What Is a Player-Piano?

The word tells you. A player-piano is a musical instrument consisting of a piano and a player action combined.

All dealers handle player-pianos, both different makes and different grades. Here at our store you will find a splendid line of high-grade player-pianos which have been indorsed and praised by leading musicians.

Player-pianos delivered on small deposit or your old piano taken as first payment, for which a liberal allowance will be made.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Home and Out-of-Town Plans of the Cabinet Circle for Today.

Weddings Here and Elsewhere of Pleasing Moment—Debut Tea—Notes.

The cabinet circle, with a few exceptions, is spending today at their homes in this city. Most of the members have in view going to the Army and Navy game in New York Saturday, so that the enjoyment of the national holiday at the capital is in admirably with their other plans.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster have with them over today Prof. Dulles, son-in-law of the latter, and his son, Mr. Allen Dulles.

The Secretary and Mrs. Lansing are at home this afternoon to the officials of the State Department.

Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo will join the White House family for dinner, and Secretary and Mrs. Daniels have the latter's mother and sisters, as well as their four young sons, to enjoy the day with them. Secretary and Mrs. Lane have also a family party with them and extra guests for dinner tonight, as will Secretary and Mrs. Redfield and Secretary and Mrs. Wilson.

The Attorney General's household is presided over by his mother today, Mrs. Gregory and Miss Jane Gregory being in New York to remain over Saturday. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison are also in New York, spending the day with relatives.

St. Alban's Church was thronged last night for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Foster Garland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Garland, and Mr. George Wharton Edwards of Bethlehem, Pa., which took place at 8 o'clock.

A beautiful decoration of white chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and palms was in place in the church, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Warner.

The bride, who was escorted and later given in by her father, wore a lovely gown of white satin veiled in white tulle threaded with silver, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Garland, sister of the bride, and debutante of this season, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of pink tulle over pink satin, and she carried a large arm bouquet of pink roses.

Little Miss Kate Lewis of Stratford, Conn., niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a white mull and lace dress with a pink sash and carried a basket filled with pink roses.

Mr. James Craig Hunter of Richmond, acted as best man, and the ushers included Mr. Charles Whiting and Mr. Raymond Bell of this city, Mr. J. S. Winlow of Bethlehem, Pa., and Mr. Francis Craven, U. S. N.

A reception followed at the Garland residence, on Q street, which was elaborately decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, autumn foliage and ferns for the occasion.

Mrs. Garland, mother of the bride, assisted the newly married couple in receiving, and her gown was of gray chiffon over lavender tulle.

Mr. Edwards and his bride left last night on their wedding trip. Mrs. Edwards traveling in a dark blue broadcloth suit with a small black velvet toque.

They will reside in Bethlehem, Pa. The out-of-town guests here for the wedding included the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lewis, and their little daughter, Kate Lewis, of Stratford, Conn., and Miss Florence Nash of Norfolk, Va.

A beautiful wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock at the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, when Miss Helen Campbell Buehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Buehl, became the bride of Mr. Douglas Herring.

The pastor, Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, officiated, and the church was decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and ferns. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with chantilly lace and georgette crepe, with pearl embroidery on the bodice. Her veil, of silk net, was held by a bandeau of pearls finished at one side with a pearl butterfly. She carried a small bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Catherine Campbell, the maid of honor, wore a gown of apple green tulle made with a bodice of tulle and full short skirt. Her bouquet was of pink chrysanthemums.

Two of the bridesmaids, Miss Arline Pollock, cousin of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Walker, wore gowns of corn color tulle and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, while Miss Jane Darby of this city and Miss Kathleen Martin of New York wore gowns of green tulle and tulle bouquets were of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. William C. Alexander, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and Mr. Arthur C. Buehl, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Mr. E. P. Hunter and Mr. R. L. Cooke, Jr. were the ushers.

Proceeding and during the ceremony Mr. Claude Robinson, presiding at the Methodist Episcopal Church, the church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. The wedding marches were played by Miss Edith E. Adams, a friend of the bride, and Mr. Henry Krugh sang a solo while the guests were being seated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. D. James Coleman, wore a modish traveling suit of midnight blue velvet with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of Opelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Bessie May Dittenbaugh was the maid of honor and Mr. Leo Arthur Merryman acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamack left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will be at home after December 1 at 3919 16th street northwest.

Mrs. G. B. King is entertaining a party of North Carolina friends at her home on Fairmont street, her guests being Mrs. Larry L. Moore of New Bern, Mrs. E. D. Baker of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Richard Williams, Mrs. Williams, E.

BRIDE OF LAST EVENING.

MRS. GEORGE WHARTON EDWARDS, Who was Miss Elizabeth Bowyer Garland.

Long and Miss Betsey Greene of Greenville.

Mr. Paul Sheehan of Buffalo will arrive December 13, to be the guest of his brother, Dr. Sheehan, U. S. N.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Farrell of 2247 13th street northwest announce the marriage of their cousin, Miss Lena Mae Smith, and Mr. Merzer Stanford Sampson, Tuesday, November 16. They will reside at 424 Q street northwest, this city.

Miss Margherita Tillman and Miss Beatrice Dulin will be the guests of Lieut. Herman Fischer at the Army and Navy football game Saturday. Miss Lillian Sutton of Austin, Tex., a house guest of Miss Dulin, and Mr. Roberts of this city will also be in the party, with others.

Mrs. Dulin is entertaining at a small dinner tonight for Miss Rutten.

Capt. L. H. Mattner of Jacksonville, Fla., who has been the guest of Mr. Albert B. Dulin for the past two weeks, has returned to Florida.

Miss Katherine Britton will give a dinner followed by a dance tonight.

Miss Nellie Johnson has returned from a several months' stay in San Francisco with her aunt, Mrs. Ewing. Her father, Mr. E. Johnson, went as far as Chicago to meet the travelers and to escort his daughter home. He will go to New York with her tomorrow to attend the Army-Navy game Saturday.

The debut of Miss Georgia Schofield was most happily accomplished yesterday at a tea dance at Rauser's, where the winter's first had received with her mother, Mrs. John Hewson, in the midst of a very joyful scene.

The hostess and her attractive young daughter welcomed the guests near the entrance to the first ballroom, standing in front of a long screen studded with bouquets sent the latter. The rest of the room was also elaborately adorned with foliage plants and flowers, as was the refreshment table, where Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, and Mrs. Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, did the honors of the chocolate and tea trays.

The large ballroom had also an effective floral arrangement. The Gen. Schofield's personal flag, as the head of the army, and hung on either side of the national colors.

Mrs. Hewson wore an elegant dress of light green brocaded chiffon velvet combined with cloth of silver. The debutante was in white tulle, a smart and very up-to-date dancing frock, made over silver net. It had a hooped effect over the hips, and a pattern of rosebuds outlined in beads appeared
