PHYSICIANS IN PULPITS
"PUBLIC HEALTH SUNDAY"
 Philadelphia to Hear Addresses From Members of American Medical Association.
 PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—In connection with city-wide observance of "public health Sunday" pulpits in fifty of the city's churches will be occupied next Sunday morning and evening by physicians of national prominence who will discuss topics of public interest relating to public health and morals.
 The sixty-fifth annual session of the American Medical Association will open in Atlantic City Monday, and the observance of "public health Sunday" in this city has been arranged in connection with this convention by the council on health and public instruction.
Council Members.
 Members of this council include Drs. Henry B. Favill, chairman, and Frederick R. Green, secretary, both of Chicago; Henry M. Bracken, St. Paul; William C. Woodward, Washington; Walter B. Cannon, Boston, and Watson S. Rankin, Raleigh, N. C.
 Among the speakers scheduled for addresses during the day are Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, surgeon general, U. S. Department of Agriculture; Dr. W. C. Rucker and Dr. J. W. Kerr, assistant surgeons general, D. W. Woods, Hutchinson, writer on public health topics, and Dr. Howard A. Kelly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore.

In Memoriam.
 BISHOP. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and loving brother, WILLIAM BISHOP, who departed this life three years ago yesterday, June 19, 1911.
 Gone, but not forgotten.
 MOTHER AND YOUNGEST SISTER.
 DIGGS. In loving remembrance of our dear father, FRANKLIN M. DIGGS, who passed away June 21, 1907, and our devoted mother, AMANDA J. DIGGS, who passed away June 16, 1911.
 BY THEIR CHILDREN.
 EARLY. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, JOHN W. EARLY, who fell asleep in Jesus one year ago today, June 18, 1913.
 The depths of our sorrow we cannot tell. At the loss of our father we loved so well. And while he lies in peaceful slumber, His memory we shall always keep.
 We may not know your death should come. To take our dear one from among the living. But though our eyes with tears be dim, And while he lies in peaceful slumber, We pray for HIS DEVOTED CHILDREN.
 GILES. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, ANN GILES, who departed this life two years ago yesterday, June 18, 1912.
 BY HER DAUGHTER, MARY GILES BELKITT.
 HAUSER. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, JOHN HAUSER, who entered into paradise one year ago today, June 19, 1913, and four years and five days ago.
 An angel with a radiant face. Above our heads in peaceful slumber. Seemed his own image there to trace. "Dear child, who are the results of sin?" He whispered, "come, oh come, with me! Happy together to be with me!" The Lord answered, "yes, of thee."
 BY HER GRANDFATHERS AND UNCLAS.
 We may not know your death should come. To take our dear one from among the living. But though our eyes with tears be dim, And while he lies in peaceful slumber, We pray for HIS MAMA AND PAPA.
