 Another 1,200 pairs of Curtains—some better than in the late sensational sale of 2,600 pairs.
Some 3 Yards Long
Some 60 Inches Wide
98c

See them tomorrow—on Fourth Floor—with 2,400 yards of Curtain Nets, at half price.

Palais Royal

11th Street G Street

LACE CURTAINS—Marvelous reproductions of handmade. Seen from the street and to every visitor who does not critically inspect—they will be real lace curtains. Ample quantities of one pattern—the largest hotel can be furnished as well as the smallest home. Per pair, 98c.

MARQUISSETTE CURTAINS—Some trimmed with 14 yards of lace insertion and edge—are worth $2.34 pair for materials alone. Per pair, 98c.

CURTAIN NETS—36 to 50 inches, standard at 25c to $1.00 a yard, are temporarily here at half price—12½c to 45c yard. Choice of white, cream, ivory and arabian.

On Fourth Floor, with the Lace Curtains.

A Lifetime Chance

The supply of Open-stock China from Germany and Austria is stopped. Deliveries from France and England are erratic and unsatisfactory. Business is hors de combat. The Open-stock China here—over 5,000 pieces—is to be closed out as follows:

Lingerie Reduced

This year's "White Sale" commenced Monday, January 10, after the old-year stock was disposed of. Tomorrow—Monday—begins the third week of the sale of new lingerie, with reduced prices.

A Weeding of Discontinued Styles

This 1916 White Sale started with no less than 1,250 different styles of undergarments at various prices from 25c to $5.00. Many of the lots are now "broken" and many cannot be duplicated. These are to be thrown upon bargain tables tomorrow morning at reduced prices as told of below:

Lot No. 1 $1.00 Lingerie Reduced to 79c

The Palais Royal's White Sale of $1.00 Lingerie started with 282 different styles at this one price. This week 79c is being asked for the styles to be discontinued. See special tables full ON STREET FLOOR, REAR OF ELEVATORS.

Various Nightgowns and Combination Garments will be found on these tables tomorrow—reduced to 79c for choice—that will prove bargains well worth coming for, as soon after breakfast as possible.

Lot 2 $1.00 Lot 3 $1.98
 Were to $1.50 Were to $2.98

Lots 2 and 3 are on Street Floor tables, near the elevators. Tomorrow's early visitors will carry off the best prizes—lovely combination garments, Envelope Chemises, Gowns and Skirts. Note the quality, the elaboration and the attractiveness of the lace and embroidery trimmings.

Lot No. 4 Now $2.29
 Were to $3.50

Lot No. 4 at $2.29 includes values to $3.50. Hurry for the really bewitching Nightgowns, of finest French nainsook and mull, trimmed with organdy medallions and fine laces, with ribbon-run beading.

1916 SPRING SUITS

A pleasure—and pride—to show these new models—a fashion lesson for our visitors and an experience for us. You would know of the new styles and we would learn of your opinion of our selections. Prices gradually rise from $16.95 to $65.00. Third Floor Salons.

Sketched by The Star Artist

The woman with the artistic temperament, plus a thorough education, is a valuable asset commercially. Miss Rochon has selected and sketched the models she considers the ideals for the coming spring season. These, with many others, on special exhibition tomorrow, on Third Floor.

On Living Models

Note that the Palais Royal hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., made in the interests of patrons who seem to prefer shopping later rather than earlier in the day.

Spring Styles at $3.00

Of heavy silk crepe de chine, in white, flesh and coral; some daintily embroidered, some tucked, some with narrow pleating; all with convertible collar and long sleeves, with turn-back and deep French cuffs. Some with Vestee of White Pussy Willow Taffeta Silk.

Spring Skirts at $4.98

—Samples Worth $6.00, $8.00 and $10.00.

Choice of Superbly Tailored Skirts, of finest all-wool cloths, in the new checks, plaids and mixtures. Third Floor—6 Elevators.

It Will Pay You

To get acquainted with the service we are rendering in our Optical Department. We have installed one of the best equipped and most modern Optical Offices in the country and have in charge a graduate Optometrist, insuring expert service. Glasses furnished, including examination, as low as $1.00.

A Coming Girl

The Summer Girl of 1916 is selecting her dress materials now. There is a doubt if really fast-color fabrics will be available later. And are not the prettiest picked up early, anyway?

On Second Floor

A Mile and More of Silks

Richest Silks—To Buy Now—Even If Not Needed Now.

The war has already twice turned the silk market topsy-turvy. At the beginning prices soared because it was thought supplies were to be shut off from Europe. Now comes England in control of the ocean and French Silks free to come in.

The Palais Royal Sale—on Second Floor—marks a most sensational turn in the market.

Lot 1 at..... $3.00
 Standard at $5 Yard.

Included are 40-inch Wide Silk Chiffon Velvets in the scarce and wanted shades of taupe, gray, wistaria, browns, navy, etc.

Lot 2 at..... $1.50
