FORUM A PANACEA FOR EVILS, SAYS WAR HEAD

Secretary Baker in First Address at Capital Discusses Community Ideals.

Secretary Baker of the War Department yesterday afternoon made his first address in Washington, speaking before the Grover Cleveland Community Forum at the Public Library. He took scored uprightness and insanitary conditions in American cities.

"The two chief needs of the city today, he said, were an inspiring neighborly opinion and 'more outdoors.' Washington, he said, was the only large city he knew of which did not need 'more outdoors.'"

"No one ever wanted cities in America," the secretary said. "They just happened, as did all Anglo-Saxon social changes. Our government also just happened."

"City people do not live in homes; they live in layers. The children are raised in a brick and mortar atmosphere. Cities are the most undesirable things we have in America. Our city governments have been a scandal, a rebuke, but we are getting a self-consciousness now, and have taken the brand of corruption off the foreheads of our American cities."

"Need Wider Benevolence." "We hear a good deal about private benevolence, but what we need is a universal benevolence, neighborly opinion and neighborly government."

"In the future a man will not be elected because his name happens to be Pat or Mike or Jim or Smith, but because he has more serene intelligence than his neighbor."

"If we want our recreations to recreate we must substitute good things for the bad things, and the people, and not their representatives, must do the thinking. The more we think, with them, they must observe, they must criticize."

In explaining the cause of the American saloon and dance hall Secretary Baker said the laborer who stays on the job until the whistle blows must find a recreation in one hour. The saloon gave it. The dance hall served the same purpose for the girls who labor all day long. "It is either lecherous recreation or unhealthy recreation. People must have a recreation, hence the need for the community forum."

Others who spoke at the meeting were Prof. Edward J. Ward and Dr. Henry E. Jackson.

Car Shoppers Voting Today.

Members of the night force of car shoppers of the Washington Terminal Company are this afternoon voting on the question of accepting or rejecting the proposition made to the employees by the terminal officials. The day force voted Saturday night. The meeting is being held at the Northeast Masonic Temple, 811 and F streets. George A. Nolte, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Car Men, declared that Saturday night's vote had not been tabulated, and that the whole vote would not be known until after today's meeting.

RENEWS PLEA FOR TWO HOMES.

Associated Charities Asks Funds for Needy Families. The Associated Charities today renews its appeal for two homes which the society is endeavoring to keep together. One of these is that of a widow with three small children, recently made fatherless. There are no relatives able to help, nor other resources. Unless $10 a week can be given the mother, the home will have to be broken up and the children placed in institutions. Who will help? The need is an urgent one, and must appeal to those who believe that there is no substitute for a mother's love and care.

The society also renews its appeal for $5 a week to enable an invalid breadwinner to take hospital treatment, which he must have if he is to go back to work and care for his wife and three children, the eldest of whom is eight years of age.

Contributions sent to the society, at the Social Service House, 923 H street northwest, will be gratefully acknowledged.
