Make Up Your Mind Today, Mrs. Shopper

That you will "BUY FOR KEEPS."

In other words, cut out needless EXCHANGING of goods bought at the stores. It's an unnecessary and burdensome tax on the salespeople—and, goodness knows, they have a hard enough time of it without the habitual "EXCHANGERS!"

There's an economic, monetary aspect of the question, also, that directly hits your own pocketbook.

Because this mass of extra service entailed by thoughtless purchasers immensely increases the "overhead" cost of selling goods in Washington.

And YOU foot the bill!
