

Red Sox World Champions

BOSTON, WITH FOSTER PITCHING, WINS DECIDING GAME OF SERIES, BEATING MAYER AND RIXEY, 5 TO 4

NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, October 13.—By winning their fourth straight game over the Phillies the Boston Red Sox of the American League today earned title to the base ball championship of the world in the fifth contest of the series.

A large floral horseshoe was presented to Grover Cleveland Alexander by admiring friends just before umpire Klem called play. A murmur of surprise went up when Mayer was announced as Philadelphia's pitcher.

THE GAME DESCRIBED PLAY BY PLAY.

First Inning.
Boston—Hooper singled to center on the first ball pitched. Scott flied out to first on an attempted sacrifice. Speaker forced Hooper, first to short.

Philadelphia—Stock was hit by a pitched ball, which nipped him on the shoulder. Bancroft singled to left, Stock going to second.

Paskert bunted safely and the bases were filled. The Boston players made a kick on O'Loughlin's decision at first, which was close. The stands were in an uproar.

Foster took Cravath's grounder and threw to Thomas and Stock was out. Thomas then threw out Cravath at first, completing a double play.

Bancroft and Paskert scored on Luderus' double to left center. Whitted flied out to Speaker. Two runs; three hits.

Second Inning.
Boston—Hoblitzell went out. Luderus to Mayer. Bancroft threw out Lewis at first.

Gardner hit a long three-base hit to right center. The ball bounced nearly to the top of the fence. Six inches higher and Gardner would have had a home run.

Gardner scored on Barry's Texas leaguer to left. Thomas singled to center. Barry going to second.

Foster popped out to Luderus. One run; three hits. Philadelphia—Niehoff fanned on three pitched balls.

Burns sent up a high one to Gardner. Mayer fanned. No runs; no hits.

Third Inning.
Boston—Hooper got a home run into the centerfield bleachers. Scott flied out to Paskert. Speaker shot a hot single to right. On the Boston grounds it would have been a three-base hit or a home run.

Boston's hitting was too much for Mayer and Capt. Luderus replaced him with the left-hander, Kixey.

Hoblitzell was withdrawn and Gainer batted in his place. Gainer will play first base for Boston.

Gainer up. Bancroft took Gainer's grounder, touched second, forcing Speaker, and then threw out Gainer at first for a double play. One run; two hits.

Philadelphia—Gardner threw out Stock at first. Bancroft flied out to Hooper. Paskert put a single over second.

Cravath up. Paskert was out stealing. Thomas to Scott. No runs; one hit.

Fourth Inning.
Boston—Lewis went out on a fly to Whitted. Gardner walked. Barry up.

Rixey showed a very wide curve. Barry forced Gardner at second, Stock to Niehoff. Thomas flied out to right. No runs; no hits.

Philadelphia—Cravath struck out. Luderus scored on a home-run drive over the right-field fence. The crowd gave him an ovation as he crossed the plate.

Whitted flied out to Gardner. Niehoff singled to center. It was his first hit in the series.

Burns singled to right, sending Niehoff to third, and Niehoff scored when Gardner, retrieving Hooper's long throw to the fence, made a wild throw home. Burns went to second.

Rixey was thrown out at first by Gardner. Two runs; three hits; one error.

Fifth Inning.
Boston—Foster singled over short. Hooper was hit by a pitched ball.

Foster was almost picked off second by Burns' line throw. Scott flied to Whitted, Foster and Hooper remaining on the bags after the catch.

Speaker was out, Rixey to Luderus; Foster going to third and Hooper to second. Gainer flied out to center.

No runs; one hit. Philadelphia—Stock went out, Gardner to Gainer. Gardner made a bad throw, but Gainer made a nice pick-up.

Bancroft put a single over Scott's head. Paskert flew out to Speaker. Cravath up.

Bancroft was out stealing. Thomas to Scott. No runs; one hit.

Sixth Inning.
The official attendance was announced as 20,306. Boston—Lewis was out at first. Bancroft to Luderus.

Gardner fouled out to Burns. Bancroft took Barry's grounder and threw wildly past first. Barry went to second.

Cady batted for Thomas. Cady walked. Foster went out, second to first.

No runs; no hits; one error. Umpire Klem announced that a runner may take two bases on an overthrow because of the extended field stands. This ruling changes Gardner's error in the fourth inning to an error for Hooper instead, as Hooper's throw went to the stand.

Seventh Inning.
Boston—Hooper went out, second to first. Scott popped out to first. Speaker went out, short to first.

No runs; no hits. Philadelphia—Niehoff went out, pitcher to first. Burns popped out to pitcher.

Rixey singled to left. Stock flied out to right. No runs; one hit.

Eighth Inning.
Boston—Gainer beat out a hit to third. Lewis hit into the right-field stand for a home run, scoring Gainer ahead of him.

Gardner flied out to right. Barry went out, short to first. Cady flied out to center. Two runs; two hits.

Philadelphia—Bancroft went out, short to first. Paskert popped out to first. Cravath walked.

Duguey ran for Cravath. Luderus was hit by a pitched ball, Duguey taking second. Whitted went out, pitcher to first.

No runs; no hits. Ninth Inning.

Becker went to right field for Philadelphia. Boston—Foster struck out.

Hooper hit into the right-field stand for a home run, the ball bounding into the stand. Scott went out, short to first.

Speaker struck out. One run; one hit. Niehoff up—Out, fanned.

Killifer up—Burns up—Out, short to first. Rixey up—Out, third to first.

WOMEN IN MATCH PLAY.
Chevy Chase Club to Hold Handicap Tourney, Starting Next Week.

The golf committee of the Chevy Chase Club has announced a women's handicap match play tournament to start next Tuesday.

The drawings will be made in time for publication in the papers of Monday, October 18, giving times of starting. The lowest score of each player handed in during the above mentioned period will be used in making up the sixteens. The number of players turning in cards. There will be a first prize and a prize for the runner-up in each sixteen.

The drawings will be made in time for publication in the papers of Monday, October 18, giving times of starting at 10 o'clock and 2 o'clock, as on the first day.

STAR OF TODAY'S GAME

HOOPER, OUTFIELDER, RED SOX.

CROWD AT STAR SCOREBOARD IS LARGELY AUGMENTED TODAY Many Thousands Cheer the World Series Plays as They Are Flashed on the Screen.

A much larger crowd than those present at previous games of the world series watched the result of the contest in Philadelphia today, as shown on the big, new electric scoreboard of The Star on the 11th street side of the building, and showed by its constant cheering that the interest in today's game was more intense than in that of the four contests already played. The crowd had the greatest chance today to cheer as more spectacular plays were made even in the first half of the game than had occurred in the other four games together. It got so, though, that nothing less than a home run or a triple satisfied the fans, and the "yips" that greeted a mere single or double were somewhat feeble. At that, though, there was plenty of pep in the crowd—it isn't often that two home runs come along in the earlier innings of a world series game. Boys were not the only ones to be found in the crowd. Scattered around in the big gathering were at least half a dozen doctors who are usually to be found in their offices during the hours when the game was in progress, and the reputation of the Philadelphia would have made a first-class attendance at a meeting of the Bar Association. The government clerks and newspaper men in the crowd didn't count—they are always to be found whenever a crowd gathers in Washington. After the fuelled of home runs, triples and doubles that punctuated the earlier innings, the crowd hadn't much chance to whoop up things for awhile. Rixey was holding Boston safe, and Foster was doing the same for Philadelphia. But it was a Philly crowd today, and most of the fans appeared to be pulling for Foster's crew. What cared the crowd for possible gossip if the series went another game or twenty? The fans know that when the last man was out in the final game there would be no more base ball, even on a scoreboard, until next April, and they wanted to get all they could.

TO AID COACH NICHALLS.

Wiman of Last Year's Yale Varsity Crew Asked to Take Place.
Moline, Ill., October 13.—Charles Denny Wiman left here today for New Haven, Conn., following his acceptance of a request to become first assistant rowing coach at Yale. Head Coach Nichalls yesterday wired Wiman asking him to take the place. Wiman was a member of last year's varsity crew.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., October 13.—Charles D. Wiman, of Moline, Ill., the new assistant coach for the Yale rowing squad, was graduated from Yale last June. He was number 7 in the varsity eight in the New London regatta last June, but had not figured in rowing in his previous years at the university. He was developed by Coach Guy Nichalls during last season's training.

Mr. Wiman will take the place which for two years was taken by Eugene Gianini, whose work was directed chiefly to oversight of the freshmen candidates. Gianini was relieved of his work after the races at New London, and later was released and his contract terminated.

WON BY AN OUTSIDER.
Son-in-Law Captures the Cesarewitch Stakes at Newmarket, England.
NEWMARKET, England, October 13.—Son-in-Law, an outsider in the betting, today won the Cesarewitch stakes, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward.

Sea Claire finished second and Snow Martin third. Thirty-one horses started in the race, which was run over the Cesarewitch course, a distance of two miles and a quarter. The betting was 100 to 9 against Son-in-Law, 100 to 8 against Sea Claire, and 7 to 1 against Snow Martin.

MAYOR BELL ACQUITTED.

Found Not Guilty of Charge of Fraud in Election.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., October 13.—Mayor Joseph E. Bell was today acquitted and discharged of the charge of committing felonies in connection with the primary and election of 1914. The jury which brought in the verdict was out less than two hours.

LEHIGH CLAIMS THERE WAS NO ILLEGAL WORK IN YALE GAME.
SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., October 13.—Prof. H. R. Reiter, head of the department of physical education at Lehigh University, has issued a statement, which will appear in "The Evening and White," in reply to the charges by Coach Hinkley of Yale that Lehigh's playing was rough in Saturday's football game. Prof. Reiter says:

"Items have been published in various papers which are totally misleading and make it appear that the game was unusually rough. As one who watched the playing carefully, I am unable to agree with this sentiment. The game was stubbornly contested, and there were moments when feeling ran high. But at no time did I see any willful unnecessary roughness."

"When Gurney was injured he dove headlong over the line and landed on his shoulder. In general, it seemed to me that a number of the Yale men were in questionable physical condition when they entered the game and not prepared to stand a hard struggle. In regard to the injury to Keady's shoulder and the fracturing of Chenoweth's leg, there was nothing to indicate foul tactics. Their hurts were accidental. As to the officials, we have no complaint to make, except one judgment in the decision of the referee—giving the ball to Yale when Chase's kick was blocked in the third period."

BOSTON										PHILADELPHIA
	AB	R	H	O	A	E		AB	R	H	O	A	E
Hooper, rf....	4	2	3	2	0	1	Stock, 3b....	3	0	0	0	1	0
Scott, ss.....	5	0	0	2	1	0	Bancroft, ss..	4	1	2	3	6	1
Speaker, cf... 5	0	1	3	0	0	Paskert, cf... 4	1	2	1	0	0
Hoblitzell, lb. 1	0	0	1	0	0	Cravath, rf... 3	0	0	3	0	0
Gainer, lb... 3	1	1	7	0	0	Becker, if... 0	0	0	0	0	0
Lewis, lf.... 4	1	1	0	0	0	Luderus, 1b.. 2	1	2	13	2	0
Gardner, 3b.. 3	1	1	2	3	0	Whitted, lf... 4	0	0	2	0	0
Barry, 2b.... 4	0	1	1	0	0	Niehoff, 2b... 4	1	1	2	3	0
Thomas, c... 2	0	1	4	3	0	Burns, c..... 4	0	1	2	2	0
Cady, c..... 0	0	0	1	1	0	Mayer, p..... 1	0	0	1	0	0
Foster, p..... 4	0	1	1	3	0	Rixey, p..... 2	0	1	0	1	0
Totals..... 37	5	10	23	10	1	Totals..... 31	4	9	27	15	1

SUMMARY
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	R	H	E
Philadelphia	2	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	9	1
Boston	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	10	1

Struck out—By Mayer, 0; Foster, 4
Struck out—By Rixey, 2
Base on balls—Off Mayer, 0; Foster, 5
Bases on balls—Off Rixey, 2
Left on bases—Boston, 7; Philadelphia, 5
Home run—Hooper, 2; Luderus, Lewis,
Three-base hit—Gardner,
Two-base hit—Luderus,
Hit by pitcher—Stock by Foster,
Hooper by Rixey; Luderus by Foster,
Double play—Foster, Thomas, Hoblitzell
Niehoff, Bancroft, Luderus
Time of game—2:05
Attendance—20,306
UMPIRES—KLEM AND O'LOUGHLIN.

GRILLO'S STORY OF THE GAME PLAYED TODAY AT PHILADELPHIA

By J. ED GRILLO.
NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK, Philadelphia, October 13.—The attendance today appeared to be somewhat smaller than that of either of the first two games of the series. Philadelphians never take kindly to a loser and the three defeats the Phillies have suffered have dampened the ardor of the fans. Of course, the loyal legion was on hand to give the team encouragement, but the appearance of the stands indicated there are several hundred less persons here today than last Friday or Saturday. The day again was ideal, it being as warm as in July. Shirt sleeves in the bleachers were plentiful, and were it not for the impropriety of the thing many persons in the grandstand also would have shed their coats.

Phillies Loudly Cheered.

There was the usual cheering when the Phillies emerged from their bench to take fielding practice. Moran as usual did the batting to the infield, and his team put up a lively practice. The cheers of the crowd apparently encouraged them.

In keeping with the Philadelphia club's management, there is not a score card in the grandstand today. It seems to be another case of forgetfulness and the usual howl is going up from the papers. There was quite a stir in town this morning when the rumor was spread that the train on which both teams and a lot of correspondents were traveling had been wrecked.

The fact of the matter was that the train, which was a long one, suffered a four-hour delay by reason of the in-attendance of the small locomotive attached to pull it up a grade. Not until another locomotive arrived did the train proceed. It did not arrive in Philadelphia until 11:20 o'clock, and had been in the city for an hour and a half when the Red Sox came out of their dressing rooms. Alexander and Moran were virtually forced to use Mayer.

Foster looked much different in the second inning, retiring the side in order. He fanned Niehoff to begin with, Burns, popped to Gardner and then Rixey. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster disposed of the first two in the third, but Paskert got a single to center. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster's team in lead. Luderus put his team in the lead after Cravath had struck out in the fourth by hitting the first ball pitched over the right-field fence. With two out in this inning, Niehoff singled to center. It was the first safe blow he has made in the series. Luderus, by his home run, made his fifth consecutive hit. Burns followed with a single to right. On the hit and run Hooper threw the ball to third, which bounded away from Gardner, rebounded against the box when Gardner's throw got a way from Thomas, and Niehoff came home.

Though the Red Sox got their first two men on in the fifth, they failed to score runs. With two out in the second, Gardner hit the low fence in front of the bleachers in center field. The ball, which Jack Barry brought him home when he sent a little Texas leaguer over Stock's head. Thomas followed with a single to center, sending Barry to second, and this put it up to Foster, who on his former appearance made three hits and won his own game. But Foster disappointed when he popped up a little fly to Luderus.

Day for Hard Hitting.

It seems to be a day for hitting. Boston had four safe ones to its credit in two innings, while the Phillies made three in the first. The batting has been decidedly light in the other games, but this may develop into an old-fashioned slugfest.

Foster looked much different in the second inning, retiring the side in order. He fanned Niehoff to begin with, Burns, popped to Gardner and then Rixey. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster disposed of the first two in the third, but Paskert got a single to center. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster's team in lead. Luderus put his team in the lead after Cravath had struck out in the fourth by hitting the first ball pitched over the right-field fence. With two out in this inning, Niehoff singled to center. It was the first safe blow he has made in the series. Luderus, by his home run, made his fifth consecutive hit. Burns followed with a single to right. On the hit and run Hooper threw the ball to third, which bounded away from Gardner, rebounded against the box when Gardner's throw got a way from Thomas, and Niehoff came home.

Though the Red Sox got their first two men on in the fifth, they failed to score runs. With two out in the second, Gardner hit the low fence in front of the bleachers in center field. The ball, which Jack Barry brought him home when he sent a little Texas leaguer over Stock's head. Thomas followed with a single to center, sending Barry to second, and this put it up to Foster, who on his former appearance made three hits and won his own game. But Foster disappointed when he popped up a little fly to Luderus.

It seems to be a day for hitting. Boston had four safe ones to its credit in two innings, while the Phillies made three in the first. The batting has been decidedly light in the other games, but this may develop into an old-fashioned slugfest.

Foster looked much different in the second inning, retiring the side in order. He fanned Niehoff to begin with, Burns, popped to Gardner and then Rixey. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

after Cravath had struck out in the fourth by hitting the first ball pitched over the right-field fence. With two out in this inning, Niehoff singled to center. It was the first safe blow he has made in the series. Luderus, by his home run, made his fifth consecutive hit. Burns followed with a single to right. On the hit and run Hooper threw the ball to third, which bounded away from Gardner, rebounded against the box when Gardner's throw got a way from Thomas, and Niehoff came home.

Though the Red Sox got their first two men on in the fifth, they failed to score runs. With two out in the second, Gardner hit the low fence in front of the bleachers in center field. The ball, which Jack Barry brought him home when he sent a little Texas leaguer over Stock's head. Thomas followed with a single to center, sending Barry to second, and this put it up to Foster, who on his former appearance made three hits and won his own game. But Foster disappointed when he popped up a little fly to Luderus.

It seems to be a day for hitting. Boston had four safe ones to its credit in two innings, while the Phillies made three in the first. The batting has been decidedly light in the other games, but this may develop into an old-fashioned slugfest.

Foster looked much different in the second inning, retiring the side in order. He fanned Niehoff to begin with, Burns, popped to Gardner and then Rixey. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster disposed of the first two in the third, but Paskert got a single to center. With Cravath up and liable at any time to hit one into the seats on the local grounds, Paskert tried to steal and was thrown out by Thomas.

Foster's team in lead. Luderus put his team in the lead after Cravath had struck out in the fourth by hitting the first ball pitched over the right-field fence. With two out in this inning, Niehoff singled to center. It was the first safe blow he has made in the series. Luderus, by his home run, made his fifth consecutive hit. Burns followed with a single to right. On the hit and run Hooper threw the ball to third, which bounded away from Gardner, rebounded against the box when Gardner's throw got a way from Thomas, and Niehoff came home.

Though the Red Sox got their first two men on in the fifth, they failed to score runs. With two out in the second, Gardner hit the low fence in front of the bleachers in center field. The ball, which Jack Barry brought him home when he sent a little Texas leaguer over Stock's head. Thomas followed with a single to center, sending Barry to second, and this put it up to Foster, who on his former appearance made three hits and won his own game. But Foster disappointed when he popped up a little fly to Luderus.

It seems to be a day for hitting. Boston had four safe ones to its credit in two innings, while the Phillies made three in the first. The batting has been decidedly light in the other games, but this may develop into an old-fashioned slugfest.