Suits and Overcoats That Impart "the Prosperous Air"

The air prosperous counts—wearers of Palais Royal garments are given the "air." It's not in instances—it's the rule. There's a reason—every Suit and Overcoat here was designed by a genius, who earns and gets the princely salary of $10,000 per annum. The best Suits and Overcoats in America here

Gentlemen, this new Men's Shop has confidence in its clothes and you—and suggests "An Account" With terms as generous as any and more equitable than many.

For as Little As $14.50 For As Much As $35.

This new Men's Shop was free to choose from the best makers in America—unlike the old shops bound by tradition or contrast or egotism. A late illustration of the superiority of the Suits here—two college men from Georgetown dropped in yesterday and promised to send their friends before leaving. One was tall, with legs and arms longer than usual; the other was short and stout, with limbs mighty, but not elongated. Both were perfectly fitted in ten minutes and both said this new shop was the one place they could find their ideas. Young and older business men are coming in greater numbers daily—they are learning that "the best Suits and Overcoats in America are here."

New Men's Shop Ties 29c

Identical—the same Ties—are being shown today in the fashionable little shops on Broadway and 5th avenue, in New York. And learn this—the maker's word for it that this New Men's Shop in Washington orders more of these ties than any three of the New York establishments.
