Army Notes.

Mrs. Oscar F. Long, wife of Gen. Long, U. S. A., retired, arrived in Washington last week with her handsome young daughter to place her at school here for the season. Gen. and Mrs. Long were among the best known army people in Washington during their long former residence. Since that time they have made their permanent home at Piedmont, Alameda county, Cal., where they have one of the finest country places in the state.

Gen. Aleshire, quartermaster general, U. S. A., at present on a western tour of inspection, has greatly improved in health since his recent illness. Mrs. Aleshire, owing to the recent death of her mother, will spend the winter very quietly in their home, 2343 S street.

Maj. Joseph P. Tracy, U. S. A., and wife have taken an apartment for the season at the Farnborough, corner of Florida avenue and Decatur street. Mrs. Tracy is a Washingtonian, having as the granddaughter of the late District Commissioner Thomas West, made her home in this city, and is the niece of Maj. Parker West, U. S. A., at present in charge of the Soldiers' Home.

Brig. Gen. Oswald H. Ernst, U. S. A., accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mrs. Ernst and Mrs. W. M. Grinnell of Boston, have returned to the city and opened their home on Connecticut avenue for the winter.

Brig. Gen. H. Finckney McCall, U. S. A., and wife have returned, after a pleasant visit to New York, and reopened for the season their apartment at the Avondale.

Miss Vivienne Conline, daughter of Maj. John Conline, U. S. A., retired, has returned from Baltimore, where she was so seriously ill, and much improved in health. She has joined her father at their apartment at 1225 H street.

Mrs. Baldwin, wife of Brig. Gen. Frank D. Baldwin, U. S. A., has come to Washington for the winter, and is now located at 1829 I street.

Mrs. R. A. Brown, wife of Col. Brown, U. S. A., has arrived in the city from Fort McIntosh, Laredo, Tex., and during her husband's absence with his regiment along the border will be at the Richmond.

Col. Robert E. Lee Michie, U. S. A., and wife have been rejoined at 1725 H street by their daughter, Miss Margaret Michie, who spent the summer in Massachusetts.

Army society here will have the pleasant addition of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. George Andrews and Miss Katherine Andrews, who have returned to Washington, after a year's absence.

Miss Lillian H. Mearns, daughter of Lieut. Col. Edgar A. Mearns, U. S. A., and wife, has returned from a visit to New York and rejoined her parents for the season at the Northumberland.

Mrs. Thomas Ridgway, wife of Col. Ridgway, now commanding Fort Hancock, is in Washington for a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. Norton Beardsley, at the Walter Reed Hospital.

Mrs. and the Misses Eleanor and Janet Patterson, wife and daughters of Maj. Robert U. Patterson, U. S. A., have returned to their home at 2320 19th street after having spent the summer on the California coast.

Mrs. Janis Wilson MacMurray, widow of Capt. MacMurray, U. S. A., accompanied by her daughter, returned recently from the north, where they spent the summer in the Adirondacks and White mountains, since her return to her home, 2223 Massachusetts avenue, Mrs. MacMurray has had a short visit from her daughter, the wife of Capt. James Parsons Robinson, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Totten, N. Y.

Col. and Mrs. Clarence A. Stedman returned last week to their Washington home, 1705 New Hampshire avenue, after an enjoyable visit to New York.

Mrs. Charles E. Kilbourne, widow of Maj. Kilbourne, U. S. A., has gone to Fort Hamilton, N. Y., for a visit to her son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Kilbourne, Jr.

Capt. and Mrs. George C. Barnhardt and daughter have returned to Fort Bliss, Tex., after a visit to the Panama exposition, having made the long trip by automobile.

Capt. and Mrs. Joseph E. Earle, whose
