STAR SPANGLED BANNER CENTENNIAL CELEBRATED

Mrs. Newton Ferree Presents Standard of Colors to John R. Rawlins Post, No. 1.

The one hundredth anniversary of the writing of "The Star Spangled Banner" was celebrated Saturday night by the presentation of a "standard of colors," the gift of Mrs. Newton Ferree, to the John A. Rawlins Post, No. 1, of the local department of the G. A. R., at its regular meeting. Mrs. Ferree's husband, Col. Newton Ferree, is the oldest member of the post in point of continuous membership.

The presentation of the flag was made by Capt. Sheehan Perree, son of the donor, a soldier of the Spanish-American war, who has recently been appointed national patriotic instructor of the United Spanish War Veterans.

Col. E. W. Whitaker, who, as chief of staff of Gen. Custer, received the flag of truce at the surrender of Gen. Lee at Appomattox, accepted the flag on behalf of the post. He paid high tribute to Mrs. Ferree, and to her long-continued patriotic work.

Many visiting comrades attended the presentation, and joined in the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," which concluded the formal exercises.

ROPE CLUE IS UNAVAILING.

Maj. Wooten was among those to respond to the fire call. He took personal charge of the investigation and conferred with Detective Messer yesterday morning until long after 4 o'clock. The finding of a piece of rope dangling from the upper floor of the burning stable suggested that the incendiary had used it in making his escape after applying the torch, but it developed that numerous inquiries left dangling from the loft by one of the workers who had used it to hold pieces of harness that were polished Saturday afternoon.

LAUDS MEN WHO FOUGHT ON BOTH SIDES, CIVIL WAR

Rev. John MacMurray Also Discusses the "Third Invasion" of the United States.

After paying tribute to the men who fought both for the north and the south in the civil war, Rev. John MacMurray, at the Union M. E. Church, last night declared that America is undergoing a third invasion.

"The third invasion is now on," said the speaker. "An invasion amounting to almost a million foreigners every year—a vast army of conquest. For colonization may be more successful as a method of conquest of a nation than any other."

"After a service in the open air of an hour, which apparently was enjoyed by every one, nearly half of the original number partook in a two-mile walk to the American University, via Jewett and Tunlaw roads and Nebraska avenue to Wisconsin avenue, ending this part of the walk about 6:15.

"On account of the fullness of the week during the convention no mid-week walk has been scheduled. Next Sunday John Boyle, jr., chief wanderluster, will lead from 15th and H streets northeast, starting at 2:45 o'clock."

C. V. Etzler Chosen President.

The Young People's Society of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Anacostia, has elected officers as follows: President, Charles V. Etzler; vice president, Miss Irene Harding; secretary, Miss Anna Harding; treasurer, Raymond Eno.

Washington Hikers TAKE TWO-MILE WALK

Also Attend Open-Air Services at Mount St. Alban's Cathedral Yesterday Afternoon.

One hundred and fifteen wanderlusters, which included quite a number of new recruits, took advantage of the two-mile walk of yesterday afternoon to St. Alban's Cathedral, where they attended in a body the open-air service planned especially for the G. A. R. veterans. Walter W. Page and C. M. Steggs were the leaders, and were assisted by Harry O'Donnell, Frank Lawson, W. Palmer Hall, Loring C. Wood, J. Hardy, John F. Lederer, Albert Jones, Louis Gielas, Frank Murphy and Paul M. De Hart and Misses Monnah Hord, Millie Humpherson and Effie Koontz as guides.

The "official" account follows: "The walk to the cathedral led from 15th street and Columbia road, across Calvert Street bridge, under the bridge via Cathedral avenue to the Connecticut Avenue bridge, and the western approach of a former bridge spanning Rock creek at this point, but much lower than the present Connecticut avenue structure.

On Well Beaten Trail. "Several hundred yards beyond a well beaten trail was taken up, a small tributary of Rock creek, which, though so close to the city, is one of the few wooded walks to be found anywhere in the District.

"This leads into Woodley lane and then into Cathedral avenue at a point where both roads combine and are one and the same for several blocks. Continuing on Woodley lane, we turned into the private driveway of Senator James H. Brady of Idaho and stopped to take in the wonderful view across Massachusetts Heights and toward the river, which is commanded from this height. About ten minutes' walk brought us to the grounds from which Woodley lane extends, two abreast, and to the dergonsites their centers.

"Very few of us were centered on their, wondering who they could be, and what new order or nationality was represented in the flag of blue, green and brown.

Proceed to American University.

"After a service in the open air of one hour, which apparently was enjoyed by every one, nearly half of the original number partook in a two-mile walk to the American University, via Jewett and Tunlaw roads and Nebraska avenue to Wisconsin avenue, ending this part of the walk about 6:15.

"On account of the fullness of the week during the convention no mid-week walk has been scheduled. Next Sunday John Boyle, jr., chief wanderluster, will lead from 15th and H streets northeast, starting at 2:45 o'clock."

Shipping Destroyed by Europe.

"We had shipping, but Europe destroyed it and now we cannot have a mercantile marine without the consent of some part of Europe. We are permitted to manufacture certain kinds of goods in this country, but others dictate to us where they shall go and in what quantities. In a few years they will be a steamship line across the Pacific flying our flag.

"The Japanese will determine how much space our exports shall have in their vessels. Beyond that we shall not be able to go. Four steamships fly the American flag on the Atlantic."

The AEOLIAN-VOCALION

Here is the newest model of the wonderful Aeolian-Vocalion—the phonograph that is arousing such wide-spread enthusiasm.

It contains the patented Sound Box constructed on novel, scientific lines, and which produces entirely new phonographic tones—rich, deep and mellow.

It contains the patented Symphonic Horn, embodying the most advanced principles of acoustical science. This new horn qualifies the least tendency to the ordinary metallic "phonograph-tone" and preserves the tonal sound-tints that distinguish all different instruments and voices.

It contains the new Automatic Stop—the simplest and most efficient device of its kind yet invented.

The Wonderful Graduola

And it contains the revolutionary tone-control feature called the Graduola—exclusive with the Aeolian-Vocalion. This gives you the additional phonograph privilege of personally varying the music to your mood. Its use is optional; you may let any record play itself if the interpretation suits you. If you wish, however, you can vary it in subtle details just as the artist himself varies each performance.

At its price—$150—this new model of the Aeolian-Vocalion offers marked advantages and musical superiorities over any other phonograph made, irrespective of price.
