Detachage—the Bornot Stain-Removing Process

When your new gown has become slightly soiled around the bottom or when you accidentally drop something on it that causes a stain, send it to us at once. Do not attempt to remove it yourself. Often the effect of the "stain remover" is far more difficult for us to remedy than the stain. Our Detachage Process, if used steadily, will keep a gown always looking fresh and new.

TO BE MARRIED THIS AFTERNOON.

MISS MABEL ANDERSON SPENCER AND J. ALBY HENDERSON, PRINCIPALS IN A HOME WEDDING.

The wedding ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Wallace, where an elaborate floral decoration was in place. Richmond roses and white lilies formed the centerpiece on the table, and silver baskets, also filled with roses, dotted the rest of the cloth. The orchestra followed, Mr. Paul Bleyden giving vocal numbers.

The guests were the Chief Justice and Mrs. White, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. Justice Day, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Van Devanter, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Lamar, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Pitney, Mr. Justice McReynolds, the Secretary of War, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, the solicitor general, the assistant to the Attorney General and Mrs. George Carroll Todd, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Anderson of Boston, Col. and Mrs. George B. M. Harvey of New York, Mr. Frederic R. Condit of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandeis of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Parker of Houston, Tex.; Miss Mabel T. Boardman, Miss Rufus S. Day, Miss Laura Harlan, Miss Jane Gregory, Mrs. R. W. Dowdy, Mrs. Mary G. Cook of Pennsylvania and Mr. William C. Pitts of Alabama.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall were guests at dinner last night of Representative and Mrs. James Willard Ragsdale, who had to meet them tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Key Pittman, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Surgeon General Rupert Blue, Gen. and Mrs. John A. Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kaufmann.

Senator and Mrs. Henry L. Myers entertained at dinner last night at Rauscher's in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Pickford. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kaufmann.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Another Party in Honor of Wife of American Ambassador.

Last Night's Dinners Brought Many Notables Together—Weddings—Notes.

Mrs. Hugh Wallace entertained informally at a luncheon today for Mrs. Walter H. Page, wife of the American ambassador to England, whose Washington visit has been a series of charming hospitalities in her honor. She is the guest today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, who are giving an informal dinner tonight for her.

Miss Mabel Anderson Spencer, daughter of Mrs. C. C. Spencer, formerly of Lexington, N. C., but now of this city, and Mr. J. Alby Henderson of Rockville, Md., will be married this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, the Rev. John Henderson, Rockville, Md., uncle of the bridegroom, officiating.

There will be no attendants and the couple will leave at once for their northern wedding journey. After February 16 they will reside in Rockville, Md. The bride wore her traveling dress—a smart spring costume of tan covert cloth, with hat and gloves to match.

Mrs. Daniels will receive this afternoon at Single Oak. She will be assisted by Mrs. Moses E. Clapp, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mrs. Oscar Underwood, Mrs. Seltonridge, Mrs. William Ketter, Mrs. McGillivuddy, Mrs. A. W. Bagley, Mrs. A. L. Mills, Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, Mrs. J. A. Ferrall, Mrs. George R. Clark, Mrs. Bullard and Mrs. Fremont Smith.

Miss Julia Scott, Miss Grace Overman, Miss Katharine Horner and Miss Lucy Haines, North Carolina girls here in school, will assist in the dining room, with Miss Mary Claves Daniels of Goldsborough, N. C., and Miss Evelyn Jackson of Richmond, house guests, and Miss Cora Bagley will also assist.

An interesting social event of the afternoon will be the Miss Margaret Booth's tea at Miss Lois Reeside and Miss Margaret Clements.

Mrs. Frank Fox and Mrs. Haynor Gordon will preside at the tea table, and Miss Marian Booth, Miss Virginia Booth, Miss Claudine Clements and Mrs. Fenton Booth, mother of the hostess, will also assist.

Miss Kate Dean Owen has gone to New York to visit friends for two weeks.

Maj. and Mrs. John W. Heavey have returned, after spending two weeks in Florida. Mrs. Heavey will be at home tomorrow from 3 till 6 o'clock, at 1323 30th street.

Mrs. Clay Tallman, wife of the commissioner of the general land office, will be at home Friday, 3:30 to 6 o'clock, at 154 Irving street.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson of Kansas will not receive tomorrow, but will be at home Thursday, February 11.

Mrs. James E. Martine will be at home tomorrow and Thursday, February 11, at the Burlington.

The marriage of Miss Hannah Somerville Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoddard Matthews and Lieut. Edmund P. Parker, U. S. A., will take place tonight at Christ Church, Georgetown. The ceremony will be followed by a small reception at the bride's home, on 20th street. Miss Lucy Matthews will be maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lucia Hollerith, Miss Lucy Mackall, Miss Helen Nicholson and Miss Mary Parker.

The bride's small cousin, Miss Lucy Matthews, will be flower girl. Mr. McRea Parker will be best man, and the ushers will be Lieut. Edwin St. John Greble, Lieut. Samuel R. Hopkins, Lieut. Alexander James, Lieut. Richard C. Burleson and the bride's two brothers, Mr. Henry S. Matthews and Mr. Charles M. Matthews.

Rev. James H. W. Blake will officiate. Messrs. Matthews of La Plata, Md., Mrs. Hebb, Mrs. Bush and Miss Bush of Wilmington, and Mr. Handy of Baltimore are among the out-of-town guests who have arrived for the wedding.

The old Masonic Temple was the scene last night of the midwinter dance of the Young Men's Hebrew Association. During two freshly danced all the lights were extinguished, and the dancers, with small electric flashlights,
