EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Marriage of Miss Buchanan and Mr. Jones This Afternoon at 1 O'Clock.

Luncheon for Bride-Elect—Kimball-Happ Wedding—Teas. Recent Events. Notes.

The residence of Brig. Gen. James A. Buchanan, on Massachusetts avenue, was the scene of a beautiful wedding this afternoon at 1 o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Helen Buchanan, became the bride of Mr. Walter McKown Jones of Porto Rico, formerly of Boston.

Only a small company of relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed in the flower-decked drawing room by Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church.

The bride, who was escorted and later given in marriage by her father, wore a modish tailored suit of dark blue silk poplin, with a smart black straw sailor, finished around the edge of the brim with stiff feathers. She wore a diamond brooch, the gift of the bridegroom, and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. She was unattended, but a group of her most intimate friends, including her house guests, Miss Mildred Stillman of New York, Miss Mildred Corie of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mrs. Frank M. Andrews of Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., stood near her during the ceremony.

Miss Stillman wore a gown of black spangled net, Miss Corie, a becoming gown of blue polka dot silk, and the bridegroom's gown was of green and white striped silk, with a Chinese straw hat, wreathed with flowers.

Mr. W. Prentice Sanger of Cedarhurst, L. I., acted as best man.

Fans and spring flowers formed the decoration throughout the drawing room, suite and a string orchestra played the wedding music and during the informal reception and luncheon which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left later for their wedding trip. They will sail May 27 for Porto Rico, where they will make their future home.

The bride will be greatly missed by her host of friends in the smart set of the city. She is one of the most noted horsewomen in this part of the country and has won many honors at horse shows here and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Marion of New York, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, were present at the ceremony, the latter wearing a very beautiful blue tulle gown, with a black tulle hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Mr. Jones entertained at a large dinner party last evening at Lower House, for the out-of-town guests here for the wedding.

Mrs. R. M. Kauffman was hostess today at a delightful luncheon given in the parlors of the Washington Hotel, whose marriage to Mr. Lewis Newton Murray of Dunkirk, N. Y., will take place next Saturday.

Mrs. Kennedy, wife of Col. Charles W. Kennedy, in honor of Mrs. J. B. Bennett, the out-of-town guest of Mrs. Chauncey Walker, at her home, on Sunderland place.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels will leave tomorrow for North Carolina and will be absent for about a week. She will first visit Halifax, where she will meet a number of women of the John Paul Jones Association who are interested in the life of the great naval hero during some years of his life, and where he was presented with the sword which now hangs in the office of Secretary Daniels at the Navy Department.

Mrs. Sterling Gary, the cousin of Mr. Daniels, will entertain her while in Halifax, and will give a reception in her honor.

Mrs. Daniels will next go to Clayton, N. C., to attend a meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and where a reception will be given in her honor on Friday. Saturday she will attend the reunion of Peace Institute alumnae, at Raleigh and will deliver an address.

Mrs. Robert Lansing will be the guest of honor at a luncheon party to be entertained by Mrs. Alexander Stewart, at her home, 2209 Massachusetts avenue, Friday, May 19.

Mrs. Gregory Wilenkin and Miss Olga Wilenkin, wife and daughter of the financial adviser of the Russian embassy, sailed from New York on Saturday for England. They will spend the summer with Clarence Wilenkin, the eighteen-year-old son of M. and Mrs. Wilenkin, who is in a military training camp in that country. Mrs. Wilenkin hopes to return to Washington next winter.

The marriage of Miss Mildred E. Happ and Mr. Henry F. Kimball of this city took place very quietly this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Happ, on 23rd street.

The ceremony was performed in the drawing room by Rev. Father Thomas A. Walsh, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends.

A beautiful decoration of lilies, pink roses, palms and ferns was in place in the various rooms, and Prof. Atwater played the wedding music.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a becoming traveling suit of navy blue gabardine with a hat of gray and blue straw trimmed with ribbon and a tiny cluster of pink roses.

She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The couple were unattended. An informal reception for the guests assembled at the ceremony followed, when Mrs. Happ, mother of the bride, and Mrs. William H. Kimball, mother of the bridegroom, assisted in receiving.

The former wore a handsome gown of blue tulle and Georgette crepe, while the latter was in lavender crepe de chine. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball left later for their wedding trip. They will be at home after June 1 at 2304 23rd street.

BRIDE OF THIS AFTERNOON.

MRS. WALTER MCKOWN JONES. Formerly Miss Helen Buchanan.

The Duchess de Richelieu has arrived in Washington and is the guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Scott Thropp, who have been living in Philadelphia since their marriage here in November, will spend a few days in Washington this week's time to take up their permanent residence.

They will be the guests of Mr. Thropp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, on their arrival.

Miss Joan Ohi gave a breakfast yesterday at her apartment at the Farnsworth, entertaining in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Sherman Miles, who recently returned from Petrograd. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Gary, Miss Helen Elsdogott, Miss Catherine Birney, Mr. Giuseppe Bramilla, counselor of the Italian embassy, Mr. Ferdinand de Mohrenschildt, secretary of the Russian embassy, and Lieut. Edwin M. Watson. The table was adorned with a centerpiece of lilies and the valley, with corsage bouquets of the same flowers for the ladies and place cards of headresses of Russian ladies, painted by Miss Ohi, for the men.

Mrs. Arturo de Guerra entertained at one of the largest teas of the season yesterday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Frank Rumble of Philadelphia. Mrs. de Coronado and Mrs. Sapp Houston Carr presided at the tea table. The house was beautifully decorated with pink spring flowers. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Little, Mr. Enrique Coronado, Mr. Daniel Coronado, the minister of Venezuela and Miss Dominic, Miss Hortensia Coronado, Mrs. Carbo, the minister of the Argentine, Mrs. Mattie Carroll of Philadelphia, the secretary of the Argentine embassy and Mrs. Amaya, Miss Adelaide Rivero, Mrs. Misses Zindel, Miss Carmen Carr, Mr. Luis Herrera, Mr. Fernando Fossas, Dr. Harry Ong, Dr. James Moser, Mrs. Calvo, Mr. Calvo and Dr. Angel Riviera.
