Mrs. Robert Boyd will return next month to the Hotel Stratford, in this city, from a visit to her daughter, wife of Commodore Walling, at Belmar, N. J.

Rear Admiral William S. Benson, U. S. N., at present in command of the mines, is receiving the congratulations of his friends upon his recent promotion in rank. Mrs. Benson has spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Kraft, at Annapolis, Md.

Maj. Smedley D. Butler, U. S. M. C., now with the troops in Haiti, has been recommended as commandant of the Haitian constabulary by President Wilson. This recommendation will undoubtedly be favorably acted upon by the President of Haiti.

Lieut. Col. A. W. Catlin, U. S. M. C., until recently in command of the prison in Portsmouth, N. H., will come to Washington in time to enter upon a course at the War College the 1st of October.

Mrs. W. T. Culverius, wife of Commander Culverius, U. S. N., now in command of the U. S. S. Wisconsin, on which the midshipmen have been taking their cruise, will go to Annapolis to join her husband this week, after having spent the summer with her family at Hancock Point, Me.

Rear Admiral Edward H. Green, U. S. N., retired, with Mrs. Green and their son, 1619 New Hampshire avenue, from Chesapeake, N. J., where they have been since the first of July.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. James H. Glenn have spent the summer at Atlantic City and will remain for the autumn season. Rear Admiral Daniel D. V. Stuart, retired, Mrs. Stuart and Commander William L. Burdick and Mrs. Burdick are spending some weeks at Atlantic City.

Lieut. L. S. Pamperin, U. S. N., and wife have spent the summer at Willoughby Beach, Va.

Lieut. M. E. Shearer, U. S. N., and Mrs. Shearer have arrived in Washington from the Puget sound navy yard and are located at the navy yard in this city.

Paymaster Hovey-King, U. S. N., and wife spent the late summer in a motor trip through the White mountains and along the Hudson river.

Rear Admiral N. E. Mason, U. S. N., retired, with Mrs. and Miss Dorothy Mason, will not return to their home, 1573 Biltmore street, for several weeks yet, having decided to remain at Jamestown, R. I., where they have been since the early summer.

Medical Director Charles T. Hibbett, U. S. N., retired, will locate permanently at the Blue Ridge Springs of Virginia.

Mrs. Elaine S. Bullard, wife of Naval Constructor Bullard, accompanied by their little son, is visiting friends in Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. Ellis B. Miller, wife of Capt. Miller, U. S. M. C., has arrived in Washington and is stopping at Wardman Courts West, while Capt. Miller is in Monte Christi, Santo Domingo.

Army Notes.

Gen. Theodore Frelinghuysen Forbes, U. S. A., retired; Mrs. Forbes and their daughter, Mrs. Woodward Bishop, have gone to Eaglesmere, Pa., for the month of September. They will spend the winter, as usual, in their apartment at the Marlborough on 18th street.

The retirement of Major Gen. James B. Aleshire, U. S. A., because of ill health is generally regretted in the service. The home of Gen. and Mrs. Aleshire, 2348 S street, is the popular rendezvous of the friends of their daughters, Misses Marjorie Aleshire and Dorothy Aleshire.

Miss Dorothy Straub, daughter of Col. Oscar Straub, U. S. A., is spending a fortnight at Fort Porter, N. Y., and before returning to Washington will visit her grandmother, Mrs. Van Andrus, at Atlantic City.
