

We Know These Illinois Homes Will Appeal to You

They Are Only $4,350

But $4,350 of Middaugh & Shannon construction means more than you'll get in properties costing many hundreds of dollars higher. That's not a boast—it's a fact substantiated by the quality of materials we use—and the character of the workmanship.

Ours is skilled labor; and we analyze every bit of building material. This is demonstrated by time and wear—and in the saving of up-keep, which is the experience of every owner of a Middaugh & Shannon Home.

Illinois Avenue is the garden spot of Petworth. And these Homes are the most substantial and attractive on this broad thoroughfare—Six Rooms and Bath—every facility and comfort—broad porch; real sleeping porch—cement cellar, floored attic—oiled finish, which requires no painting and always looks fresh and new.

The Ninth Street Cars marked Soldiers' Home go right by Illinois Avenue. The Sample House is Number 4120. We want you to inspect it in your own way—and look closely to every detail. That's what counts in an investment.

The terms will be arranged in our own office—for your convenience.

Two other Special Petworth Homes.

Semi-detached, at 4131 Illinois Avenue. Hand-some corner. Six rooms. $4,750.

Detached—fronting on three streets, Illinois Avenue, Shepherd and Fourth streets, 401 Shepherd street. $4,950.

Open for personal inspection.

No place like home; no homes like ours.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

First Garden Party to Be Given at the White House Tuesday Afternoon.

Members of the Cabinet and Their Wives Leave for the Week End. Dinners—Notes.

Invitations are being sent out from the White House today for the first of two garden parties which Mrs. Wilson will give on the South front lawn in the month of May. The cards are for Tuesday, May 9, and the date for the second garden party is yet to be fixed. There will be several hundred guests Tuesday afternoon, selected from official and resident society.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing left Washington at noon today for Annapolis, where they will visit until late in the day tomorrow. They were accompanied by Solicitor General and Mrs. John W. Davis.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Franklin K. Lane are also absent from Washington over Sunday. They left yesterday for Richmond, Va., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller, and will probably take a trip on the James river, stopping to visit historic spots along the way.

Miss Helen Buchanan, who has given several of the handsomest cups to be awarded at the horse show, has as a guest during that event Miss Mildred Greble, who will take a conspicuous part in the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare will entertain at a dance tonight, when among their guests will be a number of visitors here for the horse show.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Parker, Jr. will entertain guests at dinner tonight at the Chevy Chase Club.

Mrs. Valentine and Mrs. Stebbens of Watertown, N. Y., who have been guests of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing for ten days past, left the capital yesterday for their home. While in Washington, they were constantly entertained by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lansing.

Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory returned to Washington today, accompanied by her younger daughter, after spending several weeks in visiting relatives and friends at Austin, Tex.

Mrs. Thomas Taggart, wife of the senator from Indiana, will be at home on Thursday afternoon at the New Willard from 4 to 6 o'clock. Her daughters, the Misses Taggart will be with her.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller Collier of Auburn, N. Y., were hosts at dinner in the presidential suite at the New Willard last evening. Their guests were Justice and Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, Mr. Thomas Nelson Page, American ambassador to Italy, Mr. Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett, Gen. and Mrs. William Cro-

O'Brien, former ambassador to Italy, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Miss Gwynn, Mrs. William Littauer, Mrs. George X. McAnahan and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hewson.

Mrs. Grayson Dulin and her daughter, Miss Beatrice Dulin, have returned from New York, and are now at their home on K street. Mr. Albert Dulin will remain some time longer in Florida.

Judge and Mrs. Charles B. Howry entertained at dinner last evening in Philadelphia, in the city, staying at the Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cary Sanger will entertain at dinner at the Shoreham this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. MacCortee have left for a ten-day stay at the Hotel Chamberlin, Old Point, Va.

Col. John B. Brownlow of Knoxville, Tenn., is in the city, staying at the Raleigh.

Mrs. Atherton, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ann Atherton, has arrived in this city for a short stay with friends. Her husband is in London, England, the latter part of this week. Miss Ann Atherton will spend the week end with Miss Edith M. Minot of 1431 Ames place northeast.

We Charge No More

Let it not be supposed that our object in employing most up-to-date methods, highest skilled workmen and best equipped plant for

Cleaning, Repairing & Storing of Oriental Rugs

is to enable us to charge you more. It was primarily to produce better results—better than the best. Having succeeded in this, our facilities have grown so that we are now in position to do every detail of the work in the fireproof Woodward building, charging you no more and in some instances less than those who are compelled to do their work in back yards or in insanitary and unsafe headquarters.

You are cordially invited to see our plant.

An Unexpected Opportunity.

Every Home in our famous Colonial Row—on Park Road directly facing Rock Creek Park—was promptly sold upon completion. But circumstances over which the intended purchaser of 2011 had no control interfered with his consummating the deal—so this one Home remains available.

The location is unequalled; the neighborhood unsurpassed—and the House itself meets every requirement of a modern and attractive Home. Three stories, nine rooms, two baths, two sleeping porches—all in strictly Colonial design and finish.

The price—$7,950 Terms arranged including garage, for your convenience.

Middaugh & Shannon built it—that answers every question of quality.

No place like home; no home like ours.

Who Was "Mr. Richard's Fiancee" ?

HERE'S what happened:
Gail Vincent, college graduate, chanced into Mrs. Maybury's home. Inside of one hour she——discharged the burly Irish cook;
—made a mustard plaster for the "Missus";
—impersonated a certain chorus girl, and got away with it;
—told a strange young man, named Richard, that she would be his fiancee for the time being.
What kind of a story is this?
Only one can spin a yarn as ingenious, as humanly sound and reasonable as this one. His name is Meredith Nicholson; he wrote "The House of a Thousand Candles." His present story is called, "Mr. Richard's Fiancee."
It will be given to you in two parts. The first installment, with its funny complications, its human interest and delightful plot construction, will appear tomorrow in the
