Many Officials Leave Tomorrow to Attend Notification on Jersey Coast.

President Grant's Son Visiting Washington—Weddings—Summer Travel Notes.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Secretary of War, Mr. Baker, and the Secretary of Interior and Mrs. Lane, will all leave here late in the day tomorrow for New York and will go in a party to Shadow Lawn Saturday morning.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing had Sir Joseph Pope, under secretary of external affairs in Canada, to dine with them last evening. Sir Joseph and the Secretary are friends of some years' standing.

The Speaker and Mrs. Clark will leave tomorrow morning for the summer home at Kenilworth, N. J., where they will be with Mrs. Thomas G. Patten of New York, at Long Branch, and will motor with them to Shadow Lawn for the ceremony.

Mr. Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., son of President Grant, is in Washington for a short visit, en route to South America, and will leave here late in the day tomorrow for San Diego, Cal., and after meeting several important engagements, here will proceed to New York preparatory to sailing on September 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant will be in South America for several months, spending the greater part of their time at Buenos Aires. Mr. Grant was a familiar figure in Washington during his father's administration, serving as secretary to the president and taking an active part in society through both terms.

Rear Admiral Frank E. Beatty, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Beatty have left their summer home, at International Hotel, for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George B. Egerton, at St. Paul, and much of the social activity of the city centers on Tuesday.

The Admiral is president of the Woman's Welfare League of St. Paul, Tuesday, on the subject of preparedness.

Mr. Richard H. Townsend and Mrs. Peter Goetz, his daughter, arrived here yesterday on the yacht, the Warwick, Mr. Gerry's yacht, from Warwick Neck.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will leave Washington tomorrow to motor to Montmouth Beach, where they will be guests of Mrs. J. P. Jamison until the first of the week. They will go to Shadow Lawn on Saturday for the notification.

A marriage of interest took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Ninth Street Church, when the Rev. Mr. Carolyn Belle Rogers, daughter of Mrs. Annie B. Rogers, became the wife of Mr. George Edward Genter, son of Mrs. Mary Genter.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Rogers, and the church was elaborately decorated with pink and lavender asters, palms and ferns.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin and georgette crepe. Her tulle veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms, carried by a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Margaret Riker, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and her gown was of white crepe de chine, and of the latest fashion.

The bridesmaids were Miss Maude Rogers and Miss Henrietta Rogers, both in white crepe de chine. They wore gowns of pink georgette crepe over pink satin and carried bouquets of pink lilyrings roses.

The little flower girls were Miss Frances Greene, wore white silk dresses trimmed with lace and ribbons, and Miss Margaret Riker, wore white and the ushers were Mr. Walter Genter, Mr. Charles Riker and Mr. Genter and his bride left immediately after the ceremony for a motor trip to the country.

The first brethren church was the scene of a beautiful wedding last night at 8 o'clock when Miss Meredith E. Lyon, became the bride of Mr. William F. Porte of Somerville, N. J.

The Rev. William M. Lyon, pastor of the church, and father of the bride, performed the ceremony beneath a double arch of pink roses and ferns, and from the center, palms, ferns and clusters of pink roses formed the setting for the wedding party.

A program of nuptial music was played by the bride and groom, and the Rev. Mr. Lyon, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and her gown was of pink crepe de chine trimmed with orange lace.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lillie Rittenour, Miss Florence Anselmi, Miss Anna Harmon and Miss Margaret Lyon, sister of the bride, wore charming gowns of pale blue crepe de chine and carried bouquets of pink roses and ferns.

Mr. Louis P. Clapper of Louisville, Ohio, acted as best man for Mr. Porte, and the ushers included Mr. Thornburn Lyon and Mr. Quinton Lyon, brothers of the bride, Mr. Joseph Otey and Mr. David Davenport.

A reception followed at the residence of Mrs. Porte where a grand reception of pink roses and ferns formed the decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Porte left later for their wedding trip, the latter wearing a traveling suit of blue pique de soie and hat to match.

They will be at home after September 15 in Somerville, N. J. The out-of-town guests here for the wedding include Mrs. J. W. Porte, mother of the bridegroom, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Emmert Wilson, all of Stockton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clapper of Louisville, Ohio, and Mrs. Julius Traub and Mr. Sidney Traub of Baltimore.

Representative and Mrs. Small and Miss Small have as a guest Mrs. John K. Hoyt of Washington, N. C.
