

GERMANY PLANS TO ANNEX POLAND

Teutonic Newspapers So Interpret Speech of Imperial Chancellor.

CRITICISED FOR TELLING GOVERNMENT'S POLICIES

One Journal Says Conclusion of Peace May Be Retarded—New Europe Is Seen.

BERLIN, August 21.—German newspapers with a few exceptions, comment exhaustively on the speech in the reichstag of the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethman-Hollweg, attaching particular importance to his remarks concerning Poland. The general opinion set forth in the press is that the government contemplates annexation of Russian Poland, which meets with almost universal approval. Editorial comment, although dealing frankly with this subject, is restricted to some extent by the prohibition of the discussion of annexation—a prohibition promulgated by the chancellor himself, and in the opinion of some newspapers, overstepped by him. The Taegliche Rundschau says that "Poland will be freed finally from the Russian yoke, and guaranteed a more fortunate future." The Poles, this newspaper says, will be independent, "or nearly so."

One Paper Grows Critical.

The Taegliche Rundschau ventures to become critical, however, and questions whether an independent Poland, under German sovereignty, would not be a menace to Germany, and whether the chancellor, in bringing up the discussion of annexation, has not retarded the conclusion of peace by bringing home to Russia realization that its richest industrial province may be lost. The Kreuzzeitung asserts the chancellor's speech was not sufficiently definite, thereby holding out hopes which may have the most important consequences. The Nachrichten of Dresden draws the conclusion from the chancellor's speech that the government does not intend to permit Poland again to be under Russian control.

Lifts Veil as to War's Purpose.

The Tageblatt of Leipzig says: "The world now knows how we became involved in this war, and we have learned for the first time whether we are headed for a peace which will be the result of the efforts of ourselves and our allies, or whether we are headed for the weakening of Prussia to the east. The chancellor's words 'Ourland freed' will be greeted joyfully by hundreds of thousands." The Nachrichten of Leipzig expressed the belief that the military achievements of Germany thus far are not sufficient to warrant the chancellor's utterances, but approves the revelation of the government's intention.

Cites Friendly Attitude.

The Germania of Berlin says the chancellor's remarks show that the attitude of Germany toward Poland is friendly, but indicates an alteration of Prussian policies. The Tageblatt of Berlin says: "A certain goal is clearly to be seen in the chancellor's words. A new Europe, a new order of things, must result, which will make impossible the encircling of Germany, any breaking of her circuit in the future. The basis, therefore, is, in the chancellor's opinion, the extension and strengthening of the German empire, and in this purpose all Germans will agree with him. The means to its attainment can be discussed only when the proper time arrives. The more effective our armies in Poland are the sooner that time will arrive."

Passports Are Required.

Americans Not Permitted to Visit Newfoundland Without Them.

The Department of State is in receipt of a dispatch from the United States consul at Sydney, Nova Scotia, in which he mentions the recent regulations of the Newfoundland government requiring passports of persons entering Newfoundland. He says that "these regulations not being generally known are causing delay, trouble and financial loss to American commercial salesmen who, on reaching Sydney, cannot proceed to Newfoundland." The department has already endeavored to notify the public through the press and otherwise that, although passports are not required in Canada, they are required in Newfoundland. American citizens who contemplate visiting Newfoundland are enjoined to be careful to apply to the department for passports before leaving this country. Those who have already reached Canada on their way to Newfoundland may make their applications to the nearest American consuls.

Accused of False Pretenses.

John R. Clark, sixty-eight years old, 1321 25th street northwest, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police of the seventh precinct and charged with false pretenses, on complaint of Morris S. Sheshmer, 221 M street. His collateral was fixed at $30.

NEW FEATURES PLANNED FOR FAIR AT ROCKVILLE

Exhibition to Open Tuesday and Continue Until Friday—Twenty Races Scheduled.

Special Correspondence of The Star. ROCKVILLE, Md., August 21.—Everything is in tip-top shape for the sixty-second annual exhibition of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society, which will be held here Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Among the new features to be tried is an automobile parade. This will take place Thursday morning around the race track and several hundred Maryland and District of Columbia machines are expected to participate. Handsome prizes will be awarded the owners of the most prettily decorated cars.

Drills by Boy Scouts.

Drills by Boy Scouts of Washington and Montgomery county public school girls, exhibits of canning clubs recently organized in this county among the public school girls, a baby show and demonstrations by government experts of the most approved methods of canning fruits and vegetables will also be other features.

A baby show will be held Wednesday. It will not be for the first time. The prettiest baby, but will be an eugenic contest, and the finest from that standpoint will be awarded a prize.

In addition to the new features, many attractions heretofore seen at the fair will be provided, including a merry-go-round, slideshows, fakers free exhibitions in front of the grandstand.

The race committee, which consists of Lee Offutt, Charles Veirs, Charles W. Fields, David H. Warfield and N. J. Ward, has hung up purses aggregating $4,700.

Racing Schedule.

The program includes twenty races—eleven harness and nine running events, the purses aggregating $2,850 and $850, respectively. The big race of the opening day will be a four-year-old trotting stake for Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia horses. Six high-class performers will compete for the $500 purse offered. Two running events are also listed for the first day.

The two-year-old trotting stake for Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia is the first number on the program for Wednesday. This, too, is for a purse of $500, and the entries for this event also number six. The 2:24 trot, 2:18 pace, each for a purse of $400, and a six-furlong run and half-mile pony race are also on the program for Wednesday.

The program for Thursday consists of five harness—2:25 pace, 2:20 trot, each for a purse of $400; the 2:30 trot for a purse of $300, a roadster contest, for a purse of $100, and a ladies' race, purse, $50—and two running events. The runs are at four furlongs and repeat, for a purse of $125, and a six-furlong dash for a purse of $100.

The three-year-old stake race for Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia horses is scheduled for the closing day. In addition, there will be the county trot or pace purse, and a six-furlong run and consolation run, each for a purse of $100.

Officers in Charge.

Practically the same officials who have managed the fairs of the last few years are in charge again this year. They are: President, Lee Offutt; vice president, Charles F. Kirk; secretary, James T. Bogley; treasurer, John J. Higgins; directors, Lee Offutt, Josiah W. Jones, Charles F. Kirk, Charles Veirs, William K. Jones, Charles W. Fields, David H. Warfield, William H. Fawcett, William B. Truller, Ferris E. Waters, John B. Diamond, Jr., and N. J. Ward.

SONS OF VETERANS PLAN ENCAMPMENT

Commander G. F. Miller, Maryland Division, Made Member of General Committee.

At the meeting last evening of the general committee on arrangements, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., for the thirty-fourth annual encampment in Washington, George F. Miller, commander of the Maryland Division and a member of Garfield Camp of Baltimore, addressed the meeting and endorsed the plans outlined by the general committee.

Commander Miller was made an honorary member of the general committee. He will keep in close touch with its plans, being in Washington most of his time until the encampment meets. The chairman of the general committee, George W. Sellers, stated that the Sons of Veterans, which includes William B. Cushing, Camp No. 30, Lincoln Camp, No. 2, and Gen. Thomas Camp, No. 11, will be appointed upon the public order committee of the Grand Army encampment citizens' committee.

Finance Committee Personnel.

The chairman of the finance committee, J. Clinton Hiatt, appointed Maj. E. R. Campbell, past national commander, and Siles E. Robb, past division commander, as additional members of the committee. It is the intention of the Sons of Veterans to raise sufficient funds without soliciting subscriptions from the citizens. Plans have been adopted which it is expected will secure the necessary funds.

The chairman of the program committee, Everett F. Warner, has appointed G. Sydney Hill an additional member of the committee. George E. Beckman and O. A. C. Oehneler, were appointed to arrange for the decorating of the building occupied as committee headquarters, 1229 G street northwest, with bunting and American flags during the encampment. A flag is already being displayed at the committee headquarters, and a streamer will soon be added with the proper insignia of the Sons of Veterans thereon.

Outing to Colonial Beach.

A program of entertainment will be arranged for the amusement of those who go on the Sons of Veterans' outing to Colonial Beach, Thursday, September 2. William S. Crown, chairman of the music committee, reported that an orchestra will be on the boat going to and from the beach. Also the boys' drum corps, made up of grandsons and great-grandsons of Grand Army veterans, will probably go along to entertain the occasion.

Attending Lincoln Jubilee.

CHICAGO, August 21. Delegates from nearly every state in the Union arrived in Chicago today to attend the Lincoln jubilee and exposition marking the half century of negro freedom, which will open here tomorrow under the auspices of a commission appointed by Gov. Dunne of Illinois. The Illinois legislature appropriated $75,000 for the exposition, and nineteen other states appropriated various sums.

"WILLIAM AND MARY PERIOD DINING SUITE" EVERY line of this splendid old suite shows the Dutch influence of William and Mary on English furniture. It is sturdy, possessed of a certain heavy grace, typical of the period, and is imposing in its great proportions. Although the straight lines predominate, the legs are the characteristic turned members, but the underframing is in simple, plain lines. This suite is shown in quartered oak, with the characteristic dark brown rubbed finish. The buffet has cane panels in antique finish and the chairs are upholstered in brown leather. The striking individuality of this suite and its historical value make it a furnishing of distinctive charm for any room. Buffet, $37.50; China Case, $29.50; Server, $16.50; Table, $22.75; Chair, $4.50; Arm, $7.50
