EDUCATION BOARD SCORED IN HOUSE

Representative Mondell Sees No Reason for Postponing School Opening.

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, in a speech on the floor of the House yesterday, criticised the action of the board of education in postponing the opening of the schools of the District until October 2.

"The board of education in voting for this postponement is following what it understands to be the public sentiment on the question. They have letters, it is said, requesting postponement, including, let it be noted, one from the Secretary of the Treasury. My opinion is that there are not 5 per cent of the parents of this city who desire to have the opening of school postponed and I base that opinion on the fact that most people desire to have their children educated and therefore do not desire to have terms of school unreasonably shortened when there is no good reason for it, as there is not in this case.

Reason Assigned for Action.

"Primarily, the postponement is charged to the prevalence of infantile paralysis, although infantile paralysis is not and has not been prevalent in Washington, there having been very few cases and most of them very mild. But it is said, paralysis may be brought in by the children coming from their summer vacations.

"It is notorious that there has been no infantile paralysis in the summer and vacation resorts. And yet, out of these two perfectly favorable factors, the board of education deduces an unfavorable conclusion. The fact that there was a strong sentiment evinced by members of the board for making the date, October 2, a permanent one, and, it is stated, a committee was appointed to consider the question. We have here, in my opinion, the real milk in the coconut. The infantile paralysis argument is merely tacked on as an excuse.

"With all due deference to the honorable board of education, my opinion is that it will be a long time before the Washington school year is further shortened. It is already quite short enough, and with the numerous holidays and half holidays, which are declared and provided for on all sorts and kinds of trivial and trifling excuses, some people have begun to wonder whether the schools of Washington are conducted for the purpose of giving the children of the District an education or for the benefit of the teachers and the entertainment of the board of education. It will be noted, in connection with this postponement, that the board was careful to investigate as to whether the teachers' salaries would be affected and only agreed to the postponement when assured that the teachers would not lose anything, however much the schools might suffer.

Regarded as "Extraordinary."

"The action of the board of education is the more extraordinary, in view of the fact that the health officer of the District and the superintendent of schools, the two men of all others best qualified to advise, advised against it. I am told that the present school year was made

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

The White House Officially Closed Except to Tourists for Some Weeks.

Many Officials Leave for Vacations.

Sibley-Henderson Wedding.

Travel Notes.

With the departure of the President and Mrs. Wilson at 1 p.m. today for Atlantic City and Elberon, N. J., the White House will be officially closed to all but tourists until the family returns late in autumn.

During their absence the first lady of the land and her secretary will probably formulate the official social program for the winter, as well as the more personal social affairs of Mrs. Wilson. Tribute must be paid the President's wife for carrying out in faultless manner the historic official code regulating White House entertainments during her eight months' residence there, and fulfilling every obligation to the official and resident world of society.

Her second winter as a national hostess is looked forward to with interest and pleasure.

Minor repairs, but very little refurbishing, are included in the work to be done in the house during the President's absence.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall left Washington early this afternoon, to be absent until Congress opens in December.

The Attorney General, Mr. Thomas Watt Gregory, will motor to Monterey, Pa., to spend Sunday with Mrs. Gregory and their family, leaving today or tomorrow.

The Postmaster General, Mr. Burleson, left Washington last evening to join Mrs. Burleson at abury Park, where they have taken a cottage for a few weeks. This is the first vacation the Postmaster General has had this season and he will probably be absent for a week or two.

Mrs. Franklin K. Lane will divide the month of September between Washington where Miss Nancy Lane is occupying their cottage with her governess, and New London, where the Secretary is engaged with the American-Mexican commission.

Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, who returned to the British embassy early in the week, will go to Woods Hole, Mass., in a short time to rejoin Lady Spring-Rice and their children. The latter will return to Washington this month.

Mrs. Richard H. Townsend has returned to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., to remain for part of the early autumn season. After leaving the city in August she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Goelet Gerry, at Warwick, N. J.; did some cruising with them off Owers, their steam yacht, and filled engagements in New York and at Newport.

Mrs. Katherine R. O'Toole of 2210 17th street, northwest, announced the engagement of her daughter, Marguerite Cecelia, to Mr. Edgar Perry Corbett of Columbus, Ohio. The wedding will take place in November.

Golden rod, palms and ferns in profusion contributed to the setting for the wedding of Miss Rebecca Alva Henderson and Mr. Eugene Sibley of Portland, Ore., last evening at 8 o'clock at the Second Baptist Church. Rev. Howard E. Smith officiated. The ceremony, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Kinchloe of Richmond, Va., uncle of the bride, and the Rev. J. W. Kinchloe of Richmond, Va., uncle of the groom, was carried out in a most impressive manner. A bouquet of sunburst roses.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white bridal satin veiled in chantilly lace. Her veil of tulle was arranged in fan effect and held with a bandeau of orange blossoms. A shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley was carried by the bride.

The bride was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. G. J. Jullienne.

Following the ceremony a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Henderson, at 17th and M streets, northwest. The house was decorated with quantities of golden rod, palms and ferns. Mrs. Henderson, mother of the bride, was assisted in receiving, wearing a gown of wistaria satin, trimmed with Irish point lace and panne velvet. The bride left later for her wedding trip.

Mrs. Sibley and her bride left later for their wedding trip. They will return here for a visit before going to their future home in Portland, Ore., where Mr. Sibley, who is a radio electrician in the United States Navy, is stationed.

The out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Kinchloe of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. A. St. George and Mrs. John Burke, all of Virginia.

Mrs. Reid Baker and her baby have returned from Log Inn, on the Chesapeake bay, where they spent a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McDermott, with the latter's father, Mr. Seaman, are guests of Mr. Edgar Seaman of Washington, Pa., on a motor trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will return September 16.

A beautiful wedding took place Monday morning, September 4, at 11 o'clock, when Miss Flora Iris Darling became the bride of John Paul Frey, the ceremony being performed at their future home, 2415 26th street northwest.

The Rev. William Taylor Snyder of the Church of the Incarnation read the service in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and intimate friends. The bride was given away by her mother, Mrs. Fannie Crandall Darling, who was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Frances Burdick of Westley, R. I. Mr. Robert E. Auld, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

After an informal reception a luncheon was served, following which Dr. and Mrs. Frey left for their trip north. They will be at home to their friends after October 1.

short, compared with that of many other cities because of the alleged summer heat of Washington.

"What, of course, no one wants the regular public schools open during mid-summer, the fact is that there are very few cities in the Union where the duration of summer heat is less of a factor to be reckoned with in the matter of the school year than right here in Washington, and it is about time that the people here got over the habit of using Washington summer climate as an excuse for the shortening of school terms, and particularly for the closing of playgrounds at a time when they are most needed.

"Most cities of the Union would consider themselves very fortunate if their people suffered no more from heat in the summer than do the people of Washington."
