HIGH COST OF LIVING HOUSEWIVES' FAULT

Their Wasteful Ways and False Ideals Blamed by Mrs. F. McD. Thompson.

REGULATION POSSIBLE BY SCIENCE IN KITCHEN

President of Housekeepers' Alliance Also Criticizes Cooking Methods Applied to Good Army Food.

Blame for the high cost of living and the agitation on account of the increased cost of bread is placed squarely on the shoulders of the housekeeper by Mrs. Flora McDonald Thompson, president of the Housekeepers' Alliance.

Discussing the question of bread, she says it is the housekeepers who ignore or are indifferent to the value of bread, just as there are housekeepers who ignore and are indifferent to the value of meat.

Housekeepers Need Reforming. "It is particularly the housekeepers of the United States who must be reformed in order to regulate prices and accord cost of living with the requirements of law and justice," said Mrs. Thompson.

"A movie man who had been at the front with Fehring's expedition told me there is only one camp kitchen with that expedition. Yet, even in Poland, the stomachs and the morale of the men fighting there are maintained by civilized kitchens on wheels, while American troops are still fed Indian fashion from pots boiled over fires built on the ground in the open, after the wood has been gathered for the fire."

"This is no fault of the United States Army. It is not the fault of the United States government. It is the fault of the women of the country. It is also the fault of business in the United States."

Gen. von Haenisch Retired. AMSTERDAM, September 17, via London, September 15.—According to the Frankfurter Zeitung, the commander of the 14th German Army Corps, Lieut. Gen. von Haenisch, has been placed on the retired list.

Modern Gullivers

Some men stand out from the crowd as Gulliver towered over the Lilliputians. By superior energy, activity and reserve strength they predominate. Feeling right within, is one of the fundamentals of physical and mental strength, and is largely the result of proper nourishment.

Grape-Nuts

is the logical food for thinkers and doers. It contains all the nutritious elements of whole wheat and malted barley, is partially predigested, and supplies an abundance of energizing nourishment without overworking the stomach. It also includes the vital mineral salts of the grain which are lacking in white bread and many other cereal foods.

There's able help for many in Grape-Nuts.

RUSSIANS IN NEW ATTACK ON HALICZ

Czar's Forces Making Determined Effort to Capture Gateway to Lemberg.

These food problems are problems of business and science. But men must not forget that housekeeping is also a matter of business and of science, and in that connection the Housekeepers' Alliance is ready to serve the public at all times.

"In one New England town where I have been staying the butcher who governs the market told me he actually throws away large portions of the high-grade meat he handled because his wealthy customers buy only ribs roasts and french chops, and people with less money, instead of utilizing at least cost the inferior cuts of his high-grade animals, prefer the social distinction of also eating porterhouse steaks even though these are taken from second class animals."

"Social workers in slum districts of New York city say that emigrant housewives, under the influence of American domestic standards, learn in time to take pride in the display of waste they can make in their garbage can."

Army Food Problem. "While I was on the border in Texas I ate at the army mess—sometimes the officers' mess, and sometimes the mess of enlisted men, and, believe me, here is a situation gravely to be considered in the problem of preparedness. The government supplies to the army excellent food material in sufficient quantity. But for lack of proper standards of cooking it is a serious question how far the United States Army would go in a conflict."

"A movie man who had been at the front with Fehring's expedition told me there is only one camp kitchen with that expedition. Yet, even in Poland, the stomachs and the morale of the men fighting there are maintained by civilized kitchens on wheels, while American troops are still fed Indian fashion from pots boiled over fires built on the ground in the open, after the wood has been gathered for the fire."

"This is no fault of the United States Army. It is not the fault of the United States government. It is the fault of the women of the country. It is also the fault of business in the United States."

It is admitted that southeast of Deberdo Height the Italians penetrated the Austrian lines, but at the cost of enormous losses. Attacks elsewhere were repulsed, the statement says.

CONTROL OF BORDER, TOPIC. Mexican Commissioners Expected to Seek to Limit Scope of Study.

NEW LONDON, Conn., September 18.—When the Mexican-American commission sponored the conference today there was a strong opinion that the Mexican representatives were prepared to insist that their deliberations be directed toward an agreement on control of the border. The American representatives, believing that the border situation is not so serious as the Mexicans believe, are inclined to make a study of Mexico's internal affairs. Luis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican delegation, presided today.

DELAY GENERAL STRIKE PENDING A CONFERENCE

Union Leaders in New York Expect to Arrive at a Decision Thursday.

NEW YORK, September 18.—There will be no sympathetic strike of labor unions to aid the striking street railway employees until Thursday at least, and one may be averted altogether if renewed efforts of Mayor Mitchell to settle the present car strike in the meantime are successful. This was announced today after a conference between the mayor and five labor leaders representing the street railway employees, the longshoremen's union, the stationary engineers and firemen's union and the state federation of labor, the latter appearing for a number of labor organizations whose trades connect with the operation of the traction system.

The leaders told the mayor that the various organizations they represented were determined to strike until the municipal authorities took some action to compel the traction board to observe their recent agreements with the railway employees and that they had come to him as the last resort. The mayor promised to make another effort to adjust the differences and said he hoped to give them an answer by Thursday. The labor leaders promised that meantime no general strike would be called. The mayor announced that he would ask Public Service Commissioner Strauss to join him in his final effort to effect a settlement.

O'Connor Given Full Authority. The longshoremen have conferred upon Mr. O'Connor the authority to call a strike if, in his judgment, it is deemed advisable. Mr. O'Connor said no decision would be reached before Thursday. No date has been set for the strike of the 3,000 members of the tidal water boatmen's union, who have voted to go out. Leaders of these unions denied that the proposed strikes are merely sympathetic and say they are intended to benefit their own members. William D. Fitzgerald, organizer for the street railway men, says the strike has cost the transit company $1,025,000 and that it is costing the public $600,000 a day, bringing the total up to $7,200,000. The New York Railway company announced today that night service will be resumed this week on its surface lines.

Repeated attacks from roof tops were made on passing elevated trains during the early hours today. Stones and bottles crashed through car windows and several passengers were injured. In the Bronx a policeman was hurt while dispersing a crowd of strike sympathizers who were throwing bricks.

Normal service on subway and elevated lines was being maintained today, according to police reports. Before entering their conference with the mayor, the labor leaders said the visit was intended to "give the municipal authorities their last chance to prevent a general strike of union labor."

They did not reveal, however, what action they expected the mayor to take. In addition to President O'Connor Monopolies May Have Trouble. Correspondents of the Associated Press.

BERLIN, August 31.—The Tagliche Rundschau intimates that the new imperial finance minister, Von Roedern, has been unable to reach an agreement with the federal government respecting the proposed imperial monopolies and that grave trouble may develop in the federal council on the subject. The cigarette monopoly is especially opposed by Saxony, as more than half of the cigarette-making industry is centered in Dresden and the introduction of a monopoly would seriously hit Saxony's revenue. Saxony is independently planning a monopoly of electricity.

Berlin has registered 107,909 alien residents.

Steamer Finally Reaches U. S. BALTIMORE, Md., September 18.—Because the owners of the Norwegian steamer Bjornstjerne Bjornson are on the blacklist of the entente allies the vessel has berthed here. The steamer was held up nineteen days in Bermuda for lack of bunker coal. The steamer was able to get away from Bermuda only by the daring act of Capt. Theodore Krumm of New York, who charmed his tug, the W. S. Taylor, with coal and coaled the Bjornson beyond the three-mile limit off the Bermudas, and also in the more open seas.
