Springing a Surprise

Summer has come almost overnight—it was not long since we were all shivering, some of the makers of summer blouses and white skirts, with fear of "no summer." Then it was vast orders were given at prices so favorable to the Palais Royal and its patrons. And thus "springing a surprise" now, tomorrow, on this Third Floor.

Blouses
$1.95

Skirts
$1.00
and
$2.98

THE BLOUSES—No less than 25 styles at $1.95—many of them copies of $5.00 models. The method adopted was to visit the leading retail stores in New York and buy one each of the most effective models. These were taken to the makers—and the blouses to be offered tomorrow are the result. Materials include sheer voile, organdy, etc. Styles from the simplest tailored to the most elaborate lingerie effects. Never before or again this season—such blouses at $1.95.

THE SKIRTS—At $1.00 are no less than 1,200 of these White Pique Skirts, all styles, all lengths, all waist sizes up to the "extra sizes." And the tailoring—it is the tailoring that makes these skirts so delightful a surprise at $1.00. Those at $2.98, of Washable White Corduroy, are equally a surprise—being exact reproductions of imported models retailing in New York at $5.00. Third Floor—6 elevators.

Illustrated
$5.98

Sketches are by The Star artist. The dress to the right hand is of pink figured lawn, the bodice and sleeves trimmed with cluny lace insertion, with flaring organdy collar. The skirt also is trimmed with cluny lace insertion and buttons. A satin girdle to match finishes this costume.

The dress to the left hand is of white voile, with suspenders, girdle and pockets of black embroidered dots.

Other styles at $5.98. Misses' sizes—$5.00. Third Floor—6 elevators.
