Long Branch Putting on Gala Attire for President and Mrs. Wilson.

Vice President and Mrs. Marshall Motor to Braddock—Arrivals—Notes.

While the President and Mrs. Wilson are delayed by national events from setting a definite day and hour for leaving Washington for Long Branch, that resort is taking on gala attire and planning a program for notification day, Saturday, September 2. Today additional banners will float from business places and banners will mark the various entrances to the city bearing words of welcome to the President.

Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Bolling, and Miss Bolling, who are spending the summer in the Shenandoah valley, Va., will not go to Long Branch to be present at the notification, on account of the short time the President and Mrs. Wilson will have to remain there, and it is probable Mrs. Wilson's family will be represented only by herself and her brother, Mr. John Randolph Bolling, who is a guest at the White House during the absence of his mother and sister.

The President and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by Miss Bones and the Misses Smith, attended the Central Presbyterian Church yesterday, and later the President and Mrs. Wilson went for a motor ride and made a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe E. Bolling, who have been in Panama for several years, have returned to the United States, and are making their home in New York. It was the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Galt to stop there for a visit en route to Washington, but they were deterred from doing so from a fear of infantile paralysis.

Representative Nicholas Longworth has started to report some days hence at the annual meeting of the National Association of Amateur Athletes, which is being held at the Hotel Hamilton in New York. He will be accompanied by his wife and two children.

The minister of China, Mr. Vi Kyun Wellington Koo, will be absent from Washington for several days, leaving the time with Mrs. Koo and their little son at Buena Vista Springs, Pa. Mr. Koo followed by motor car to the mountains the last of the week to remain over Sunday, but was too indisposed to return here today.

Representative Augustus P. Gardner will go to Sagamore Farm, Farmington, Mass., next week, to join Mrs. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte of this city were the guests of honor at a luncheon given yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Felipe Yturbe, at the Hilltop Inn at Newport.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hammond at Lookout Hill, Gloucester, were entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Deane, Mrs. Robert S. Chew, Mrs. Charles Hoyle and Miss Mary Hoyle, all of Washington, who were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond.

Republican Nominee and His Wife Are Resting a Few Days at Estes Park, Col.

ESTES PARK, Col., August 28.—With campaign matters temporarily laid aside, Charles E. Hughes, the republican nominee, today planned a long tramp in the Colorado Rockies. Mrs. Hughes, herself an experienced mountain climber, planned to accompany her husband. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are ardent devotees of this form of recreation and together have climbed some of the most difficult peaks in the Swiss Alps.

THE HUGHES CHASE. Daughters of Capt. and Mrs. Volney O. Chase.

During his brief vacation here the nominee has arranged for a complete rest before resuming his speaking tour. Mr. Hughes arrived here yesterday where he plans to remain until Thursday, resting before resuming his speaking tour. Mr. Hughes was admittedly tired and advised his secretary not to bring him any papers unless they pertained to matters demanding immediate attention.

The nominee and Mrs. Hughes motored here from Lyons, Col., where a company of Boy Scouts and most of the population of the place greeted them on their arrival. The Boy Scouts gave them a cheer for Mr. Hughes' return and shook hands with him at an impromptu reception.

The notification committee, of which Senator James of Kentucky is chairman, will have headquarters this week in a local hotel. The members of the national committee and the two campaign committees will meet at campaign headquarters.

The grounds of the President's summer home, Shadow Lawn, will accommodate nearly 20,000 persons and to bring as many as possible within the reach of the candidate's voice a sounding board has been put up over the place in front of the main entrance of the house, where the President will make his speech.

NEW YORK, August 28.—National democratic leaders began to arrive here today in readiness for conferences which will precede the Wilson notification ceremony at Long Branch next Saturday.
