EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Miss Eleanor Vidmer and Lieut. Joseph Aleshire to Be Wedded at West Point This Evening.

"All Missourians" Invited to Wedding of Miss Genevieve Clark and Mr. Thomson—Other Notes.

An interesting wedding will take place in the chapel at West Point this evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Eleanor Vidmer and Lieut. Joseph Aleshire, U. S. A., son of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. James B. Aleshire of this city, will be married in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

Miss Dorothy Aleshire, sister of the bridegroom, will be the maid of honor, and Mrs. Mead Wildrick, wife of Lieut. Wildrick, the matron of honor. Miss Margaret Treat and Miss Katherine Treat, daughters of Col. and Mrs. Charles G. Treat of this city, will be among the bridesmaids.

Lieut. Parker C. Kallouch, U. S. A., will act as best man, and the ushers will include Lieut. Frederick Strong, Lieut. Dan Pullen, Lieut. Frederick A. Holmer, Lieut. James B. Crawford and Lieut. Carl Bradford.

All Missouri today was invited to attend the wedding of Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Speaker Champ Clark of the national House of Representatives, and Mr. James M. Thomson of New Orleans, which will take place at Honeyshuck, the Clark home at Bowling Green, Mo., June 30.

The general invitation issued at Montgomery, Mo., by Mr. Wallace Basford, Speaker Clark's secretary, reads: "As it has been found utterly impossible to issue individual invitations, all Missourians are invited. Those who expect to attend are asked to notify Mr. Basford at Mexico, Mo."

Mrs. Robert James Dickson announces the marriage of her daughter Marion to Mr. James L. Lucas. The ceremony took place this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Aloysius Church.

The engagement of Miss Helen Morton Robnett, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Robnett of Columbia, Mo., to Mr. Bennett Champ Clark, parliamentarian of the House of Representatives and son of the Speaker, Champ Clark, which was announced at a luncheon given at the Robnett home at Columbus, during the week, caused much interest here. No date for the wedding has been set.

The luncheon was attended by Miss Genevieve Clark and by several other young woman friends of Miss Robnett. The engagement is the outcome of a University of Missouri romance, the young couple having met while both were students there. Miss Robnett is an honor graduate of the University of Columbia, of the class of 1911. She spent the next year in European travel and in study at Oxford. Since then she has been a student of the University. She is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. Her father, D. M. Robnett, is prominent in Columbia business life, and the family is one of the best known in the city. Miss Robnett, gracious and accomplished, is popular both in town and university circles.

Miss Robnett is three years the junior of Mr. Clark, who is twenty-five. He is the only son of the Speaker and Mrs. Clark. After receiving the degree of A. B. from the University of Missouri in June, 1913, he entered George Washington University. He was elected to Phi Delta Phi, an honorary law fraternity, in June, 1914, with the degree of bachelor of laws. In December of last year he took the state bar examinations at Jefferson City and was admitted to the Missouri bar. He is a member of the Phi Delta Phi, an honorary law fraternity.

Since 1913 Mr. Clark has been parliamentarian of the House of Representatives. His ability in this post, held previously by none but "old heads," it is declared, has won the approval of official Washington. He will continue in the office of parliamentarian during the next session.

For the announcement party the Robnett home was decorated in pink and white. Preceding the luncheon, while "Annie Laurie" was played, little Misses Virginia Estes and Estelle Bradford and Master Alex Estes presented each a pink card with a card filled with pink sweet peas, in which nestled a card showing a couple sitting in a crescent moon. The card bore the names "Helen and Bennett." The color scheme was carried out in La France roses, pink ribbons and candles, and throughout the luncheon course.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cullin of 640 7th street northeast entertained last evening at a buffet supper in honor of their daughter, Miss Florence Mace Cullin.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cullin, Mrs. J. Spencer, Misses Alice K. Oulahan, Lillian and Wilhelm, Florence and Madeline Cullin, Messrs. Jack Wallis, Dick Coates, Tom Cullin, A. F. Cullin, Ed Wilson and C. J. Fieldner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Mead of 1235 C street southeast entertained Sunday evening in honor of their young daughter's birthday.

Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when the guests retired to the dining room, where a bountiful repast was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Connor and daughter Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Walker and Mrs. Fred Whitacre, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mann, Lois Osborne, Bertha Carrico, Bertha Carrico, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Plathara, Misses Lucy Whitacre, Iona Stanton, Lois Osborne, Bertha Carrico, Helen Sparrows, Florence Whitacre, Helen Sullivan, Mrs. Margaret Coates and Messrs. Harry Mead, Jr., David Holmer, Wilfred Whitacre, Charles Whitacre, Edward Whitacre, Morton Coates, Joseph Mann and others.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey is spending the month of June with her daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Mussey. She expects to go in July to Twilight Park in the Catskill mountains.

Miss Lucille Taylor of Alexandria, Va., and Miss Louise Carr of this city spent the week end with Mrs. Garrette at Sideburn, Va.

Misses Ruth and Sarah Daniel will leave early in July, going first to Culpeper, Va. to attend the horse show, thence to Bay View, N. J.

The Misses Daniel will visit friends in New York before returning home in September.

Mr. W. H. Gale of the consular service and Mrs. Gale of Washington are spending a few days in New York city. They are at the Wolcott.

An interesting program consisting of recitation and instrumental music was rendered in connection with the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Godwin at their residence on Maple street, Takoma Park, D. C., last evening. There were about sixty-five guests in attendance, and Mr. and Mrs. Godwin were agreeably surprised when a delegation from the Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church of Washington, of which they are members, presented them with a handsome dinner set. They were also
