PARTIAL VICTORY FOR THE STRIKERS

Carmen Get Promise of Investigation and Relief From "Padrone System."

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS TO BE ASKED FOR HELP

Baltimore and Ohio Sends Authority to Conduct Searching Inquiry Into Charges.

Partial victory for the carmen of the Washington Terminal Company, who struck Tuesday on account of alleged "padrone system," was proclaimed from the stage at the mass meeting of the strikers in Masonic Hall, 8th and F streets northeast, this morning. This consists in thorough investigation of the padrone charges by railroad officials with a promise that those found guilty of this extortion will be punished summarily.

Surprise Sprung at Meeting.

Then the big surprise of the day was sprung. After the doors had been fastened and all present examined as to their right to be present George A. Noyes, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, who had been conducting the meeting, announced that all the men had sought was to have their grievances investigated and that justice should be done them on the evidence shown. He said a legal representative of one of the roads was present to make such an investigation and that he hoped much good for the men would result. He introduced Edman Leich, a Baltimorean.

Will Hold the Guilty Responsible.

"If we can prove these charges, we must do so. Personally, I do not refrain," he said, "from stating positively my opinion of the men who would do such a thing. It is un-American. It removes us from this enlightened country and carries us back to the old world. The men who would be guilty of extortion on men who have wives and families to support are low, mean, contemptible. If I found one of them my own brother, I would not hesitate to treat him as he deserved." He was enthusiastically applauded.

Names of Bosses Hissed.

As the affidavits were being taken at the meeting today there were occasional interruptions for hisses as the names of the foreman or boss exacting the repeated payments of money were mentioned. Not only those in charge of the meeting, but the men themselves quickly suppressed these hisses. The men were serious in their attitude and seemed anxious to holl their charges down to those things that they could prove.

Restoration of Burned Buildings.

The House accepted an amendment appropriating $1,000,000 for restoring buildings destroyed in the recent fire at the Norfolk navy yard. Of this amount $450,000 would be made available immediately. In urging the passage of the amendment, Secretary Daniels wrote that restoring the buildings destroyed during the construction of a destroyer which had been started before the fire. Minority members of the committee, who visited the immigration station at Ellis Island, Coney Island or the city's penal institutions.

For International Peace Court.

The House yesterday agreed to the section of the navy bill embracing the Hensley resolution authorizing participation by the United States in the establishment of an international court for the enforcement of peace, notwithstanding a fight made on it by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts. Advocates of greater preparedness than is provided by the naval bill as reported won some victories during the day. They succeeded in obtaining appropriations not to exceed $5,000,000 for enlarging the navy yard at Boston, Portsmouth, N. H.; Charleston, Philadelphia, Norfolk, New Orleans and Boston yards.

Fights the Hensley Section.

The Hensley section of the bill would appropriate $200,000 and provide for the appointment of nine men by the President, at the close of the European war, to enter into negotiations with an international court to enforce peace. It was placed in the bill as a compromise when it appeared that the opponents of a greater navy would not support the committee's measure. Representative Gardner declared the plan could not be carried out, and that the United States should not agree to such an agreement in 1914 Congress would not have voted to send the count's quota of 500,000 men abroad to aid in the enforcement of peace.

Would Defend Monroe Doctrine.

"I wouldn't take the time of this committee if I did not believe that this is the most important section of this bill," said the Speaker. "The gentleman from Massachusetts wants to know if we ever would arbitrate the Monroe doctrine. No, we never will arbitrate it while the earth spins on its axis. It is the only political proposition that all the American people ever did agree upon. He wants to know if we will ever arbitrate questions of war and peace. No! I hope we never will be engaged in another war, and if we attend to our own business, I don't think we ever will. No nation is foolish enough to attack us, and if one does it will get whipped."

Sues for Limited Divorce.

Limited divorce is asked in a petition filed in the District Supreme Court by Emma Madden against Willis Madden. They were married September 14, 1914, and lived together until May 8, 1916, when, it is alleged, the husband forcibly ejected his wife from the home and has since refused to support her. Attorneys J. C. Foster and Robert L. Miller appear for the wife.

Its assets are given as $1,985.65 and its liabilities at $3,148. Attorney Leonard A. Block represents the company.

EXPENSE INSERTED INTO NAVAL BILL

Amendments by House Add Approximately $35,000,000 to Total—May Pass Today.

Amendments to the naval bill carrying large appropriations, continued to be inserted into the measure by the House today, as the debate on the bill approached an end. Indications were that the final draft of the House bill would total approximately $35,000,000 more than the measure originally recommended by the committee.

HOT SPRINGS IS FAVORED FOR FEDERATION MEETING

Board of Directors of Women's Clubs in Session Today to Select City.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Members of the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs met today to select the city in which the next biennial convention will be held and to elect a treasurer. Invitations have been received from Hot Springs, Ark.; New Orleans, Baltimore and Kansas City, Mo. It was said today that Hot Springs was favored.

State Presidents Confer.

State presidents and chairmen of departments of the federation at a conference here late yesterday, marking the close of the convention, decided to hold "simplified" conventions in the future because of the difficulties experienced here. The plans include the engagement of four meeting halls, each to accommodate approximately 3,000 persons. One would be used as a convention hall and the others for conferences, discussions and the receiving of committee reports.

D. C. Delegates Prominent at Sessions of Federation; On Important Committees

Special Dispatch to The Star. NEW YORK, June 1.—Mrs. Court F. Wood, president, delegates and alternates from the thirty-three federated clubs of Washington, have put the District of Columbia on the map of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and they have put it there to stay, judging from their important committee assignments in the G. F. W. C. departments of work, and the choice of invitations that have come their way, as no social function of the biennial board is complete without the names of one, two or three Washington, D. C., delegates. So, also, is no important committee properly launched without a good representation of the Washington club element.
