A New Remedy for Kidney, Bladder and All Uric Acid Troubles.

Dr. Ehrlich and Dr. Haultswaite, as well as Dr. Simon—all distinguished authorities—agree that whatever may be the disease, the uric acid falls in furnishing us with a clue to the diagnosis upon which it is to be treated. and accurate knowledge concerning the nature of disease can thus be obtained. If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination border or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica, or you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, just write Dr. Pierce, at the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., send a sample of urine and describe your symptoms. You will receive free medical advice after Dr. Pierce's (he has examined the urine—this will be carefully done without charge) and you will be under no obligations. The marriage of Miss Hanna Willard Taylor and Mr. Charles L. Bayly took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, the former minister to Spain and Mrs. Hannis Taylor, on O street.

Only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Edward L. Buckley of St. Matthew's Church. In the drawing room beneath a bower formed of palms, dogwood and clusters of white lilacs.

A large Russian candleabra, placed directly back of the white satin prairie dress in the bay window, cast a soft glow over the scene.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a beautiful gown of silver, with a long court train of satin, embroidered in pearls.

Her veil of tulle was bordered with double bandeau of silver.

She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Reid Hunt attended her sister as a matron of honor. Her gown was of rainbow tulle, in shades of yellow, blue and pink, over a foundation of flesh-color satin, while the bodice was of pompadour silk.

Miss Elena Calderon, the maid of honor, wore an exquisite gown of yellow tulle over yellow satin, made with a hoop skirt.

Miss Marian Taylor, niece of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Le Baron Taylor of Mobile, Ala., was flower girl, and she wore white transparent cloth and lace, with yellow sash and hair ribbons.

All the attendants carried old-fashioned bouquets of Lady Hillington roses, in lace holders.

Mr. Walter Parker acted as best man and Mr. Hannis Taylor, Jr., and Mr. Alfred Taylor, brothers of the bride were the ushers.

A large reception followed at Rauscher's. The ballrooms were decorated with quantities of dogwood and palms and a stringed orchestra played throughout the evening for the dancing.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, assisted the newly married couple in receiving. She wore a handsome gown of white moire combined with cloth of gold and trimmed with chantilly lace. Mrs. Charles Bayly, aunt of the bridegroom, was also in the receiving line and her gown was of black lace. Miss Bayly wore white tulle over satin. Mrs. Charles Taylor wore pale blue tulle trimmed with silver lace and Miss Le Baron was in black lace and satin.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayly left late in the evening for their wedding trip, the latter wearing a smart suit of blue tulle with an old rose chip hat trimmed with black wings. They will reside at the Don Carlos on their return.
