MISS MARJORIE HELMBOLD, Daughter of Mrs. Charles D. Helmbold.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Two Debutantes Will Be Presented to Society This Afternoon.

Ferguson-Walker Wedding Tonight. Luncheons, Dinners and Dances. Recent Events—Notes.

Mrs. Charles D. Helmbold will be the hostess at a large tea dance this afternoon, at Raucher's, when her charming young daughter, Miss Marjorie Helmbold, will make her formal debut.

Mrs. Victor Kaufmann, Mrs. William Wheatley, Mrs. Cone Johnson and Mrs. Hampton Gary will preside at the tea table.

Others assisting in the hospitality will include Mrs. Howard Reeside, Mrs. William B. Rogers, Mrs. Mitchell Carroll, Mrs. Archibald Gracie, Miss Temple of Tennessee, Mrs. Joe H. Eagle, Miss Mary Ambler and Mrs. A. S. Long, Mrs. Robert Gorman and Mrs. A. W. Thompson, all of Baltimore, the latter a cousin of the debutante; Miss Ellie Lejeune, Miss Dorothy Bennett, Miss Ruth Lester, Misses Elizabeth and Suzanne Chase, Miss Grace Overman, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Margaret Head, Miss Jane Cowan, Miss Josephine Shields, Miss Charlotte Capers, Miss Margherita Tillman, Miss Lillian Sutton of Texas, house guest of Miss Beatrice Dulin; Misses Dorothea and Gwendolen Dens, Miss Elizabeth Reeside, Miss Hanna Taylor, Miss Dorothy Wyatt, the Misses Mills, Miss Edith Gracie, Miss Mary Wheeler Vest, Miss Nellie Long of Baltimore, Miss Jane Gregory and her house guests, Miss Bryan and Mrs. Taylor of Texas.

Mrs. I. W. Kite, wife of Dr. Kite, U. S. N., will give a tea this afternoon to introduce her daughter, Miss Anita Kite. Those in the receiving party will include Mrs. John Culp, Mrs. F. L. Sandz, Mrs. Chatham, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. E. H. Old, Miss Jane Gregory, Miss Dorothy Bennett, Miss Esther Whiting, Misses Elizabeth and Suzanne Chase, Miss Helen Kimmel, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Mary Garland and Miss Dorothy Fuller.

Many friends were present last evening to extend congratulations to Capt. and Mrs. E. K. Woodford at the reception held by them on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

The decorations were gold and white, and Mrs. Woodford received in a gown of black chiffon and silver, and was assisted by her daughters-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Woodford and Mrs. William G. Woodford.

An interesting wedding will take place this evening at St. Alban's Church, when Miss Janet Birchard Walker, daughter of Mrs. George Harold Walker, will become the bride of Mr. John Bright Ferguson.

The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock, the pastor, the Rev. Charles T. Warner, officiating.

The color scheme of the wedding will be pink and white. Mrs. John J. Byrne of Chevy Chase will attend her cousin as matron of honor. Miss Margaret E. Walker will be the maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Dorothy Walker and Maria O. Jacobs, Little Marie Louise Birchard of Cumberland, Md., will be the flower girl, and Master Almas Harold Walker, brother of the bride will be ring bearer.

Mrs. Erskine D. Williamson of Edinburg, Scotland, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Dr. Clarence N. Senner, Mr. John J. Byrne and Mr. Carl P. Hanson.

Arrangements are being completed for the annual freshman "prom" at George Washington University. The dance will be held the night of February 4 at the Raleigh and will be the first joint "prom" of the freshmen of all nine departments of the university, as heretofore the classes have held separate dances.

Prof. Leslie Cleveland McNemar of the department of political science, who is secretary of the faculty committee on student activities, is in general charge of arrangements for the event. Among them are Messrs. Carter of Columbian College, Campbell of the medical school, Powell of the day law school, Lowry of the dental college, Manning of the night law school, Mills of the pre-medical school, Dutton of the college of engineering, Curtis of the veterinary college, and Hughes of the school of pharmacy.

The Marquis of Aberdeen, former governor general of Canada, and the Marchioness of Aberdeen, who have been spending some time in this country, are stopping at the Willard.

The Misses Dorothea and Helen Finkle, daughters of Mr. H. C. Finkle, entertained at a dance last night at their home, 1801 Columbia road. Mrs. Anna M. Foster chaperoned, and the guests of honor were Miss Leolia Smith of Norfolk and Miss Ann Louise Thompson of West Virginia. During the intermission and while refreshments were being served the little guests were entertained by some "kiddie" performers under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leslie Holt.

Among those present were the Misses Margaret Haus, Harriet Abel, Eva Hausen, Ruth Hausen, Jewel Hawks, Thea Carole, Audrey Keyes, Marina Yung Kwai, Mary Easterly, Margaret Van Sant, Dorothy Mullin, Helen Mullin, Helen Galogher and Irene Gawch; Masters S. Iden Thompson, Donald Dudley, George Openshaw, Le Roy Thayer, Thomas Bromley, Francis Keyes, James Hicks, Thomas Keller, Danan Yung Kwai, Kler Royse, Barry Collins and Alison Yung Kwai.

The Memorial United Brethren Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding last evening, when Miss Caroline Matilda Benning Martin became the bride of the Rev. William Irwin Campbell, pastor of the Sherwood Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Fultz.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. Charles E. Martin, wore a lovely gown of white charmeuse, and her veil was held with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Augusta P. Martin, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink crepe de chine and gold lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The flower bearers were Miss Helen C. and Master Ralph Williams, niece and nephew of the bridegroom. Mr. Harry P. Campbell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers included Mr. George Francis Williams, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. George F. Tucker, Dr. Rush C. Cook, Mr. Charles E. Green, cousin of the bride, and her brother, Mr. B. Y. Martin.

Miss N. Mildred Fultz played the wedding music.

A reception followed at the bride's home for the members of the two families and the wedding party.

Mrs. Sherman McCallum was the hostess at a delightful dance last evening, when her guests included about a hundred young people during the afternoon, including Greek dancing, clog

The bachelor officers stationed at the Washington barracks were hosts at a dinner of sixty covers last evening at Norfolk and Miss Ann Louise Thompson of West Virginia. During the intermission and while refreshments were being served the little guests were entertained by some "kiddie" performers under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leslie Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Butler gave a dinner last evening for Miss Katherine Effinger and their daughter, Miss F. Butler. Among their guests were Miss Mary Lord Andrews, Miss Gladys Kibbey, Miss Frances Effinger, Miss James Montague of Richmond, Miss Josephine Shields, Dr. Robert Sheehan, Capt. Woodson, U. S. A.; Capt. Randolph Page, Lieut. Skinner, U. S. A., and Mr. Carroll Kibbey of Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson entertained at a dinner for young people last evening for their daughter, Miss Nellie Johnson, who recently returned from a western trip. Later they took their guests to Mrs. Sherman McCallum's dance.

Mrs. James McMillan entertained at dinner last night at her residence on Vermont avenue in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing.

Admiral and Mrs. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis were dinner hosts of last night.

The tea dance for the benefit of the Working Boys' Home, given yesterday afternoon at the Playhouse by the board of managers of the home, proved to be one of the most successful affairs of the winter.

Resides dancing there were a number of special features during the afternoon, including Greek dancing, clog dances by Master Tom E. Smith and several exhibition dances.

The ladies in charge of the affair included Mrs. Arthur Lee, president of the board of managers; Mrs. Victor Cushman, Mrs. Randall Hagner, Mrs. Frederick Atherton, Mrs. Robert H. Chapman, Mrs. Francis Ruggles, Mrs. George Odell, Mrs. Cary Langhorne, Mrs. Walter Wilcox and Mrs. Richard Harlow.

Mrs. McC. Ritter presided at the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Blaine Elkins and the Misses Mackey-Smith had charge of the orange-table.

Mrs. William H. Rupertus, wife of Lieut. Rupertus, U. S. M. C., will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Terence James Gorman, this winter, while her husband is at sea, joining Lieut. Rupertus when his ship, the U. S. S. Florida, is in port.

Miss Elizabeth Walker, a debutante of January 6, is confined to her home with a serious attack of grip, and is (Continued on Ninth Page.)
