeding against manufacturers of meat foods under the pure food law, or ordering seizures and prosecutions for misbranding and adulteration of domestic meats.

BASIS FOR GAS RATING. Federal Bureau Advocates Heating Power and Not Candlepower.

The heating power of gas rather than its candlepower should be made the basis of gas rating, according to the United States bureau of standards.

PLATE PRINTERS DISMISSED. Director Ralph Hopes to Care for Many of the Twenty-Six.

Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing has notified twenty-six plate printers in the bureau that their services will not be needed after June 30.

QUINN TAKES THE OATH. Sworn In as Shipping Commissioner of New York.

P. H. Quinn of Brooklyn, N. Y., today took the oath of office as shipping commissioner of New York. The ceremonies took place in the office of Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce in the presence of Representative John J. Fitzgerald of New York and a number of the chiefs of bureaus and divisions in the department.

Only Old Glory in Parades Here. A bill providing that only the Stars and Stripes shall be carried in parade in the National Capital was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire.

LEUT. PIERSON LEAVES. Veteran Signal Corps Officer Accepts Position in Seattle.

Lieut. Charles O. Pierson, chief of the telegraph division of the War Department, has resigned that office to accept the position of auditor and assistant in charge of the cable and telegraph system, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCED. The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

READY FOR THE CAUCUS

Tariff Sections Will Be Submitted Thursday, Chairman Simmons Says.

While majority members of the Senate finance committee were preparing to take up the income tax and administrative sections of the tariff bill today, Chairman Simmons notified Majority Leader Kern that all the tariff sections would be ready for the caucus Thursday.

WAR IS SURE TO COME, DECLARES GEN. WOOD. Every Young Man Should Have a Year's Military Training, He Says.

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—Asserting that war must come at some time, and declaring that every young man should have a year's military training, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States Army, discussed "Our Military Policy to Preserve Peace" at the annual commencement exercises of the Carnegie Institute of Technology here.

NOT ARMED AT FIRST. When the guards arrived they were not armed, but after fifty or seventy-five strikers carrying guns were broken up, the guards were increased and armed.

ARMED MEN IN ROOM. Attorney Belcher caused a stir in the committee room when he asked Belcher if it was necessary for the guards to be armed men connected with your agency.

CASE OF JOHN J. DRURY LIKENED TO "KING LEAR" Local Artist Complains That His Signature to Deed Was Secured Under Misapprehension.

A story akin to Shakespeare's "King Lear" was told to Justice Anderson in Equity Court No. 2 today by John J. Drury, an artist, ninety-seven years old, who complained that while ill in a hospital February 27 last a niece and grandniece procured his signature to a deed conveying his property, worth $5,000, to them.

PLATE PRINTERS DISMISSED. Director Ralph Hopes to Care for Many of the Twenty-Six.

Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing has notified twenty-six plate printers in the bureau that their services will not be needed after June 30.

QUINN TAKES THE OATH. Sworn In as Shipping Commissioner of New York.

P. H. Quinn of Brooklyn, N. Y., today took the oath of office as shipping commissioner of New York. The ceremonies took place in the office of Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce in the presence of Representative John J. Fitzgerald of New York and a number of the chiefs of bureaus and divisions in the department.

Only Old Glory in Parades Here. A bill providing that only the Stars and Stripes shall be carried in parade in the National Capital was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire.

LEUT. PIERSON LEAVES. Veteran Signal Corps Officer Accepts Position in Seattle.

Lieut. Charles O. Pierson, chief of the telegraph division of the War Department, has resigned that office to accept the position of auditor and assistant in charge of the cable and telegraph system, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCED. The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

WAR IS SURE TO COME, DECLARES GEN. WOOD

Every Young Man Should Have a Year's Military Training, He Says.

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—Asserting that war must come at some time, and declaring that every young man should have a year's military training, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States Army, discussed "Our Military Policy to Preserve Peace" at the annual commencement exercises of the Carnegie Institute of Technology here.

NOT ARMED AT FIRST. When the guards arrived they were not armed, but after fifty or seventy-five strikers carrying guns were broken up, the guards were increased and armed.

ARMED MEN IN ROOM. Attorney Belcher caused a stir in the committee room when he asked Belcher if it was necessary for the guards to be armed men connected with your agency.

CASE OF JOHN J. DRURY LIKENED TO "KING LEAR" Local Artist Complains That His Signature to Deed Was Secured Under Misapprehension.

A story akin to Shakespeare's "King Lear" was told to Justice Anderson in Equity Court No. 2 today by John J. Drury, an artist, ninety-seven years old, who complained that while ill in a hospital February 27 last a niece and grandniece procured his signature to a deed conveying his property, worth $5,000, to them.

PLATE PRINTERS DISMISSED. Director Ralph Hopes to Care for Many of the Twenty-Six.

Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing has notified twenty-six plate printers in the bureau that their services will not be needed after June 30.

QUINN TAKES THE OATH. Sworn In as Shipping Commissioner of New York.

P. H. Quinn of Brooklyn, N. Y., today took the oath of office as shipping commissioner of New York. The ceremonies took place in the office of Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce in the presence of Representative John J. Fitzgerald of New York and a number of the chiefs of bureaus and divisions in the department.

Only Old Glory in Parades Here. A bill providing that only the Stars and Stripes shall be carried in parade in the National Capital was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire.

LEUT. PIERSON LEAVES. Veteran Signal Corps Officer Accepts Position in Seattle.

Lieut. Charles O. Pierson, chief of the telegraph division of the War Department, has resigned that office to accept the position of auditor and assistant in charge of the cable and telegraph system, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCED. The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

RUSH WITNESSES

Operators' Lawyers, Following Clash Yesterday, Hold Senator Martine Unfair.

BEK DESCRIBES TWO FATAL HILL BATTLES Stir Caused When Guard Is Asked if Armed Men Were Not Then in Court.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 18.—The Senate committee investigating the West Virginia coal strike today rushed along the examination of witnesses in order to dispose of as many of those to be heard as possible before leaving for Washington tonight.

STATEMENT CAUSES DISCUSSION. A statement purporting to come from Senator Martine and reproduced in facsimile of his handwriting by a newspaper circulating throughout the state today aroused considerable discussion.

NOT ARMED AT FIRST. When the guards arrived they were not armed, but after fifty or seventy-five strikers carrying guns were broken up, the guards were increased and armed.

ARMED MEN IN ROOM. Attorney Belcher caused a stir in the committee room when he asked Belcher if it was necessary for the guards to be armed men connected with your agency.

CASE OF JOHN J. DRURY LIKENED TO "KING LEAR" Local Artist Complains That His Signature to Deed Was Secured Under Misapprehension.

A story akin to Shakespeare's "King Lear" was told to Justice Anderson in Equity Court No. 2 today by John J. Drury, an artist, ninety-seven years old, who complained that while ill in a hospital February 27 last a niece and grandniece procured his signature to a deed conveying his property, worth $5,000, to them.

PLATE PRINTERS DISMISSED. Director Ralph Hopes to Care for Many of the Twenty-Six.

Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing has notified twenty-six plate printers in the bureau that their services will not be needed after June 30.

QUINN TAKES THE OATH. Sworn In as Shipping Commissioner of New York.

P. H. Quinn of Brooklyn, N. Y., today took the oath of office as shipping commissioner of New York. The ceremonies took place in the office of Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce in the presence of Representative John J. Fitzgerald of New York and a number of the chiefs of bureaus and divisions in the department.

Only Old Glory in Parades Here. A bill providing that only the Stars and Stripes shall be carried in parade in the National Capital was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire.

LEUT. PIERSON LEAVES. Veteran Signal Corps Officer Accepts Position in Seattle.

Lieut. Charles O. Pierson, chief of the telegraph division of the War Department, has resigned that office to accept the position of auditor and assistant in charge of the cable and telegraph system, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCED. The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary clerk in the bureau of the census.

Mrs. R. Vanderbilt Will Be Deputy New York, June 18.—Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt called at Sheriff Harburger's office today and asked him to appoint her a deputy sheriff. The sheriff yesterday ordered a deputy sheriff. He was charged that the Chinaman was unlawfully in this country.

SHIFTS IN CLERKS MADE. Changes in Personnel of Department of Commerce Announced.

The Department of Commerce has announced the following changes in its personnel: Miss Bella Hirsch has been appointed a temporary