

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—Washington—Paris.

Victor Records—A complete library of records always on hand. Mail Orders safely delivered.

In Our Annual Sale of Lace Curtains

You can purchase Fine Quality Curtains at the lowest prices of the year.

Choose from Lacet Arabian Curtains, Princess Lace Curtains, Renaissance and Marie Antoinette Curtains, Real Filet Lace Window Panels, Antique Irish Point and Duchess Curtains, Scrim and Marquissette Curtains, in simple, moderately fancy or elaborate designs. 2 1/2, 3 and 3 1/2 yard lengths.

Curtains, $2.00 to $18.00 pair. Were $3.00 to $25.00.
Fine Filet Window Panels, $15.00 to $31.50 each.
Were $19.50 to $44.00.

Cluny Curtains, special at $4.00—Made of an excellent grade of French net and trimmed with 3 to 4 inch width insertions and neat edges. They are in four patterns, and 2 1/2 yards long. Worth up to $6.00 pair. Special at $4.00.
Fourth floor, G street.

EARLY ADVANCE SHOWING OF

New Cretonnes, Silkolines and Printed Bordered Voiles.

The new stocks are arriving and you will do well to make your selections now, and determine upon their use at an early date. If you are expecting guests for the G. A. R. encampment there is special reason for you to be thinking about preparations now.

The Cretonnes are in a very broad assortment of patterns, embracing every good kind and coloring, floral, conventional, border, spray, foliage, tapestry reproductions, etc.

25c, 30c, 40c, 45c, 60c and 75c yard.

Silkolines, desirable for draperies and for recovering quilts and comforts; many designs—12 1/2c yard.

Printed Bordered Voiles or Scrims; in a nice selection of effects—25c to 35c yard.
Fourth floor, G street.

THE LINEN DEPARTMENT OFFERS

100 Hand-Embroidered White Linen Baby Pillowcases

Complete with a Pure Down Pillow
At the special price of $2.00 each.
A very exceptional value.

Second floor, Eleventh street.

Our Special Lawn Mowers At Greatly Reduced Prices.

Seldom is it possible to get such a staple article as a Lawn Mower at a reduced price, but we have decided to offer our remaining stock for clearance—and at very low prices.

These Mowers are built on the draw-cut principle. They draw the grass firmly against a fixed cutting knife, which is self-sharpening. These Mowers cut your grass smoothly and with the least labor.

10-inch size, was $2.25.....now $1.90
12-inch size, was $2.75.....now $2.15
14-inch size, was $3.25.....now $2.70
16-inch size, was $3.75.....now $2.90

Fifth floor, F street.

Fruit Jars That We Can Guarantee for Quality.

Quality in the glass—quality in the making—quality in the practicality of style; at the most moderate prices.

Atlas Strong Shoulder Mason Jars.

Pint size, 50c doz.
Quart size, 60c doz.
1/2 gal. size, 75c doz.

Queen White Glass Fruit Jars, Glass Tops.

Quart size, 85c doz.

Atlas E. Z. Seal Glass-covered Jars.

Pint size, 60c and 75c doz.
Quart size, 85c doz.
1/2 gal. size, $1.15 doz.

King White Glass Fruit Jars, Glass Tops.

Pint size, 75c doz.
Quart size, 85c dozen.

Atlas Special Wide-mouth Mason Jars.

Pint size, 65c dozen.
Quart size, 75c doz.

Jelly Glasses, 20c, 25c & 30c doz.

Jar Rubbers, 5c and 10c doz.
Jar Caps, 15c and 20c doz.

Summer China and Glassware.

Dinnerware in open-stock patterns, made of the best American porcelain. The convenience of open stock has been demonstrated many times. The economy of this method of buying dinnerware is well known—you buy only the pieces you need, replacing and adding to at will.

Excellent selections in 100-piece sets are offered at $6.75, $7.00 and $10.00.
Individual Pieces at Proportionate Prices.

Colonial Glass—This worthy reproduction of our forefathers' excellent taste and regard for sturdy durability in glassware is still increasing in favor. We have complete assortments.

Colonial Ice Tea Glasses, 85c to $1.35 dozen.
Colonial Pitchers, 15c to 65c.

Fifth floor, G street.

Sale of Lawn Swings, $3.95.

A regular $6.00 Swing, from our own stock, made of selected wood and painted red and green.

4-PASSENGER SIZE.
Fourth floor, F street.

Woodward & Lothrop.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

German Ambassador in New York After a Short Motor Trip.

Miss Cannon Entertains at Tea. Weddings—Vacation Plans. Personals.

The German ambassador arrived in New York last night after a short motor trip through the Adirondacks.

Miss Helen Cannon, who has been spending the past few weeks at Bretton Woods, entertained at a tea yesterday at the Mount Washington Hotel.

The Austrian ambassador and Mme. Dumba, who have been touring in the White mountains, are expected to return to their summer home at Lenox today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond are to entertain all the governors of the states who go to Boston for the national conference, at Lookout Hill, their place at Beverly, August 25.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis C. Lehr of this city, who have been occupying Montmorency, their estate in the Worthington valley, are touring in the north in their motor car. They expect to be absent several weeks.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. William Russell White arrived here yesterday after a six-week trip through the White mountains, the Berkshires and the great lakes.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Capron of Newport and their niece, Miss Helen Burkart of this city, sailed Saturday for St. Johns, Newfoundland, to be gone until September 1.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Elliott of Ruxton for the marriage of their daughter, Miss May Poulter Elliott, and Lieut. Walter S. Sturgill of the 5th Field Artillery, United States Army, Saturday evening, September 4, at 6 o'clock, at Cloverleaf, the country home of Miss Elliott's grandmother, Mrs. Thomas P. Handy, at Lake station.

Mr. H. H. Flather is at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Frank F. Greenwalt returned from Cape May Sunday because of the sudden death of her brother, Mr. Andrew A. Lipscomb, on that day. Mrs. Greenwalt will go north after the funeral.

Miss Katherine Knight has as her guest at the naval station at Newport Miss Adele MacGruder of Washington.

Prince Hohenlohe of the Austrian embassy has gone to Hamilton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Parker, Jr., are spending a few days in New York city.

Miss Narcissa Smith, who has been the guest of Mrs. Samuel T. Earle, in the Green Spring valley, returned today to her home in this city.

Mrs. William Bowie of this city is the guest of Mrs. William S. Powell at her home at Elliott city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Glover gave a dinner last night at their cottage at Bar Harbor.

Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith and Miss Nellie Hoke Smith are at the place at Warrenton for the remainder of the season.

Miss D. M. Dudley, daughter of Mrs. Hugh Miller Dudley of Washington, Va., and Mr. John K. Hutton of Suffolk, Va., were married yesterday afternoon at the Raleigh Hotel. Rev. Dr. Forrest J. Prettymann, chaplain of the United States Senate and pastor of Mount Pleasant Southern Methodist Church, performed the ceremony, which took place in the presence of many guests. Among those present were Mrs. H. M. Dudley and L. H. Dudley, mother and brother of the bride; Judge C. E. Nicol and daughter, Miss Julia Nicol, of Leesylvania, Va.; Miss Rena Williams of Richmond, Va.; Mr. A. T. Holtzman of this city, and W. J. Kendrick of Suffolk, Va.

Miss Catherine M. Viehmann and Emily I. Kramer have left Washington for an extended trip north. They will be gone about a month, and will away from their homes in Kennebunkport, Boston and neighboring resorts. On their return home, Miss Viehmann will visit New York, where she will be the maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Marguerite Muncy and Mr. Malcolm McGregor.

Mrs. G. Erlebacher left New York Sunday for the coast of Mexico and Canada with Miss Beatrice Weis of Baltimore.

Mr. Joseph Norman has returned after a trip through the New England states and a stay at Winthrop Beach, Mass.

Mr. Michael Harris, who has been visiting relatives at Goswicket, R. and Montreal, Canada, is now at Old Orchard, Me. Before returning to the city, Mr. Harris will join several of his college friends and spend about ten days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. C. T. M. Cutchon is spending the summer at Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

Mrs. Irene B. Carroll of 1909 35th street northwest is visiting her mother at Richmond, Va., for a two-week stay.

Mrs. Joseph A. Bohn and daughters, the Misses Eva and May Bohn of 215 D street northwest, have returned from a trip to Old Point, Virginia Beach and Norfolk, Va. During their stay at the latter place they were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hartman.

Dr. H. C. Duffy and daughter have returned to the city after a two-week automobile trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Alton Connolly are in New York for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Geddes of Columbia road have returned from Ocean City, Md.

Among the debutantes who will be presented to society in Philadelphia next season is Miss Margaretta Wyatt Clippam, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence W. Bispham and granddaughter of the late Rear Admiral Silas Casey, U. S. N.

Miss Emily List, daughter of Mrs. C. F. List, and Mr. Harold E. Thury of Indianapolis were married yesterday afternoon at St. Thomas Church. Rev. Joseph Williams performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of the two families and a few friends. The church was decorated with pink hydrangeas and gladiolus, palms and ferns. The bride wore a gown of white lace with a pink tulle hat and carried a bouquet of bride roses. There were no attendants. A breakfast followed at the apartment of the bride's mother in the Parkwood, and later Mr. and Mrs. Thury left for their wedding trip. They will make their future home in Indianapolis.

Miss Evelyn Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bailey, 560 14th street southeast, has returned from a six-week motoring trip through the north.

BRIDE OF YESTERDAY.

MRS. EDWARD SCHRAMM. Who was Miss Gladys Anne Ord.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following: Douglas C. Eaton and Edith L. Fletcher, both of Richmond, Va.; Jacques L. Spiegelblatt of this city and Edith Sherman of New York city, N. Y.; Nathaniel I. Magruder and Blanche B. Lee; Abraham Hawkins and Grace E. McKenney, both of Petersburg, Va.; John Rideout of this city and Sarah R. White of Winchester, Va.; John H. Doman and Mabel E. McInturf; Joseph S. Freehand of Calvert county, Md., and Maggie M. Hawkins of this city; George W. Maxwell and Beulah L. Martin, both of Richmond, Va.; William A. Newton and Sarah C. Peters; Archie J. Cameron and Katherine A. Reynolds.

Births Reported.

The following births have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-four hours: Nathan and Jennie Sisco, girl; Edward L. and Mary E. Smead, boy; Michele and Eugenia Ricucci, girl; William J. and Beatrice Peters, boy; Vito and Maria Piscetta, boy; Girolamo and Stefania Pellerito, boy; Antonino and Vincenzina Pirrone, boy; William H. and Caroline R. Matthews, boy; Columbus W. and Cora L. Henry, girl; Percival T. and Helen E. Harrison, boy; Alfred J. and Edith L. Elmore, girl; Robert J. and Lucy H. Berry, boy; Louis J. and Florence E. Bender, girl; Alphonza and Maude White, girl; Harry and Emma Thib, girl; Daniel and Elizabeth Harris, boy; Ezekiel and Jessie Fowler, girl; Beulah and Katie Bell, boy; John and Blanche Brooks, boy.

Deaths Reported.

The following deaths have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-four hours: Andrew Agate Lipscomb, 63 years, 1646 Newton street northwest; Juliana Gaskins, 74 years, Emergency Hospital; John L. Travers, 58 years, Georgetown Hospital; Alexandria Ginst, 42 years, George Washington Hospital; Francis Bretzfelder, 80 years, 1635 2d street northwest; Catherine M. Lorch, 66 years, Government Hospital insane; Edward Dixon, 79 years, 922 6th street southwest; Mary E. Martin, 76 years, 701 C street southwest; Joseph Johnson, 72 years, H and 22d streets northeast; Margaret E. Courtney, 47 years, 223 12th street northwest; Georgia E. Farrell, 3 months, 316 Mechanic street southeast; Mildred Coursen, 2 1/2 months, 1229 W street; Ophelia Harris, 78 years, 1931 1st street southwest; Mary Goff, 16 years, 53 N street southeast; Dorothy Burroughs, 68 years, H and 3rd streets northeast; Truman Carter, 59 years, Providence Hospital; William Jones, 37 years, 60 Jackson alley northwest; Katharine C. Jordan, 48 years, near Queen Cafe, 7th and G streets northeast; Gilliam Henderson, 59 years, Freedmen's Hospital; Clara Hopkins, 64 years, 49 Massachusetts avenue; Robert C. Jordan, 63 years, Government Hospital insane; Ida Thompson, 34 years, 1424 Florida avenue northeast; Amelia McElrierty, 31 years, 1806 New Jersey avenue northwest; Vivian Smith, 3 months, 2093 8th street northwest.

SECRETARY TO REVIEW FLEET.

Mr. Daniels Will Watch Warships With State Executives at Boston. BOSTON, August 17.—An assurance from Secretary of the Navy Daniels that he would be in Boston August 25 and review the battleship fleet off Boston light with the state executives in attendance upon the conference of governors has been received by Gov. Walsh. Mrs. Daniels will accompany her husband here.

is the second number of the program, "Arab," also travel pictures. Thursday, William S. Hart in "The Darkening Trail" and Cleo Madison in "A Woman's Debt." Friday, Viola Allen and Richard Travers in "The White Sister." Saturday, Mary Pickford in "The Dawn of Tomorrow," also "Nellie, the Bride of the Firehouse." Sunday, "The Earl of Pawtucket"; also "The Source of Happiness."

Cosmos. Cosmos audiences this week are having a taste of big-time vaudeville in the Moskovia Balalaika Orchestra, with Mlle. Olga and M. Nicolai in interpretive dances numbers of grace and beauty, especially those of Mlle. Olga. The orchestra this time contains a number of mandolins and a harp with the balalaikas. The performers play with precision and artistic effect, and "The Volga Boatman's Song" is played with an impressive appeal. Other selections include "The March Concourse," Schubert's "Moments Musical," the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "The Waltz," "Love Waltz" and "La Sorella," a terpsichorean number. The other numbers of the bill are in keeping with the stellar attraction, and especially the modern dance features of Ross and Moon, which are novel and artistic throughout. The simplicity of their style have some novel dance numbers with songs. The bill opens with a difficult and interesting water juggling act by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds. An acrobatic number is offered by the Clary Dancers. The added attractions include the Hearst-Selig news pictures of events throughout the world, and a play by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds. An acrobatic number is offered by the Clary Dancers. The added attractions include the Hearst-Selig news pictures of events throughout the world, and a play by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds.

Electrical Demonstration. Transrom is giving a novel electrical exhibition each night this week, with the exception of Friday and Sunday, in a specially prepared park in Takoma Park. Lighting two dozen Mazda lamps from a wire, one of which is controlled by Charles Glocker, and closing with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds. An acrobatic number is offered by the Clary Dancers. The added attractions include the Hearst-Selig news pictures of events throughout the world, and a play by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds.

Film Features. Columbia. A photoplay of the Castle-Pollock book and play, "The Secret Orchard," picturing Blanche Sweet in the role of Diane, daughter of a Paris courtesan, is being shown at the Columbia Theater the first half of this week.

The film tells the story of Diane, who has been placed in a convent by her mother. A prologue shows the artificial gawdy of the mother's life, in contrast to the sweet simplicity of her daughter's life at the convent. Then comes the fifteen-year-old Diane's first vacation, spent with peasant friends at Narbonne. Diane, ignorant of the "ways of the world," meets the Duke of Cluny. When the duke discovers she has been deceived she returns to the convent. In the meantime the Duchess of Cluny visits a charity ward in a hospital, where she meets the dying mother and promises to adopt the orphaned Diane. The climax of the picture comes when the duke and his wife's new ward meet at the chateau. Then enters a young American, who falls in love with Diane, who later reveals to him the perfidy of the duke, whereupon the young American challenges the duke to a duel and kills him. Diane promises her sweetheart, "Perhaps some day."

Elsie Janis will be pictured in "Nearly a Lady," beginning Thursday.

Crandall's. The film production of George Ohnet's novel, "Dr. Rameau," pictures among its many characters roles filled by three actors well known in Washington stock company work, Graham Vail, Dorothy Bernard and Edith Hallor. The Washington favorites are cast in important parts. Frederic Perry is seen in a leading role. The film is one foot after another of exciting action, and is making a hit with Crandall audiences.

A production of Nat Goodwin is to be shown at the theater, beginning Thursday, in "The Master Hand," in which comedy and drama are interwoven.

SAVOY—Today, Henry Aivley in "Brother Officers," a drama of love and war; tomorrow, William Faversham in the five-act drama, "The Right of Way," also Pathe news, No. 63; Thursday, Renie Javis in the drama of mountain love, "Sunday," five reels; Saturday, Irene Fenwick in a drama of today, "The Spendthrift," with Cyril Knightly, also Paramount travel series, No. 15; Sunday, Robert Warwick in "The Stolen Voice," also Pathe news, No. 64.

PENN GARDEN—Today, "Don Caesar de Soto" in five acts; also "Country Blood," comedy drama, in two acts. Tomorrow—Mme. Olga Petrova, in "The Tiger," a five-reel comedy; Thursday—"Eyes That See Not," in three acts, also "The Law of Love," in two acts, and "Bible's Dilemma," Friday—Emmet Corrigan, in "Greater Love Hath No Man," in five acts; also comedy, Saturday—Hollbrook's "Blind and Alone" in five acts; also comedy, Sunday—Mary Nash, in "The Unbroken Road," in five acts; also Pathe weekly.

CIRCLE—Today, "Midnight at Maxims" and Sidney Drew in "The Moonlight Bar," also cartoons in laundry.

Gayety. "The Bostonians," presented by Charles H. Waldron, with Frank Filly, comedian, heading the bill, inaugurated the burlesque season in Washington yesterday afternoon at the Gayety Theater. A large audience was in attendance when the orchestra opened the program yesterday afternoon with a selection. A hearty welcome was tendered the company while Harry Jarboe, the new manager of the popular playhouse, was also extended a greeting by his many friends.

The interior as well as the exterior has been redecorated since the close of last season. The program announces the opening performance to be a colorful collection of beauty, youth and talent. There are new songs, jokes and music. Never for a minute from the opening of the performance until its close does the humor lag. The "piece" is of three acts. The first is a depot scene, in which Poney, impersonating a colored "information bureau," furnishes the comedy, assisted by Charles Jansen, as Izzy A. Gote, a train caller. The opening number closes with "making movies," in which several members of the company illustrate how a moving picture production is made.

"Sweeney's speech," a political satire.

Special Film Features.

SAVOY—Today, Henry Aivley in "Brother Officers," a drama of love and war; tomorrow, William Faversham in the five-act drama, "The Right of Way," also Pathe news, No. 63; Thursday, Renie Javis in the drama of mountain love, "Sunday," five reels; Saturday, Irene Fenwick in a drama of today, "The Spendthrift," with Cyril Knightly, also Paramount travel series, No. 15; Sunday, Robert Warwick in "The Stolen Voice," also Pathe news, No. 64.

PENN GARDEN—Today, "Don Caesar de Soto" in five acts; also "Country Blood," comedy drama, in two acts. Tomorrow—Mme. Olga Petrova, in "The Tiger," a five-reel comedy; Thursday—"Eyes That See Not," in three acts, also "The Law of Love," in two acts, and "Bible's Dilemma," Friday—Emmet Corrigan, in "Greater Love Hath No Man," in five acts; also comedy, Saturday—Hollbrook's "Blind and Alone" in five acts; also comedy, Sunday—Mary Nash, in "The Unbroken Road," in five acts; also Pathe weekly.

CIRCLE—Today, "Midnight at Maxims" and Sidney Drew in "The Moonlight Bar," also cartoons in laundry.

Gayety. "The Bostonians," presented by Charles H. Waldron, with Frank Filly, comedian, heading the bill, inaugurated the burlesque season in Washington yesterday afternoon at the Gayety Theater. A large audience was in attendance when the orchestra opened the program yesterday afternoon with a selection. A hearty welcome was tendered the company while Harry Jarboe, the new manager of the popular playhouse, was also extended a greeting by his many friends.

The interior as well as the exterior has been redecorated since the close of last season. The program announces the opening performance to be a colorful collection of beauty, youth and talent. There are new songs, jokes and music. Never for a minute from the opening of the performance until its close does the humor lag. The "piece" is of three acts. The first is a depot scene, in which Poney, impersonating a colored "information bureau," furnishes the comedy, assisted by Charles Jansen, as Izzy A. Gote, a train caller. The opening number closes with "making movies," in which several members of the company illustrate how a moving picture production is made.

"Sweeney's speech," a political satire.

Special Film Features.

SAVOY—Today, Henry Aivley in "Brother Officers," a drama of love and war; tomorrow, William Faversham in the five-act drama, "The Right of Way," also Pathe news, No. 63; Thursday, Renie Javis in the drama of mountain love, "Sunday," five reels; Saturday, Irene Fenwick in a drama of today, "The Spendthrift," with Cyril Knightly, also Paramount travel series, No. 15; Sunday, Robert Warwick in "The Stolen Voice," also Pathe news, No. 64.

PENN GARDEN—Today, "Don Caesar de Soto" in five acts; also "Country Blood," comedy drama, in two acts. Tomorrow—Mme. Olga Petrova, in "The Tiger," a five-reel comedy; Thursday—"Eyes That See Not," in three acts, also "The Law of Love," in two acts, and "Bible's Dilemma," Friday—Emmet Corrigan, in "Greater Love Hath No Man," in five acts; also comedy, Saturday—Hollbrook's "Blind and Alone" in five acts; also comedy, Sunday—Mary Nash, in "The Unbroken Road," in five acts; also Pathe weekly.

CIRCLE—Today, "Midnight at Maxims" and Sidney Drew in "The Moonlight Bar," also cartoons in laundry.

Gayety. "The Bostonians," presented by Charles H. Waldron, with Frank Filly, comedian, heading the bill, inaugurated the burlesque season in Washington yesterday afternoon at the Gayety Theater. A large audience was in attendance when the orchestra opened the program yesterday afternoon with a selection. A hearty welcome was tendered the company while Harry Jarboe, the new manager of the popular playhouse, was also extended a greeting by his many friends.

The interior as well as the exterior has been redecorated since the close of last season. The program announces the opening performance to be a colorful collection of beauty, youth and talent. There are new songs, jokes and music. Never for a minute from the opening of the performance until its close does the humor lag. The "piece" is of three acts. The first is a depot scene, in which Poney, impersonating a colored "information bureau," furnishes the comedy, assisted by Charles Jansen, as Izzy A. Gote, a train caller. The opening number closes with "making movies," in which several members of the company illustrate how a moving picture production is made.

"Sweeney's speech," a political satire.

Special Film Features.

SAVOY—Today, Henry Aivley in "Brother Officers," a drama of love and war; tomorrow, William Faversham in the five-act drama, "The Right of Way," also Pathe news, No. 63; Thursday, Renie Javis in the drama of mountain love, "Sunday," five reels; Saturday, Irene Fenwick in a drama of today, "The Spendthrift," with Cyril Knightly, also Paramount travel series, No. 15; Sunday, Robert Warwick in "The Stolen Voice," also Pathe news, No. 64.

PENN GARDEN—Today, "Don Caesar de Soto" in five acts; also "Country Blood," comedy drama, in two acts. Tomorrow—Mme. Olga Petrova, in "The Tiger," a five-reel comedy; Thursday—"Eyes That See Not," in three acts, also "The Law of Love," in two acts, and "Bible's Dilemma," Friday—Emmet Corrigan, in "Greater Love Hath No Man," in five acts; also comedy, Saturday—Hollbrook's "Blind and Alone" in five acts; also comedy, Sunday—Mary Nash, in "The Unbroken Road," in five acts; also Pathe weekly.

CIRCLE—Today, "Midnight at Maxims" and Sidney Drew in "The Moonlight Bar," also cartoons in laundry.

Gayety. "The Bostonians," presented by Charles H. Waldron, with Frank Filly, comedian, heading the bill, inaugurated the burlesque season in Washington yesterday afternoon at the Gayety Theater. A large audience was in attendance when the orchestra opened the program yesterday afternoon with a selection. A hearty welcome was tendered the company while Harry Jarboe, the new manager of the popular playhouse, was also extended a greeting by his many friends.

The interior as well as the exterior has been redecorated since the close of last season. The program announces the opening performance to be a colorful collection of beauty, youth and talent. There are new songs, jokes and music. Never for a minute from the opening of the performance until its close does the humor lag. The "piece" is of three acts. The first is a depot scene, in which Poney, impersonating a colored "information bureau," furnishes the comedy, assisted by Charles Jansen, as Izzy A. Gote, a train caller. The opening number closes with "making movies," in which several members of the company illustrate how a moving picture production is made.

Tomorrow, Edgar Selwyn in "The Arab," also travel pictures. Thursday, William S. Hart in "The Darkening Trail" and Cleo Madison in "A Woman's Debt." Friday, Viola Allen and Richard Travers in "The White Sister." Saturday, Mary Pickford in "The Dawn of Tomorrow," also "Nellie, the Bride of the Firehouse." Sunday, "The Earl of Pawtucket"; also "The Source of Happiness."

Cosmos. Cosmos audiences this week are having a taste of big-time vaudeville in the Moskovia Balalaika Orchestra, with Mlle. Olga and M. Nicolai in interpretive dances numbers of grace and beauty, especially those of Mlle. Olga. The orchestra this time contains a number of mandolins and a harp with the balalaikas. The performers play with precision and artistic effect, and "The Volga Boatman's Song" is played with an impressive appeal. Other selections include "The March Concourse," Schubert's "Moments Musical," the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "The Waltz," "Love Waltz" and "La Sorella," a terpsichorean number. The other numbers of the bill are in keeping with the stellar attraction, and especially the modern dance features of Ross and Moon, which are novel and artistic throughout. The simplicity of their style have some novel dance numbers with songs. The bill opens with a difficult and interesting water juggling act by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds. An acrobatic number is offered by the Clary Dancers. The added attractions include the Hearst-Selig news pictures of events throughout the world, and a play by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds.

Electrical Demonstration. Transrom is giving a novel electrical exhibition each night this week, with the exception of Friday and Sunday, in a specially prepared park in Takoma Park. Lighting two dozen Mazda lamps from a wire, one of which is controlled by Charles Glocker, and closing with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds. An acrobatic number is offered by the Clary Dancers. The added attractions include the Hearst-Selig news pictures of events throughout the world, and a play by Charles Glocker, and closes with a tramp monologue and songs by Jack Symonds.

Film Features. Columbia. A photoplay of the Castle-Pollock book and play, "The Secret Orchard," picturing Blanche Sweet in the role of Diane, daughter of a Paris courtesan, is being shown at the Columbia Theater the first half of this week.

The film tells the story of Diane, who has been placed in a convent by her mother. A prologue shows the artificial gawdy of the mother's life, in contrast to the sweet simplicity of her daughter's life at the convent. Then comes the fifteen-year-old Diane's first vacation, spent with peasant friends at Narbonne. Diane, ignorant of the "ways of the world," meets the Duke of Cluny. When the duke discovers she has been deceived she returns to the convent. In the meantime the Duchess of Cluny visits a charity ward in a hospital, where she meets the dying mother and promises to adopt the orphaned Diane. The climax of the picture comes when the duke and his wife's new ward meet at the chateau. Then enters a young American, who falls in love with Diane, who later reveals to him the perfidy of the duke, whereupon the young American challenges the duke to a duel and kills him. Diane promises her sweetheart, "Perhaps some day."

Elsie Janis will be pictured in "Nearly a Lady," beginning Thursday.

Crandall's. The film production of George Ohnet's novel, "Dr. Rameau," pictures among its many characters roles filled by three actors well known in Washington stock company work, Graham Vail, Dorothy Bernard and Edith Hallor. The Washington favorites are cast in important parts. Frederic Perry is seen in a leading role. The film is one foot after another of exciting action, and is making a hit with Crandall audiences.

A production of Nat Goodwin is to be shown at the theater, beginning Thursday, in "The Master Hand," in which comedy and drama are interwoven.

SAVOY—Today, Henry Aivley in "Brother Officers," a drama of love and war; tomorrow, William Faversham in the five-act drama, "The Right of Way," also Pathe news, No. 63; Thursday, Renie Javis in the drama of mountain love, "Sunday," five reels; Saturday, Irene Fenwick in a drama of today, "The Spendthrift," with Cyril Knightly, also Paramount travel series, No. 15; Sunday, Robert Warwick in "The Stolen Voice," also Pathe news, No. 64.

PENN GARDEN—Today, "Don Caesar de Soto" in five acts; also "Country Blood," comedy drama, in two acts. Tomorrow—Mme. Olga Petrova, in "The Tiger," a five-reel comedy; Thursday—"Eyes That See Not," in three acts, also "The Law of Love," in two acts, and "Bible's Dilemma," Friday—Emmet Corrigan, in "Greater