EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Wedding Anniversary of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo.

Dinner and Dances of Last Night. Teas—Luncheons and Weddings.

Today is the wedding anniversary of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. William C. McAdoo, who were married just one year ago at the White House.

The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock and was witnessed only by the family, the cabinet circle and a few personal friends.

Owing to Mrs. McAdoo's mourning for her mother, which has prevented her from taking any part in social life this winter, there will probably be no celebration today.

Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo ride nearly every afternoon, and the former appears to be almost entirely recovered from his recent illness.

He runs his own motor car and appears to enjoy it thoroughly.

Miss Hildegarde Hurley entertained at luncheon today in compliment to Miss Ruth Bliss.

Miss Hildegarde Knapp will give a theater party tomorrow afternoon in Miss Bliss' honor and Miss Ruth Jones will entertain at supper for her Sunday evening.

Mrs. Colin Carter of New York is the guest of Justice and Mrs. Charles E. Hughes.

Col. Charles Page Bryan, who is in New York, entertained at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Princess Swont-Fairbanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Reich announced the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Elizabeth Pauline and Mr. Warren Paul Rifenbark, both of Glendale, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sidney Lanier are at the Marlborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City, for a stay of several weeks. Mrs. Lanier is recuperating from a recent illness.

Mrs. Charles A. Johnson, 2837 12th street, northeast, entertained at the last meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Five Hundred Club. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white spring blossoms, and Mrs. W. Calmer won the first prize.

Miss Tenena Desio left yesterday for San Francisco, where she will spend the coming three months. En route she will visit at Banff, Lake Louise, Vancouver, Seattle and Portland.

Miss Frances Maud Anderson was hostess Tuesday evening at an informal dance.

The marriage of Miss Mary Virginia Blaine, a distant relative of the late James G. Blaine, former Secretary of State, and Mr. William E. Barker of this city, took place very quietly Wednesday in Philadelphia.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Barker will return to this city and reside at the former's residence, 1215 3d street northwest.

Miss Gwendolyn Elouise of Richmond, Ind., arrived in Washington yesterday and is stopping at the Sheraton.

The Misses Hopkins, who are stopping at the Sheraton, entertained at a tea yesterday.

Gen. and Mrs. Weaver were hosts at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club last night, when their guests were Mrs. Iva Hayes, wife of Col. Hayes, who is spending a few days at the Sheraton; Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Zestel, Capt. and Mrs. Hickey, Capt. and Mrs. Bishop, Capt. and Mrs. Robinson, Capt. and Mrs. Fuller, Capt. and Mrs. Nettler, Capt. and Mrs. Wilson, Capt. and Mrs. Marshall, Capt. and Mrs. Lanham, Lieut. and Mrs. Spaulding, Col. Hines and Mrs. Moses, wife of Capt. Moses.

Col. and Mrs. John Dean Hall entertained at dinner at the Army and Navy Club last night in honor of Gen. and Mrs. George D. Hoxie, who are spending a few days at the Sheraton. The other guests were Dr. and Mrs. Gerry Morgan, Col. Glennan, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mrs. William H. Reynolds, Dr. Cabell, Capt. and Mrs. Embick and Col. and Mrs. Doods.

Among others entertaining at the Army and Navy Club last night were Capt. and Mrs. William Cornell, Capt. and Mrs. Andrew, Senator and Mrs. McCumber, Lieut. Easlerday, Col. A. C. Macomber, Mrs. E. H. Habel, Mrs. Schuyler and Maj. and Mrs. Woodruff, who is entertained in honor of Mrs. Woodruff's sister, Miss Edith Habel.

Their guests included Col. and Mrs. Taylor, Maj. and Mrs. Patterson, Capt. and Mrs. Schuyler, Capt. and Mrs. Schuyler, Mrs. Schindel, Mrs. Peterson, Capt. Mahaffey, Capt. Patterson and Lieut. Dorst.

Capt. and Mrs. J. J. Kingman entertained at a dinner last night at Washington barracks, when their guests were Maj. and Mrs. Winton, Maj. and Mrs. Lusk, Capt. and Mrs. Jordan, Col. and Mrs. Winslow and Col. and Mrs. J. C. Galt. Informal dancing followed the dinner.

Mrs. Hauge entertained at dinner last night.

Capt. and Mrs. Edward W. Eberle entertained at a dinner of sixteen covers last night at their home at the navy yard.

The Brazilian ambassador and Mme. de Gama entertained at dinner last night in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan. The other guests were the Chilean ambassador and Mme. Suarez, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott, Mrs. Lloyd W. Bowers and Mr. A. Maurer.

Mr. de Hideri of the Austrian embassy entertained at a dinner dinner last night at Rauscher's. Princess von Hatzfeldt chaperoned the party. The guests present were Prince von Hatzfeldt, ambassador of the German embassy, Miss Frances Lippitt, Miss Margaret Perin, Miss Stuart Jones, Miss Hatzfeldt, Mrs. Louise Delano, Miss Mary Scott of Chicago, Miss Thatcher, Mr. de Beaufort and Count von Rottberg, Countess von der Netherlands legation, Mavroudi Effendi of the Turkish embassy, Prince Fozzolo de Austria, Austrian embassy, Mr. R. Bingham and Mr. H. Sturges.

Miss Rosemary Byrne and Miss Amy Colver will arrive this week from Asheville, N. C., to visit the former's cousin, Eric Galt, Jr. Hoxie, at his residence on K street. They will be in Washington a month before going to New York.

Miss Byrne, who is well known in this city, now makes her permanent home at Rosemary cottage, Sunset terrace, on the side of Sunset Mountain, near Asheville.

Mrs. John Foster Dulles is visiting Mrs. John W. Foster, 1223 18th street, and will receive with her Monday afternoon, May 10.

The patronesses for "The Opium Pipe," which will be given at the Belasco Monday night, May 10, in aid of the French motor ambulance fund, will include Mrs. George Cabot Lodge, Miss Isabel Boardman, Mrs. Charles McCawley, Mrs. Horace Wiley, Miss Emily

MOTHER AND SON MURDERED. Mrs. Ella Coppersmith and Child of Chicago Had Skulls Crushed. CHICAGO, May 7.—Mrs. Ella Coppersmith, wife of John L. Coppersmith, a commission merchant, and her son John, two years old, were found murdered yesterday afternoon. Their throats had been cut and their skulls crushed. A blood-stained hammer was found near the bodies, and in an adjoining room the police discovered a blood-stained butcher knife. Diamonds belonging to Mrs. Coppersmith are missing, and robbery is believed to have been the motive.

The murderer remained long enough with the bodies to tamper with the apartment for valuables. He took a diamond ring and her wedding ring from Mrs. Coppersmith's hand, but overlooked $300 in bonds and about $50 in currency.

What the police consider their most tangible clue was the bloody imprint of the murderer's hand on a table in the kitchen. Two suspects were arrested.

COMMITTEE DISCUSSES SHAD BAKE PROGRAM

Arrangements for the entertainment features for the Board of Trade shad bake and outing at Chesapeake Beach Saturday, May 22, were discussed at a luncheon meeting of the committee on entertainment yesterday at the National Press Club.

Edwin Callow, "Tony the Barber," is chairman of this committee; Paul F. Schick, vice chairman; Francis J. Pizer, secretary, and Charles R. Bartlett, musical director of the newly organized Board of Trade Glee Club, and musical director for all the "special stunts of the pavilion."

The minstrel part of the program and olio will be under the direction of Mr. Grove. The minstrel show will be of the old-time variety, with popular songs and catchy choruses, and the olio by members of the Marine Band, Charles Washington; Earl Carbaugh, baritone; Arthur Butler Pierce, organist; I. S. Goldsmith, diabolist; Otto Woerner and George Gross, and men extraordinary; Kirk Miller, the Grotto favorite; "Musical Randall," the zitherphone wonder of the Marine Band; Charles Shackleford, interlocutor; Byron Bloodgett, accompanist, and a reserve corps ready to jump into the fray.

Members of the newly organized Glee Club who have passed the successful entrance examination are William A. Rogers, Odell Whipple, James P. Schick, William Clabough, E. P. Col-laday, Edwin Callow, Louis K. Wilson, Odell S. Smith, Horace Ward, George H. Markward, Oliver A. Phelps, Edgar H. S. Embrey, J. C. Crooby, McCarthy, Clarence Sorrell and Walter Sorrell.

There will be a full rehearsal of the show and the olio tomorrow evening in the rooms of the Board of Trade, Star building.

The executive section of the entertainment committee is composed of the following members: Chairman, vice chairman and secretary, Walter Sorrell; White, H. S. Omohundro, Dr. Leonard H. English, Claude N. Bennett, Charles R. Bartlett, David M. Lee and Odell L. Whipple.

The committee is making every effort to make this the best entertainment in the history of the Board of Trade shad bakes, and assures the members that every little detail will be so carefully worked out that the full show of an hour and a half will be run off without a hitch. The motto of the entertainment committee is "The happy hours rather than the gloomy grouch."

Members of the board who have not purchased their tickets for the annual outing are urged to do so at once. The sale closes May 20, and positively no tickets are obtainable after that date.
