

CELEBRATED
NEW TANLAC
COMING HERE

Announcement Creates Wide Interest Because of Astonishing Record
Already Made.

BIG DEMAND CREATED WHEREVER PRESENTED

Thousands Relate the Wonderful Results Obtained After Taking the Famous
New Medicine.

Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine that is being so widely discussed and distributed in nearby territories, will be introduced in Washington beginning next Saturday morning, May 27. Arrangements for the distribution of Tanlac through the four large People's Drug Stores has already been made. Free of the interesting features of the presentation of Tanlac to the people of Washington is this. The representative of the Tanlac Sales Company will be stationed at one of the principal stores of the People's Drug Store, where he will meet the public and explain Tanlac, how it should be taken and the results that may be expected from its use.

The demand for Tanlac throughout the country has been phenomenal. It is a preparation that seems to appeal to the best people everywhere, who judge its merits impartially and who have rendered a favorable verdict. In less than one year after Tanlac was put on the market over one million bottles had been sold. This record certainly bespeaks the highest praise for Tanlac, the Master Medicine.

In speaking of the preparation the Tanlac representative said: "Tanlac is a scientific remedy of proven merit. It represents the maximum strength of roots, herbs, berries and barks that are gathered from remote parts of the world and compounded by a skilled German chemist into a preparation of uniform efficiency. Tanlac is called the Master Medicine because it seems to master when everything else fails. It quickens sluggish stomach, kidney and intestinal activity, and is particularly valuable in instances of catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes."—Advertisement.

A Health-Giving Drink

Children gladly take Eno's "Fruit Salt." They say it is "just like soda." A little in a glass of water makes a sparkling, cleansing drink, which corrects disorders of the liver and digestive organs to which children are subject.

Eno's "Fruit Salt"

(Derivative Compound)
is mild in action—safe, sure, prompt. It gently moves the bowels, stimulates the liver, and purifies the blood.

It is a simple, natural, health-giving regulator—does not weaken or grip.

For 35 years it has been a favorite in every home.

REPORT IS DELAYED ON HERESY CHARGES

Presbyterian General Assembly Leaders Would Prevent Debate on Floor.

COMPROMISE OVERTURES BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

Controversy in Which New York Presbytery Is Involved May Be Reported Back in 1917.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 22.—It was clear today that some of the leaders of the Presbyterian General Assembly in session here are trying to prevent bitter debate on the floor of the convention over the alleged heresy of the New York Presbytery, and have the matter adjusted without any discussion on the part of the assembly in open session.

The committee on bills and overtures, of which J. Ross Stevenson, Princeton, is chairman, today reported several minor overtures and recommended their references to different committees, and then asked for further delay to make a report on the New York Presbytery controversy.

There are several compromise overtures before the committee. One proposes that a committee be appointed by the assembly to go to the New York Presbytery and make a thorough investigation and then report back. Despite a warning issued Saturday against the distribution in the assembly of pamphlets on controversial matters to come before the commissioners, a paper written by the Rev. John Fox of the New York Presbytery on the subject "Critical Scholarship Versus the Bible," appeared on the floor of the assembly today. It supports the opponents of the New York Presbytery. Later an overture from the Washington Presbytery following up certain recommendations made in the Fox pamphlet, and asking that the suggested investigating committee report back in 1917, was received by the assembly and turned over to the Stevenson committee.

Southern Presbyterians May End Assembly Work at Orlando by Wednesday

ORLANDO, Fla., May 22.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States continued its business sessions here today, with the possibility before it of closing its work Wednesday night or Thursday morning, this setting a record for the speed with which the work of a general assembly of the southern church has been completed.

Several matters of importance will come before the assembly this week. These include the decision of whether or not to appoint a committee to report the report of the assembly's representative at meetings of the executive Council of the Church in Christ in England and Scotland of the 1917 meeting place.

BAPTISTS NEAR ADJOURNMENT

Closing Day of Asheville Convention Given Over to Reports.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 22.—The Southern Baptist convention entered the last day of its largest attended session here today with reports of the past year's activities of the laymen's movement and of the Baptist Young People's Union up for consideration. Miscellaneous business also was ready for consideration in a final wind-up of the 1916 meeting, which brought together 2,125 delegates from the seventeen southern states and Illinois, in which the convention has churches.

FACE GREAT TASK.

Large Amount of Unfinished Business for Fourth Week of Conference.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., May 22.—The task of completing a great amount of unfinished business faced the delegates to the Methodist general conference, which this morning began the fourth week of the quadrennial session. In the expectation of final adjournment by Friday or Saturday, action probably will be speedily taken and extra meetings are contemplated.

Consideration of the committee report recommending the retention of the discipline of the clause prohibiting church members from playing cards, dancing and theatricals will probably be reached within a day or so.

The conference also will be requested to decide if a journal is now issued under church auspices shall be combined for the purpose of economy.

Unitarians Meet in Boston.

BOSTON, May 22.—Anniversary services, marking the ninety-first annual gathering of the American Unitarian Association and allied organizations, opened here today with a meeting of the Ministerial Union. Other bodies to hold sessions today were the Women's Alliance, the Unitarian service pension society and the National League of Unitarian Clergymen.

MACMILLAN EXPEDITION MEMBER IN COPENHAGEN

LONDON, May 22.—The first member of the American arctic Crocker Land expedition, Prof. Maurice C. Tanquary of Chicago, arrived at Copenhagen today on the steamship Hans Eggede, from Greenland. He reported good scientific results had been obtained by the expedition.

The remaining members of the exploring party, which is headed by Donald B. Macmillan, have been forced to depart from North Star Bay as the relief ship Cluett was unable to get through the ice. The arrival of Prof. Tanquary at Copenhagen is reported in a dispatch from the Danish capital to the Central News Agency.

Macmillan and two others of the expedition sledged all the way south overlaid with the object of reaching the ice. The expedition will reach home, it is expected, during the summer.

May Now Order Lamar to Prison.

The Supreme Court of the United States today granted the request of the Department of Justice for the immediate issuing of the mandate in the appeal of David Lamar, recently decided adverse to him. This will permit the New York federal court before which Lamar was convicted of impersonating a congressman to demand J. P. Morgan and others to order immediate execution of a sentence to prison for two years.

URGED VOLUNTEERS FOR IRELAND DISARM

Viscount Middleton Testifies Birrell Did Not Take Situation Seriously.

APPEARS IN INVESTIGATION BY ROYAL COMMISSION

Gen. Friend, It Is Shown, Reporting Possibility of Trouble, Asked for More Troops.

LONDON, May 22, 2:15 p.m.—At the continuation today of the royal commission's inquiry into the Irish revolt, Viscount Middleton described the action which he said he had taken to bring the activities of the Sinn Fein to the attention of the Irish authorities before the outbreak.

He said he had conferred with Augustine Birrell, then chief secretary for Ireland, and had strongly urged that the national volunteers be disarmed. Mr. Birrell had said in effect, declared the witness, that the movement was one to be laughed at, not one to be taken seriously.

February 25 Mr. Birrell, continued the witness, had written him a letter in which the following occurred: "To proclaim the Irish revolt an illegal body and put them down by force would, in my opinion, be a reckless, and in my view, a suicidal act, and a prodigious extent. I am more alarmed at the possibility of bombs and isolated acts of violence than of concerted action."

Birrell Recalled to Stand.

Preceding Viscount Middleton, Mr. Birrell was recalled, a difference of opinion having arisen between himself and the war office as to what had happened during the conferences mentioned by the former chief secretary of Ireland in his testimony last week.

Baron Charles Hardinge, a member of the commission, read a letter written by Maj. Gen. MacReady of the adjutant general's staff of the war department, at the request of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, secretary of war, in which Gen. MacReady said the conference of March 20, at which Mr. Birrell, then chief secretary, had asked for more troops to be sent to Ireland, had reference to the state of recruiting in Ireland, and that the proposal was that troops should be sent to various parts of Ireland to encourage men to join the colors.

Expected to Need More Troops.

"So far as we are aware," said Gen. MacReady's letter, "there was no question of sending troops for the purpose of overawing the Sinn Feiners."

Gen. Friend, commander of the forces in Ireland, the letter continued, had reported the possibility of trouble in south Ireland and suggested that he would need more troops. As a result arrangements were made for a reserve battalion to be sent if it were required. It is, of course, pointed out, had troops been sent to stimulate recruiting they would have been available in an emergency.

Mr. Birrell, in reply, said he was surprised to hear that he had omitted to mention at the conference the necessity of sending troops to Dublin. He certainly had done so, he declared, in interviews with Gen. French and Friend.

Government Statement Promised.

LONDON, May 22, 3:35 p.m.—A statement giving full particulars of the acts for which fifteen participants in the Irish rebellion had been executed was being prepared and would be presented shortly, Premier Asquith told a questioner in the house of commons today.

The premier added in reply to a further question that he was anxious because of misunderstanding in America should this subject, that the statement should be presented at the earliest possible moment.

WILL OF I. G. KIMBALL IS FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late Judge Ivory G. Kimball, died November 15, 1915, was offered today for probate. It directs that a balance of $290 be paid to the Central Union Mission so as to make up a contribution of $500 promised by him. His son, Harry G. Kimball, is to take at appraised value his law library and office furniture. A gold watch and chain are given to another son, Walter F. Kimball. G. A. R. badges and a Masonic ring are to go to the son, Harry G., and a G. A. R. watch charm to another son, Arthur H. Kimball. Each of his grandchildren is to have a watch or other jewelry valued at $25 as a memento.

Mrs. Thomas Frazier is given $100 in memory of her faithful service and loving devotion to the late wife of the judge. A monument is to be erected at Arlington to be suitably inscribed.

Remaining Estate in Trust.

The remaining estate is devised to the executors, Harry G. and Arthur H. Kimball, in trust. They are to allow Miss Jennie O. Kimball, a sister of the testator, to occupy the apartment 620 North Carolina avenue southeast during her life, and to select such furnishings as she may desire. The executors are also to see to it that $2,000 be provided an annuity for the sister during her life.

The stock of the deceased in Edmondson & Co. is to be held by the executors for five years, and the stock is to be so voted as to secure the election of Harry G. Kimball as president and treasurer of the corporation. The dividends from the stock are to be distributed among the six children.

At the expiration of the trust the entire estate is to be distributed among the six children, Ella C. Tyler, Harry G. Kimball, Alice K. McMichael, Arthur H. Kimball, Edna K. Ferris and Walter F. Kimball.

ON PROGRAM FOR BANQUET.

Dr. William E. Aughinbaugh and W. Morgan Shuster to Speak.

Dr. William E. Aughinbaugh, one of the editors of Leslie's Weekly, a graduate of the Washington High School in the class of 1888, and W. Morgan Shuster, general manager of the Century Company and a graduate of the same school, will be two of the four speakers at the banquet of the Economic Club of New York at the Hotel Astor this evening. This club is composed of the leading bankers, newspaper, business and professional men of New York city. The other speakers will be Howard E. Coffin, president of the naval consulting board, and Prof. Edwin R. A. Seligman of Columbia University.

The subject for discussion will be "New Opportunities for American Commerce and Industry."

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR JAMES T. GREAVES

Rites Conducted by George C. Whiting Lodge of Masons—Interment at Oak Hill.

Funeral services for James T. Greaves, who died Wednesday, were held yesterday afternoon at the West Presbyterian Church, Georgetown. Interment was at Oak Hill cemetery. Masonic services were conducted by officers of George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22, Charles E. Lightfoot, worshipful master.

The funeral was one of the largest of a Masonic character held here for some time. Mr. Greaves was a past master of George C. Whiting Lodge, and for many years a member of the committee on work and lectures of the Grand Lodge of the District. A marching column of Masons accompanied the hearse from the late residence of the deceased on Volta place to the church, and thence to the cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral were Grand Master William W. Jorjanne and Grand Lecturer Thomas H. Young, with Past Masters William J. Naylor, Thomas F. M. Dowling, Jacob H. Lichter and John N. Sterzer of the committee on work and lectures of the District; Grand Commander Lem Fowler, Jr., of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, and more than 100 members of George C. Whiting Lodge and others of the District.

Graduates Visit the President.

Four members of the graduating class of the Bristol School of this city were presented to President Wilson today by former Gov. Yates of Illinois.

MILITIA TROOPERS CAMPING AT RADIO

National Guardsmen From Several States Under Regular Army Instruction.

Nearly 150 militiamen—officers and non-commissioned officers—from the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Tennessee last night pitched camp near Radio, Va., where for a week they will be given a taste of real campaigning. Not that they have not had a taste of camp life before, but the officers and "non-coms" will get right in the ranks, alongside of the lowliest of the privates, and take instruction.

This camp is being run under the direction of the regular army and will last for one week.

Regular army officers from the cavalry branch who have been serving as instructor-instructors in the various cavalry districts about the country are giving the militiamen their paces, from the caring of a horse to the working out of tactical problems. Each man in the camp is required to care for, feed and water his horse and see that it is kept clean. The militia officers are getting another taste of what it means to get back in the ranks after having once obtained a commission.

In Charge of the Camp.

Just without the walls of Arlington cemetery the camp is located, and on a knoll overlooking the navy's radio plant. The camp is under command of Capt. Verne L. S. Rockwell, instructor-instructor in charge of the 3d Cavalry district, with headquarters at Philadelphia; Lieut. Robert McC. Beck, also of the 3d Cavalry district; Lieut. Creed F. Cox, instructor-instructor in charge of the 4th Cavalry district, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., and Lieut. Irvin L. Hunsaker, instructor-instructor in charge of the 5th Cavalry district, with headquarters at Columbus, Ohio.

It was but a few minutes past reveille at 5:30 this morning before the militiamen were organized into three provisional troops, and were ready for the day's work, which started with grooming the horses. At 7 o'clock there was a troop drill, and then the commands were marched to Fort Myer, where the men were given an opportunity to inspect the barracks as well as the kitchens of a regular cavalry post. The men were sent back to the camp, and the officers made an official call upon Maj. Charles W. Fenton, the commandant of Fort Myer.

This afternoon one half of the troopers are out on a tactical ride in the surrounding country receiving instruction in the formations for battle. The other half is receiving instruction in equitation, and tonight, shortly after the supper period, there will be a lecture and discussion of the day's work.

There will be a troop drill tomorrow morning and the men will be given instructions in administrative work in the field.

The newly organized Troop A, 1st Cavalry, National Guard of the District of Columbia, is represented by Provisional Sergt. J. N. Kellberg, and Privates L. Moore, B. H. Rices, G. H. Harris, W. S. Lewis, A. N. Finn, J. D. Bebout, H. P. Middleton, J. L. Von Krentzlin, A. F. Knibbichy, H. M. Curtis, G. A. Bell, J. A. Roth, G. H. Ray, J. N. Sullivan, Rapley Stone, J. B. Mulford and H. M. Roesser.

Among the troops represented are the 1st City Troop of Philadelphia, the Essex Troop of New Jersey and the Governor's and Sheridan troops of Pennsylvania, as well as other troops which have no designation but their letters.

Made by Procter & Gamble Co., Who Also Make IVORY and STAR, and the Nationally Famous CRISCO

Does Just What You Would Hire a Laundress to Do

P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap is made particularly for the woman who would like to have a laundress. It is intended to do the hard work a laundress would do. That is, it is made to wash clothes clean, by itself.

Realize What This Means!

It means that when you use P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap you do not have to rub the clothes hard on the washboard; you do not have to boil the clothes. It is simply a matter of putting clothes to soak.

P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap Is a Quick Laundress, a Good Laundress, a Safe Laundress, a Money-saving and Trouble-saving Laundress Because—

- 1st.—It is made of the finest materials on the market. Coconut oil is its principal ingredient. Coconut oil is considered too good for most laundry soaps. It is not too good for P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap.
- 2nd.—It contains no rosin. Rosin is put in soap because it is cheap. The materials put in P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap have much higher cleansing value.
- 3rd.—It is white. A good white soap always is preferable to a yellow soap.
- 4th.—P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap has an affinity for dirt. It breaks dirt into tiny particles which are removed easily by the sousing and rinsing. In other words, P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap loosens dirt. The action of the water removes it.
- 5th.—P. & G.—The White Naphtha Soap works best in cold or lukewarm water. You do not have to bother with scalding suds. Your hands are in the water but a short time, and it never need be hot enough to make them sore and tender.
