northwest, about 9 o'clock last night, David Rothschild, 9th and G streets northwest, figured in a collision with a two-horse team owned by Clarence Smith of 912 S street northwest. The accident was unavoidable, the police reported, and both vehicles were damaged.

CAUGHT BETWEEN CARS.

J. L. MURPHY LOSES FOOT Deputy Marshal in Commerce Court Is Badly Injured in Accident.

Caught between two moving cars on the tracks of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, yesterday afternoon at 14th and F streets yesterday, about 5:30 p.m., James L. Murphy, deputy marshal in the United States Commerce Court, was so badly injured that one of his feet had to be amputated today. Representative H. Garland Dupre of Louisiana, who was with Mr. Murphy, was also injured, although not as seriously. The two men had started across the street from the Ebbitt House to the north side of F street. It is said a warning sounded by the motorman on the westbound car startled them and they jumped back, only to be caught by an eastbound car. Difficulty was experienced in removing Mr. Murphy's foot from beneath the wheel of the car, any movement was likely to sever it from his leg. Dr. W. B. Carr, member of the staff of the Emergency Hospital, suggested the use of an automobile jack for the work. This plan was adopted successfully.

NECESSARY TO AMPUTATE FOOT.

Mr. Murphy was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it was hoped his foot might be saved. It was decided today, however, that the injury was too severe, and amputation was necessary. Representative Dupre, whose injuries were of a minor nature, was soon able to go to his room at the Army and Navy Club. Mr. Murphy is a cousin of Representative Broussard and ex-Senator Murphy J.
