

A Remarkable Home

401 Shepherd Street in Petworth.

Remarkable in the first place because of the wonderful location—in the best part of Petworth—overlooking Soldiers' Home Park. This Home stands by itself—with frontage on three streets—Shepherd, Fourth and Illinois Avenue. Think of that—nothing can ever shut you in—and stretching away from the front porch a grass plot as attractive as a city reservation.

You don't find such an environment as this in city homes as a rule.

Six large, handsome, day-lighted rooms, with complete bath and sleeping porch. Cellar concreted, absolutely dry; fitted with laundry facilities; servant's closet; hot-water heat; floored attic—and all built the way Middaugh & Shannon only Build—for permanency and comfort.

And the price is remarkably low—

$4,950

Terms arranged for your convenience.

You must see it—no description can equal the peculiarly attractive location, and the splendid type of home this is.

Open for inspection.

The Climax of Our Home Building.

1317 to 1328 Gallatin Street

In the Famous Sixteenth St. Section—Just East of Fourteenth.

With more than a thousand of the most characterful homes in Washington to our credit we feel that in these Gallatin Street Homes we have embodied the sum total of our wide experience; of our taste cultivated by careful study; and our skill as designers and builders.

They are built upon a plan more generous and lavish in detail than has been before attempted in Washington. The impression of substantial elegance with the first glimpse of the handsome Old English brick exterior will grow into enthusiastic delight as you inspect room after room and discover the unusual conveniences and comforts which have been incorporated in them.

They are semi-detached homes—each group constituting a distinctive unit—and the series so monopolizing the square as to establish for all time the dignity and substantiality of the neighborhood.

Of unusual width—a frontage of 24 feet—and a depth in like proportion—with wide front lawn and exceptionally deep garden area in the rear and on the side. Such an air of roominess and freshness that is a rarity in a city home.

The Price is as remarkable as the Homes themselves.

The rooms are of extraordinary size—finished in mahogany and ivory—a most artistic and pleasing combination. Between the Living Room and Dining-Room are widely paneled glass sliding doors—lending perspective and giving opportunity for very effective draping. Mahogany beam ceiling in the Dining-Room—with indirect electric fixture in the center, and beam lights of handsome design. Four large windows in each of these rooms—and a real open fireplace in the Living Room, that will burn logs.

The Kitchen, which is extra large, has a spacious day-lighted pantry—and a serving cupboard opening into the Dining-Room. A porcelain fitted Gas Range; and porcelain Sink and Drain-board. Wide rear porch.

The Entrance Hall is as big as a room, with mirrored door opening into a large Coat Cupboard, and handsome Stairway, with mahogany hand-rail, leading to the floor above. Here four large Chambers and two completely and modernly equipped Bath-rooms open off a spacious hallway. At the rear is a sleeping porch of generous size—and in each room cupboards that will delight any house-wife; and a linen cupboard in the hall.

Above is a light, roomy Attic, floored and with windows for ventilation. In the cellar—which is high studded, and concreted, is the latest type of hot-water heating plant, with separate facilities for heating the bath water during the months when no fire is maintained; set tubs for laundry and servant's closet.

Of special consideration are the floors—double-laid throughout—and extending into the cupboards—of selected stock that takes and preserves a handsome finish. The electric fixtures are of entirely new design, and add their touch of effectiveness.

Back of the attractive plan and finish is the important assurance of thorough construction. We've skimped nowhere in material or labor. We have built as you would dictate—a home you'll be proud to own—and a property you will always hold as a sound and substantial investment.

Ride out to see them—just a step off Fourteenth Street—on Gallatin Street.
