EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Fifty Guests Take Luncheon Today at Home of Secretary Bryan.

Brilliant Gathering Welcomes Dr. Blanco of Uruguay—Other Parties—Notes.

Mrs. Bryan entertained at a luncheon today at Calumet place. She had fifty guests.

The minister of Uruguay and Mme. de Pena entertained several hundred guests last night at a reception in honor of Dr. Blanco, the special representative from Uruguay to the Panama-Pacific exposition. Misses de Pena assisted in the hospitalities of the evening, which brought together members of the diplomatic corps, as well as representatives of official and resident society circles.

A surprise party and dance was given by Mrs. E. W. Hanvey for her daughter, Mrs. Roy F. Carty, on the evening of her birthday, February 23. During the absence of Mrs. Carty from her home the house was recently decorated, the lower floor cleared for dancing and the library and den arranged for card games.

The following gathered at the house prior to her return and gave her a grand surprise: Mrs. Emma Hanvey, Mrs. Ethel Combes, Mrs. Elsie Boynton, Dr. and Mrs. Wilkenson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knock, Mr. and Mrs. John Kner, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Carty, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hanvey, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fenderson, Mr. and Mrs. George and Misses Keller, Maddox, Marion Ferguson, Neveins, Bell, McCabe, Adams, Hanvey, Combes, Best, Carlton, Elizabeth Ferguson and Messrs. Black, Heindel, Grove, Young, Cleveland, Knock, Cheung, Dutton, Shoemaker, West, Meloy, Lehr, Butler and Williams.

A reception and dance will be given this evening in New York in honor of the Japanese ambassador and his countess Chinda and Admiral Dewa of the Japanese navy. Mrs. Lindsay Russell, Mrs. William North Duane, Mrs. Howard Van Sinderen, Miss Luisita A. Leland and Miss Florence V. Doane are among those in charge of the affair.

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh will go to California shortly, and according to her present plans will not return here until next fall.

Mrs. William S. Carroll of this city has leased the mansion on Rhode Island avenue, Newport, R. I., for next season.

Mrs. Newton Gullick, 2408 Massachusetts avenue, has been obliged to give up her Fridays in this month, and has left the city with her daughter, to be away for several weeks. On her return she will send out cards for an at home.

Clarence F. Norment, jr., of this city, who is a student at Lafayette College, took a prominent part in "Pearls and Pastry," a musical comedy, that was given in Easton, Pa., last night. He was a member of a male chorus, whose singing and dancing were quite the hit of the show. The play was given under the auspices of the Sock and Buskin Club as a feature of the junior week celebration, which is now in progress at Lafayette.

Mr. John Barrett, director general of the Pan American Union, gave a luncheon today at the Pan-American building, in honor of Dr. Juan Carlos Blanco, minister of public works and special envoy of Uruguay, and his staff, Senor Don Enrique Durr and Senor Don Carlos Garcaio Marques. About thirty guests were present.

Mrs. Henry Churchill Cook and her sister, Miss Mayer, will not be at home tomorrow.

A dance, the second of a series, will be given tonight at the Confederate Memorial Home, 1327 Vermont avenue. Mrs. Bankhead and Mrs. Swanson will assist Mrs. Odenheimer, Mrs. Smith and Miss Fanny Wilson in receiving the guests.

Rev. Dr. James S. Montgomery, assisted by Rev. J. T. Ensor, officiated at the marriage last night, at the Metropolitan M. E. Church, of Miss Harriet Ellen Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Almon Harding, and Dr. Marshall Crapon Guthrie of the United States public health service, stationed in the Canal Zone, Isthmus of Panama.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and palms and the organist of the church, assisted by the choir, gave an interesting program as the guests were assembling. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore white crepe meteor, trimmed with and made with lace and tulle and a court train, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley and orchids. Her veil was of tulle and was arranged with orange blossoms. Her schoolgirl cousin, Miss Helen Brown of Salem, Wis., was maid of honor. She wore a crown of pale blue tulle decorated with tulle and carried a shower of tiny pink rosebuds.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Gestford and Miss Alice Holmes. They wore dainty gowns of pink pussywillow tulle, trimmed with accordion-pleated chiffon and carried baskets of pink sweet peas. Dr. J. P. Leake of the United States public health service was best man, and the ushers were Mr. D. M. Earl, Mr. W. Springer, Mr. A. N. Finn, Mr. A. Sampson, Mr. F. C. Nielson and Mr. J. L. Moneyway. A small reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harding, after which Dr. and Mrs. Guthrie left for a wedding trip. They will live at the Canal Zone.

The Swiss minister and Mme. Ritter will have their guests for the weekend Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stehll of New York city.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Henry Wiley entertained at dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club for their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Wiley. The other guests were the Misses Burleson, Miss Alexandra Ewing, Miss Ruth R. Patterson, Miss Ruth Wilson, Mr. William Flather, Mr. Robert Stead, Mr. Manning Stead, Commander Enoch, Commander Stead, Mr. Robert W. Patterson and Mr. Lyman Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Beale R. Howard were among last night's dinner hosts.

Miss Mary Wheeler Vest went to Baltimore this morning to be the guest for several days of Miss Maria Trimble Dimpfel at the residence of Mrs. Edward T. Norris, 30 West Biddle street, with whom Miss Dimpfel has been spending the winter. She will be given a small card party tomorrow afternoon by Miss Dimpfel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Benet, who have recently returned from Paris for their annual visit in this country, are the guests for the week of Mr. Alexander Legare. Mrs. Benet yesterday gave a short talk before a number of women in St. John's parish hall about the work of the American Hospital in Paris. Mr. Benet is a director of the hospital and Mrs. Benet a volunteer nurse.

The assistant secretary of agriculture and Mrs. Carl Vrooman entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory.

Mrs. Charles D. Fowler was hostess at a tea yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Rochambeau, in honor of her guest, Miss Sarah Welsh of Philadelphia. Miss Welsh, who is a niece of Mrs. Fowler, was also a guest of another aunt, Mrs. Thomas Casey, assisting Mrs. Fowler were Mrs. W. I. Chambers, Mrs. Thomas Casey, Mrs. William Woodward, Miss Agnes Cummings and Mrs. John Van Rensselaer.

Mrs. Charles M. Galloway will not receive tomorrow.

Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker, who is to read "The Unseen Empire," a play which is a plea for peace, at the Congressional Club tomorrow afternoon, will be the guest of Mrs. Robert M. La Follette during her stay in Washington. Mrs. Fletcher will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Tower and Mrs. Baker. Mrs. Mondell of Wyoming and Mrs. Morgan of Oklahoma will pour tea at the club tomorrow. Those to assist in entertaining will be Mrs. Newlands, Nevada; Mrs. Owen, Oklahoma; Miss Page, Vermont; Mrs. Oliver, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Martin, New Jersey; Mrs. Myers, Montana; Mrs. Norris, Nebraska; Mrs. Page, North Carolina; Mrs. O'Shaunessy, Rhode Island; Mrs. Porter, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Prouty, Iowa; Mrs. Paige, Massachusetts; Mrs. Parker, New York; Mrs. Peters, Maine; Mrs. Peterson, California; Mrs. Peterson, Indiana; Mrs. Phelan, Massachusetts; Mrs. Platt, New York; Mrs. Adolph Meyer, Mrs. James H. Patten, Mrs. A. W. Patterson, Mrs. Andrew J. Peters, Mrs. H. Kirk Porter, Miss McCumber, North Dakota; Mrs. Lennox, Wisconsin. The Misses La Follette, Washington, and Miss Margaret McChord, will usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Vrooman will give a dinner in honor of the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane the evening of March 10.

Mrs. Daniel Webster Prentiss will not be at home tomorrow afternoon, but will receive informally the Fridays in March.

Mrs. William H. Cooper announces the marriage of her daughter, Josephine Victoria, to Mr. Emory L. White on Sunday, February 21, Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Frank Noske was hostess at a matinee card party in honor of the tenth anniversary of her marriage.
