

TOUR OF FACTORIES FOR PAN-AMERICANS Delegates to Financial Conference to Be Shown Industries in United States.

Secretary of Treasury to Preside at Sessions President Wilson to Make Opening Address—Complete List of Delegates.

A tour of manufacturing communities of the east and central west by the delegates to the Pan-American financial conference is part of the program planned by Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury Department.

A tentative schedule has been prepared, involving the following itinerary: Baltimore, May 21; Philadelphia, June 1 and part of June 2; Pittsburgh, June 3 and 4; St. Louis, June 5 and part of June 6; Chicago, June 7 and 8; Detroit, June 9; Buffalo and Niagara Falls, June 10; Schenectady, June 11; Boston, June 12 and part of June 13; New York, June 14 and 15.

Secretary McAdoo, who will preside at sessions of the conference, announced it would be opened at the Pan-American Union building by President Wilson at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 24 and last through the following Saturday, closing with a banquet that night.

The President will receive the delegates at the White House at noon on the 24th, and Mr. Bryan and Mr. McAdoo will hold a reception for them that night at the Pan-American Union building.

In his announcement Mr. McAdoo says the program for the conference "will permit of the freest possible discussion of financial and trade relations between the United States and Latin America and of measures for their improvement."

While the program, the announcement says, "will suggest topics for discussion, the conference will not be confined to these subjects. The delegates will be accorded full opportunity to present such matters as they desire for consideration. Generally speaking, the topics will revolve about the questions of Pan-American finance, trade and transportation."

With the designation of delegates from Ecuador and additional delegates from Cuba, announced today, the representation from the eighteen Latin American republics is complete.

Secretary McAdoo has been notified of the appointment by Ecuador of the following delegates: Juan Cueva Garcia, Vincente Gonzalez Bazo, Sr. Wither, formerly consul general at New York and formerly secretary and chief director, National Bank of Cuba; Octavio Bayas, prominent banker in Cuba and formerly consul general at New York.

In addition to Dr. Pablo Desveraine, secretary of state and formerly secretary of the treasury of Cuba, who previously was named as a delegate to the conference, the president of Cuba today appointed the following delegates to represent that country: Porfirio Franco, chief director, National Bank of Cuba; and Dr. Enrique Jimenez, minister of finance of the republic.

Face Covered With Pimples. Red, Then Festered. Would Itch and Burn. Sore and Disfigured. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Completely Healed. Clearwater, S. C.—"Until three months ago my face was covered with pimples that I was ashamed of. I was told I had eczema. First the pimples were red, then they festered and they would itch and burn all the time. They kept my face sore all the time and it was all disfigured. I was almost ashamed to see my friends. I found no cure until I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In six weeks my face became smooth and soft and now I look a different person. The pimples have all vanished and I am completely healed." (Signed) Miss Katie Robinson, July 21, 1914.

A WORD TO MOTHERS Are your little ones suffering from torturing skin troubles? Are you, yourself, worn out with long, sleepless nights and restless anxiety in caring for them? Then you should know that a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle application of Cuticura Ointment will soothe and heal. Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Sold everywhere. Price, 25¢ per box.
