

MUSICAL MENTION.

The annual upheaval in the "war department of the churches," the choirs, which usually occurs at the close of the musical season in the spring, seems to be now reaching its climax, and fortunate, indeed, is the committee that has its organist, musical director and solo person complete and permanent for the incoming season.

Miss Nettie Craig, soprano soloist of the church of the Covenant, has returned from a trip to the hospital, with her guests, Miss Ella Jane Truett and Miss Florence Frisbie, are at the Craig cottage at Washington Grove, Md.

NEW FOUR-PASSENGER SIX-CYLINDER ROADSTER MAKES DEBUT

HAYNES "LIGHT SIX" ROADSTER, EQUIPPED WITH WIRE WHEELS, WHICH ARRIVED IN NATIONAL CAPITAL DURING THE PAST WEEK.

Miss Mary Jacobs, soprano, who was in charge of the choir at the church of the Covenant as one of the soloists of the evening choir, was presented in recital Sunday evening by Sydney Lloyd Wrightman, organist at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Elenore De Witt Eby, the youthful soprano soloist of the Washington College of Music and who is dubbed the "class baby," has been engaged to give a piano recital at Studio Hall soon here returning in September from Pennsylvania, where she is visiting her grandparents.

after a fortnight's outing with her mother, Mrs. David Cheesman, and her uncle, Joseph Cheesman, at Atlantic City. Miss Cheesman will leave September 1 for Pittsburgh, Pa., where she will be the guest of Mrs. Frank M. Alexander, who was formerly Miss Jane Packham and a student in Berlin, under Franz Prochowsky, with Miss Cheesman. During her stay in Pittsburgh Miss Cheesman will sing at several affairs planned in her honor by her hostess, who was a recent visitor here of Miss Cheesman.

Miss Elsie Carleton Small, soprano soloist of the church of the Incarnation, is spending her vacation at Virginia Beach. The committee had hoped to secure W. E. Brimhall, who sang there several seasons ago, but Curly Memorial Church, to which he had promised to go, refused to release him. Mrs. Whitman comes to her new position prepared by five years' experience at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Miss George Thomsen, soprano, who made her first public appearance here last winter, when she sang the soprano solo in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and one of the accompanists of the Home Club chorus, in company with relatives from the Washington, D. C., in the month of August at North Conway, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Mrs. Thomsen will return in time to substitute during September at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, for William Hulme Taylor, the regular organist.

Edward R. Witman, tenor, will be the offertory soloist this morning at the church of the Reformation and a year's last season at St. Albans, under Albert W. Harwood's direction. Miss Florence Steffens, the contralto, has already sung at the church two seasons and made her debut in opera last winter when she alternated with Miss Jessie Masters in the principal contralto role of "March," when it was presented by the Community Singing Society. Frederick Hardman, who has a bass-baritone voice of rare quality, who made his debut in the evening at the church of the Reformation, will continue to preside at the organ. The choir will sing at the services the first Sunday in October.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

Mr. David Stuart Rose, wife of the former mayor of Milwaukee, entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Irving street, in the city. A pleasant feature of the occasion was an informal musical program by the hostess and one of her guests, Miss Elizabeth Yung Kwai, daughter of the consul-general of the Chinese embassy. Miss Yung Kwai delighted the company with her rendition of "A Bowl of Roses," by Clarke; "Philosophy," by Emmell, and "Pickaninny Sleep Song," by Lily Strickland. Mrs. Rose accompanied. Mrs. Rose sang "Il Bacio," by Ardit, aria from "La Tosca," and some Hungarian folk songs. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yung Kwai, Mrs. James W. Doolittle, Miss Gwinn, Miss Brooks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

shooting the rapid and slow fire courses each twice, and making aggregate scores of 193 and 192 points. J. W. Roberts of the Big Four club and J. W. Gregg of the Army and Navy Union were tied for third honors, each making aggregate scores of 190 points. They made the same scores on both the rapid and slow fire courses.

ammunition, which is sold nearly at cost. Twenty "two-shorts" may be had for 5 cents, and "22-longa" are sold for 5 cents. Competent instruction is furnished free of charge. Gun-nery Sergt. Hale of the Marine Corps is in charge of the range, and is assisted by Sergt. Andrews.

A curve windshield for automobiles that reflects sunlight downward and prevents glare has been patented.

1917 Orders Now Being Booked

Place An Advance Order And Be Assured of An Early Delivery

The Cook & Stoddard Co., 1128-40 Connecticut Ave., Telephone North 7814.

Automobile Races

Under the auspices of the American Automobile Racing Association Under A. A. A. Sanction. Benning Race Track LABOR DAY September 4, 1916 Races Start at 2 P.M. Gates Open 11 A.M. Entries include Many of the Fastest Cars in America. TWO MOTOR CYCLE RACES BAND OF MUSIC General Admission, 50c. Grand Stand $1.00 Extra. Box Seats, $2.00. Advance Sale of Tickets at Barber & Ross, National Electrical Supply Co., The Henderson-Rowe Auto Co.

Old Autos Look Like New

—after leaving the hands of our expert Painters and Refinishers. They do high-class work in record time, and the cost is moderate. Pleased to make estimates—call on us. Superior equipment enables us to do all manner of Auto Repairing at BED-ROCK PRICES. Twenty-four-hour service.

MILLER BROS. AUTOMOBILE AND SUPPLY HOUSE SHOW ROOMS, 1405 H Street N.W. SERVICE STATION, 61-81 Pierce Street N.E. Phone Lincoln 4000.

WITH THE RIFLE CLUBS.

Owing to the fact that members are away on their vacations, rifle clubs in the city, with a few exceptions, are doing but little organized shooting at present. The summer period has hit the clubs in the government department especially hard. Club members remaining in the city are shooting individually and perfecting themselves for the team matches that will come in the fall. That these matches, when they come off, will be closely contested may be judged from the results shown out at the local ranges. That 50 per cent of those shooting on these ranges each week are new to the sport is a fact.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Mr. Anson Rogers Tracy of Frank-Ha Park, Va., entertained at luncheon Tuesday a party of prominent club women of the District and Virginia. Among the guests was Mrs. Court F. Wood, president of the D. C. F. W. C.; Mrs. William E. Andrews, past director G. F. W. C.; Mrs. Carlisle E. Kent, past president D. C. F. W. C.; Mrs. Josephine L. Jacobs, treasurer, and Mrs. Jason Waterman, corresponding secretary. D. C. F. W. C. Mrs. Leonard H. Wilder of McLean, Va., president District of Columbia Rivers and Harbor Congress; Mrs. J. M. Doran, president Ladies' Guild of Vanderwerken, Va.; Mrs. C. H. Greathouse of Arlington; Mrs. George Shull of Conduit road, and Mrs. W. Grace M. Dashi of Washington.

High Indoor Scores.

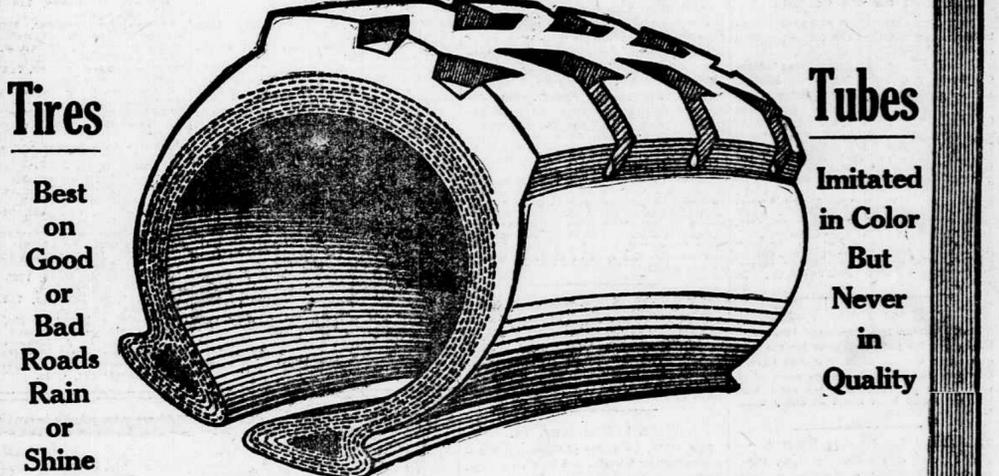

J. A. Markle of the Treasury Department Rifle Club was "high gun" at the Eastern market range last week, with a score of 196 points out of a possible 200 points. Mr. Markle shot a perfect score on the slow fire and made the other 98 points on the rapid-fire course. E. S. Gaumer came second in the standing.

Members of the Capital Yacht Club

are practicing for the coming team matches. A number of good yachtsmen have been practicing at the club, and many have qualified in the various courses are requalifying.

MICHELIN-FOUNDED 1842

MICHELIN Universal Tread for All-around Service

Here's a Big Economy for You "Ford" People THE NEW STROMBERG CARBURETOR FOR FORD CARS GIVES 34.7 MILES PER HOUR PER GALLON—BY RECENT TEST—$18.00 INSTALLED

HEADQUARTERS FOR AUTO SUPPLIES

- B. & R. Automobile Grease. Better than any you've used heretofore. Try it once and you will want it always. Corbin Brown Speedometers. Hand Klaxonet. Real Klaxon—Klaxon note—Klaxon quality. Operated on an entirely novel principle. The push gets immediate response and a very loud note. Projector is brass, not steel; bell oval, not round. The Price, $4. Larger Klaxons, $7.50 to $20. U. H. Klaxet, $6. Sole D. C. Agents for Diamond Drive Chains. Complete stock of all sizes now on hand ready for Instant Delivery. Trouble Lamps. When you need one you need it badly. The kind we sell will give lasting service and best results. $3. Thermos Bottles. Pints, $1.50 up. Quarts, 2.50 up. Food Jars. Pints, $3.00. Quarts, $4.00. Mirrors. The heaviest plate glass mirrors—the best made. $2.50 to $4.

BARBER & ROSS, 11th & G Sts. ONE QUALITY ONLY - THE BEST

Union Garage E. A. HARDY, General Manager, 1111 G St. N.W.

National Electrical Supply Co. 1328-30 New York Ave. N.W. Phone Main 6803

These Batteries are made in sizes and styles for every make of car and every size and style of battery box. It is the only Battery you can afford to buy.

IF YOUR CAR IS IN A DITCH —if it is wrecked, tell your troubles to "Trouble Headquarters." We will come after you, tow it into our shop and repair the damage as it should be repaired. You have but to phone—we're there.