Hair on Limbs and Under Arms

This method for removing superfluous hair is totally different from pastes and rub-on preparations, which merely remove hair from the surface of the skin. To rob hair of its vitality you must use De Miraclo, the original liquid depilatory. It attacks hair under the skin, as well as on the skin. Imitations of De Miraclo are as worthless as pastes and rub-on preparations because they lack certain ingredients that De Miraclo alone contains which give it the power to destroy hair. Well-groomed women always use De Miraclo for removing hair from limbs and under arms, from face, neck and arms. That is the genuine De Miraclo and you will get the best hair remover ever offered the public. Be sure you buy De Miraclo by name and you will avoid disappointment. Furthermore, you will get the only depilatory that contains a binding guarantee which entitles you to your money if it fails. In 50c $1.00 and $2.00 bottles, at your dealer's, or direct, postpaid, in plain wrapper. De Miraclo Chemical Co., Dept. 47, Park Building, 125th St., New York.

ELITE STYLES

It is worth of the highest praise. Genuine magazines of the highest character endorse only De Miraclo. Beware of so-called emulations. De Miraclo is the only depilatory which is used to exploit the sale of questionable depilatories.

An Engagement of Note.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Helena K. Elliott, and Mr. Frederic Louis Hudekoper of this city. This announcement is of widespread interest, as both Miss Elliott and Mr. Hudekoper are connected with some of the oldest and most distinguished families in America.

Miss Elliott, who has charming, gracious manners, is the daughter of the late John Stuart Elliott of New York and a cousin of Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Mrs. Douglas Robinson.

She has made her home in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Gaff for some years. Mr. Hudekoper, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Wolters Hudekoper, is one of the executive vice-presidents of the National Security League, the president of the District of Columbia Branch of the National Security League, the lieutenant governor of the Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia and the chairman of the Hereditary Order of Descendants of Colonial Governors, and is an ardent and original advocate of national preparedness. For more than ten years he has striven to arouse the American people to their defenselessness, and has written more on the subject than any one else.

Mr. Hudekoper is a graduate of Harvard, 1896; Christ Church, Oxford, English literature and law, 1899; Columbia University, law, 1899-1900. He was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia in 1900. Mr. Hudekoper is a member of a number of the leading clubs, among them the Metropolitan Chevy Chase Riding Club of this city, University, Harvard Club of New York and the Bath Club in London.
