

THE GREATER PALAIS ROYAL

A. Lisner. Hours: 8:30 to 5. Saturday to 1. G Street.

The August Furniture Sale
"INSPECTION DAYS"

Friday and Saturday, August 1 and 2.

All the windows on both G and 11th streets—and the entire fourth floor of this Greater Palais Royal are to be devoted to the exhibition of samples of the Furniture included in the "August Sale." This fourth floor room, 1408 1/2 feet, unobstructed by walls and of lofty height, is ideal for the purpose of exhibition, and "Inspection Days" are certain to prove interesting and instructive.

Tomorrow's—Thursday's—Program—Dress Needs

$1.00 Dresses That Were to $3.50. $1.00

First floor for these simple but dainty Wash Dresses. Note the various artistic touches—Bulgarian collar and cuffs—pippings of contrasting colors—quaint Dutch necks—styles and sizes for all types of women, from 34 to 52 bust measure.

$1.98 Dresses That Were to $3.98. $1.98

Basement floor—Color combinations are the feature of this "bunching." Dainty colors are linked with white—also attractive effects shown in black and white. Both One-piece Dresses and Combination Suits are represented. Hurry for the Tissue Voile Dresses—few of these.

$3.98 Dresses That Were to $7.98. $3.98

On first and third floors—The Dolly Varden Dresses in this lot will be judged worth $10.00. Also note the charming and bewildering variety of Japanese Silk, Voile, French Linen and Ratine Dresses; white, plain colors and stripes are shown; all sizes for all types of women.

$7.50 Dresses That Were to $20.00. $7.50

Third floor—Ratine Dresses, exquisitely embroidered by hand, and worth $20.00. Some of the Lace Dresses with ribbon girdles are worth to $20.00. Also Dainty Black Silk Dresses, with draped skirts and white mull collar and cuffs, embroidered in black.

$20.00 Dresses That Were to $40.00. $20.00

Third floor for these Crepe de Chine and Charmeuse Dresses—imported. Others—superior specimens of the man tailor's art—the White Serge Suits and Dresses. The Embroidered Voile and White Japanese Silk Dresses are also works of art.

Arrived This Morning, $1.98 Waists Worth $5.

Style 1—Shadow Lace Waists, with net frill neck and sleeves; net understitch in corset-cover effect, with satin ribbon in colors. Styles 2 and 3—Black Messaline Silk Waists, with low and high necks, 3/4 sleeves. Sizes 34 to 46.

5c White Dress Goods, 12c Were 12 1/2c to 37 1/2c Yard.

The beginning of the ending of this summer season of 1913—tomorrow—will be associated with all the prettiest White and Colored Summer Dress Goods. Nominal prices for all lengths not full pieces.

Basement floor for 12 1/2c to 19c Figured Organdies, Lawns, Dimities, Gingham and Madras, at 5c yard.

Second floor for 25c to 37 1/2c Ratine, Voiles, Organdies and Flaxon, at 12c yard.

Laces and Embroideries

Pure Linen Torchon Lace Insertions and Edges, to 5 inches wide, and worth 10c yd. and up to 25c yd. for 22 and 27 inch wide Embroideries, sold at $1.00 per yard. 49c now only.

Shadow Laces, 18 inches wide, none worth less than 50c. 29c

Embroideries up to 7 inches in width, the quality retained at 9c.

22 and 27 inch wide Embroideries, sold at $1.00 per yard. 49c now only.

22-inch wide All-over Embroidery, blind and eyelet; $1.50 89c value.

Ribbons for Girdles, Etc.

Black Satin and Moire Ribbons, for the new Oriental or "Widow's Girdle," tied twice around the waist with knot, 7 inches wide, 44c value. Yard.

Moire, Pink and Taffeta Ribbons, in black and blue, white and black, 5 to 7 inches wide, for girdles, sashes, hair ribbons. Worth 23c yard.

Now 19c to 50c—Were Up to $1.00.

At 50c are the Union Suits with elaborate yokes. At 25c are ordinary 50c Suits, with tight and umbrella pants. At 19c are Adults' 35c Lace-trimmed Vests and Pants and Children's Ribbed Union Suits. See tables full on first floor, the side nearest 10th street.

Lingerie Bunched at 17c, 39c and 79c.

Corset Covers and Drawers, lace and embroidery trimmed, at only 17c. Dainty Nightgowns in the lot at 39c for choice. Crepe Nightgowns in pretty colors and Long Kimonos at only 79c. See tables full on first floor, east side, nearest to 10th street.

$1.00 Corsets, 79c 75c Brassieres, 49c

Clearing the shelves of all broken lots, creating all sizes in one style or another of the Corsets standard at $1.00. Choice for only 79c.

Fancifully trimmed, these Brassieres are as ornamental as they are practical. Learn the "points"—interview one of the experts on this third floor.

THE PALAIS ROYAL

A. Lisner. Hours 8:30 to 5; Saturday to 1. G Street.

RUNS QUARANTINE TO WED.

Pennsylvania Girl Bride But Few Hours. Husband Dying.

LEBANON, Pa., July 30.—The death of Wallace Van Sickle of Macon, Ga., in a hospital here yesterday revealed the devotedness of a young woman member of a prominent Lebanon family. The young woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

Woman is Miss Miriam Bowman. Van Sickle became engaged to her and shortly after the announcement was made he was stricken with typhoid fever. The date of the wedding had been fixed, but it was postponed in the hope of an Sickle's speedy recovery. There was no change in his condition, however, so it was decided that the marriage ceremony should be performed in the hospital.

CHESTERA. SNOW
Local Patent Attorney and Miss Addis M. Hubbard Off on Honeymoon Trip.

Chester A. Snow, for nearly forty years a patent attorney of this city, and Miss Addis M. Hubbard were married yesterday afternoon at the latter's home, in the Farragut apartments. Mr. Snow, who was a widower, is sixty-one and the age of Mrs. Hubbard is given in the marriage license as thirty-six. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. G. A. Miller of the Ninth Street Christian Church and was witnessed only by relatives and close friends.

The marriage of Mr. Snow and Miss Hubbard had been expected by the intimate friends of both the bride and groom for some time, it was said today. Mr. Snow's first wife, who was Miss Claire Seaman, died before her marriage, died about three and a half years ago. He has a son, Chester Ammen Snow, Jr., fourteen years old, who is now in summer school in Indiana. Mr. Snow is said to have first met Miss Hubbard about two years ago.

Since the death of his first wife Mr. Snow's niece, Mrs. Frederick Emory, has made her home with the bride and groom for some time. Mr. Snow spends most of the year at his country residence near Washington, D. C.

Miss Hubbard, who is a Virginian, has made her home in this city about three years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hubbard, an employee of the bureau of the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Snow was born in Craig county, Va., at Bethany College, W. Va., in 1852. He attended the University of Virginia, where he received his law degree in 1878. He was admitted to the bar in 1879, and since that time has been engaged in the patent business here. For a number of years he was president of the Washington Humane Society.

NO DECISION AT PRESENT
IN CASE OF MISS NEALE

Commissioner Newman Has Papers
Before Him, But Has Not Found
Time to Act.

Commissioner Newman will come to no decision in the case of Miss Marguerite B. Neale, assistant director of the Mount Pleasant playgrounds for some days. The papers and communications in regard to Miss Neale's dispute with Superintendent of Playgrounds E. S. Martin were placed in the Commissioner's hands yesterday.

Miss Neale, in effect, accuses Supt. Martin of favoritism in that he appointed Miss Neale as assistant superintendent of the Mount Pleasant playgrounds, when, in Miss Neale's opinion, she should have had the appointment. Miss Lewis has resigned the position of superintendent of the Mount Pleasant playgrounds because of her disposition to engage in a controversy, but her resignation has not yet been accepted.

Miss Neale visited the District building today in an effort to have a personal interview with Commissioner Newman, but the Commissioner's time was so completely occupied that he was unable to see her.

PURER TEA RECEIVED NOW.

Ban on Coloring Matter Is Raising Standard of Quality.

Purer tea is reaching the United States as a result of the Treasury Department's enforcement of the law against the importation of colored teas. Secretary McAdoo today announced that a little more than 10 per cent of the total importation for the fiscal year of 1913, ended June 30, was refused admission to this country. This is a decrease as compared with the previous year.

HOUSEWIVES ARE WARNED.

Department of Agriculture Finds Many Moth Compounds Worthless.

Trusting housewives who have packed away winter clothing with compounds calculated to prevent the encroachment of moths are to be warned by the Department of Agriculture that many of the compounds on the market are worthless. Through this means much damage to property, it is believed, will be prevented.

END STAY AT U. S. CAMP.

Pennsylvania and Connecticut Batteries Will Return Home.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., July 30.—Batteries A and B of the Pennsylvania National Guard and Battery A of Connecticut have completed their stay at the United States artillery camp at Tobyhanna, and preparations for the return home are being made.

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 30.—Lightning last night killed Merwin Carey, twenty-five years old, and his two horses, and burned the barn in which they sought shelter, near Frostburg.

Two Killed by Lightning.

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 30.—Lightning last night killed Merwin Carey, twenty-five years old, and his two horses, and burned the barn in which they sought shelter, near Frostburg.

Mrs. Daniels Pays Pretty Tribute.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 30.—Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels left late last night for a visit to the United States cemetery told of the aim which brought Mrs. Daniels from her Washington home. It stands against the monument of Ensign John R. Monaghan, where Mrs. Daniels placed it yesterday in memory of the brave young officer who was her brother's classmate. To do this, the Secretary said, was the main object of her trip across the continent. Mrs. Monaghan was killed in the Samoa uprising of 1892 while attempting to rescue a fellow-officer.

CASTRO IN VENEZUELA Reported Invasion of that Country by Former President and Adherents.

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, July 30.—Rumors have reached here that the town of Coro, in the state of Falcon, Venezuela, has been occupied by partisans of Cipriano Castro and that Gen. Leon Jurado, Governor of Falcon, has been taken prisoner by them. It is said that Castro landed in Venezuela yesterday.

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 30.—Active revolutionary movements in Venezuela and the invasion of that country are reported in the newspapers here.

BIG ARMORED CRUISER
TO REPLACE TRANSPORT
Employment of the Washington as a Receiving Ship in Line With Present Naval Policy.

The big armored cruiser Washington, the swiftest of her class in the navy, will replace the transport Hancock as receiving ship at New York August 6. The Hancock will be used to develop the plans of the Marine Corps for an advance base station at Philadelphia, which will involve her being kept in readiness for instant departure with a full battalion of marines and all of their equipment to any part of the world wherever they may be needed for full complement.

White Lingerie
Blouses 93c
at

Women's Auto
Coats, All $3.98
Linen

English Rep Skirts, $1.98
$2.98 Value

Women's $7.98 All-
Linen Dresses $3.85

Women's $12.98
Silk Dresses $5.39

$8 to $12.98 Lin-erie Dresses at $3.85

Exquisite Lingerie
Dresses at $8.85

Attractively Made Separate Tub Skirts 73c

Women's and Misses' $2.98
Pique
Coats $1.00

Women's $1.00
Lingerie
Waists 38c

69c Lawn Dressing
Sacques 39c

49c Long
Lawn
Kimonos 27c

Derby Coats,
75c
Value 55c

Brassieres,
25c
Value 12 1/2c

Girls' $1.50 Bal-
kanon Middy
Blouses,
$1.00

Arrange Later Payments at Intervals at HECHT'S,
Seventh St.

FORMER BRITISH OFFICER
HELD AS A SNATCH THIEF

OVERLAND WESTERNERS
ON NATION-WIDE TOUR

MISTOOK CLOCK WINDER
FOR CANADIAN MINISTER

NEW YORK, July 30.—A man describing himself as Alexander L. Beck, formerly a second lieutenant in the British army and a graduate of the royal artillery school at Woolwich, is under arrest as an alleged snatch thief, who has made many of the summer students at Columbia University his victims.

CHICAGO, July 30.—The hottest weather of this summer visited Chicago yesterday. On top of the federal building, where the weather bureau is located, the coolest spot in the downtown district, the temperature was 99 degrees, but in other sections it was three or four degrees hotter.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The fourteen-foot ballot which came in for so much ridicule during the election primaries last week, has been ordered to be 14 feet long, which will be used in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third assembly district here today.

CHICAGO, July 30.—L. W. Bowen, sixty-four years old, and who said he is a graduate of Harvard, stood before Municipal Judge Newcomer the other day and asked to be sent to the house of correction for sixty days so that he might be prepared for a new start in life. He had been in jail a month awaiting trial for habitual drunkenness. In one hand he carried a thumb-marked, pencil-lined copy of the Epistle of St. John.

MINIMUM WAGE PROPOSED.

A bill introduced in the House by Representative J. M. C. Smith of Michigan provides that all employees of the Treasury Department and firemen, watchmen, etc., of the government employ shall be allowed a minimum wage of $800.

RAIN PLAYS FAVORITES.

Only some sections of nearby Virginia and Maryland Aided.

Return of Charles S. Hamlin to Treasury Recalls an Amusing Incident.

NEW YORK, July 30.—George W.
Beck, J. B. Hamon, R. C. Bayne and C. C. Beck are four stalwart men who call themselves "The Overland Westerners." They are from Olympia, Wash., having left that city May 1 of last year to make a 20,000 mile ride through the United States. They agreed to visit every capital in the United States, to have pictures taken with the governors, and to make the entire trip in three years. Since they have been on the road they have worn out six horses, having but only three left which they started fifteen months ago. One of these is a western mustang, Pinto, which appears to be about as fresh as he was the day the trip began.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The nomination of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the Treasury has recalled to old Treasury employes a humorous incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the story:

The minister of finance of Canada came
to Washington to discuss customs matters, and Secretary of the Treasury Carleile notified Mr. Hamlin, who had charge of customs questions, that the minister
was in the Treasury Department, and
would call upon him.

In a few minutes a man of distinguished bearing, with flowing side whiskers
and trimly dressed in a frock coat, entered the assistant secretary's office. Mr.
Hamlin greeted him effusively in a manner becoming the dignitary of a foreign embassy. They clasped hands and each bowed in courtly fashion. The greetings continued at the bowing stage
until the Treasury official discovered his visitor was deaf. He then yelled his words at the deaf man, who, it was seemed nonplussed, suddenly swung his head from behind his back and presented a salad fork, with the exclamation:

"Don't you think I made a good job
of it?"

The visitor of aristocratic mien was found to be the official clock winder of the Treasury Department, who had repeated the fork for Mr. Hamlin's private secretary.

Mr. Hamlin had to repeat the performance when the real minister arrived.

NEW YORK, July 30.—George W.
Beck, J. B. Hamon, R. C. Bayne and C. C. Beck are four stalwart men who call themselves "The Overland Westerners." They are from Olympia, Wash., having left that city May 1 of last year to make a 20,000 mile ride through the United States. They agreed to visit every capital in the United States, to have pictures taken with the governors, and to make the entire trip in three years. Since they have been on the road they have worn out six horses, having but only three left which they started fifteen months ago. One of these is a western mustang, Pinto, which appears to be about as fresh as he was the day the trip began.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The
nomination of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the Treasury has recalled to old Treasury employes a humorous incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the story:

The minister of finance of Canada came
to Washington to discuss customs matters, and Secretary of the Treasury Car-
leile notified Mr. Hamlin, who had charge
of customs questions, that the minister
was in the Treasury Department, and
would call upon him.

In a few minutes a man of distinguished bearing, with flowing side whiskers
and trimly dressed in a frock coat, entered the assistant secretary's office. Mr.
Hamlin greeted him effusively in a manner becoming the dignitary of a foreign embassy. They clasped hands and each bowed in courtly fashion. The
greetings continued at the bowing stage
until the Treasury official discovered his visitor was deaf. He then yelled his words at the deaf man, who, it was
seemed nonplussed, suddenly swung his
head from behind his back and presented a salad fork, with the exclamation:

"Don't you think I made a good job
of it?"

The visitor of aristocratic mien was found to be the official clock winder of
the Treasury Department, who had repeated the fork for Mr. Hamlin's private secretary.

Mr. Hamlin had to repeat the performance when the real minister arrived.

NEW YORK, July 30.—George W.
Beck, J. B. Hamon, R. C. Bayne and C. C. Beck are four stalwart men who call themselves "The Overland Westerners." They are from Olympia, Wash., having left that city May 1 of last year to make a 20,000 mile ride through the United States. They agreed to visit every capital in the United States, to have pictures taken with the governors, and to make the entire trip in three years. Since they have been on the road they have worn out six horses, having but only three left which they started fifteen months ago. One of these is a western mustang, Pinto, which appears to be about as fresh as he was the day the trip began.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The
nomination of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the Treasury has recalled to old Treasury employes a humorous incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the story:

The minister of finance of Canada came
to Washington to discuss customs matters, and Secretary of the Treasury Car-
leile notified Mr. Hamlin, who had charge
of customs questions, that the minister
was in the Treasury Department, and
would call upon him.

In a few minutes a man of distinguished bearing, with flowing side whiskers
and trimly dressed in a frock coat, entered the assistant secretary's office. Mr.
Hamlin greeted him effusively in a manner becoming the dignitary of a foreign embassy. They clasped hands and each bowed in courtly fashion. The
greetings continued at the bowing stage
until the Treasury official discovered his visitor was deaf. He then yelled his words at the deaf man, who, it was
seemed nonplussed, suddenly swung his
head from behind his back and presented a salad fork, with the exclamation:

"Don't you think I made a good job
of it?"

The visitor of aristocratic mien was found to be the official clock winder of
the Treasury Department, who had repeated the fork for Mr. Hamlin's private secretary.

Mr. Hamlin had to repeat the performance when the real minister arrived.

NEW YORK, July 30.—George W.
Beck, J. B. Hamon, R. C. Bayne and C. C. Beck are four stalwart men who call themselves "The Overland Westerners." They are from Olympia, Wash., having left that city May 1 of last year to make a 20,000 mile ride through the United States. They agreed to visit every capital in the United States, to have pictures taken with the governors, and to make the entire trip in three years. Since they have been on the road they have worn out six horses, having but only three left which they started fifteen months ago. One of these is a western mustang, Pinto, which appears to be about as fresh as he was the day the trip began.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The
nomination of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the Treasury has recalled to old Treasury employes a humorous incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the story:

The minister of finance of Canada came
to Washington to discuss customs matters, and Secretary of the Treasury Car-
leile notified Mr. Hamlin, who had charge
of customs questions, that the minister
was in the Treasury Department, and
would call upon him.

In a few minutes a man of distinguished bearing, with flowing side whiskers
and trimly dressed in a frock coat, entered the assistant secretary's office. Mr.
Hamlin greeted him effusively in a manner becoming the dignitary of a foreign embassy. They clasped hands and each bowed in courtly fashion. The
greetings continued at the bowing stage
until the Treasury official discovered his visitor was deaf. He then yelled his words at the deaf man, who, it was
seemed nonplussed, suddenly swung his
head from behind his back and presented a salad fork, with the exclamation:

"Don't you think I made a good job
of it?"

The visitor of aristocratic mien was found to be the official clock winder of
the Treasury Department, who had repeated the fork for Mr. Hamlin's private secretary.

Mr. Hamlin had to repeat the performance when the real minister arrived.

NEW YORK, July 30.—George W.
Beck, J. B. Hamon, R. C. Bayne and C. C. Beck are four stalwart men who call themselves "The Overland Westerners." They are from Olympia, Wash., having left that city May 1 of last year to make a 20,000 mile ride through the United States. They agreed to visit every capital in the United States, to have pictures taken with the governors, and to make the entire trip in three years. Since they have been on the road they have worn out six horses, having but only three left which they started fifteen months ago. One of these is a western mustang, Pinto, which appears to be about as fresh as he was the day the trip began.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The
nomination of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the Treasury has recalled to old Treasury employes a humorous incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the story:

The minister of finance of Canada came
to Washington to discuss customs matters, and Secretary of