EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Capt. Oliver to Entertain for Admiral Akiyama at Army and Navy Club.

Mrs. Koo Returns From Buena Vista Springs—Weddings Here and Elsewhere—Luncheons.

Capt. J. H. Oliver, director of naval intelligence, will entertain at a dinner of twenty covers this evening, at the Army and Navy Club, in honor of Admiral Akiyama of the Japanese navy, who has been traveling in this country and is now on his way back to Japan.

Last evening Mr. Tokichi Tanaka, counselor and charge d'affaires of the Japanese embassy, gave a dinner at Rauscher's in honor of Admiral Akiyama. The guests invited to meet him included Admiral Straus, Admiral Palmer, Admiral Harris, Paymaster General MacGowan, U. S. N.; Capt. McLean, Capt. Hoogewerf, superintendent of the United States Naval Observatory; Capt. Oliver, Commander Yamamoto, aid to Admiral Akiyama, Commander Nomuro, naval attaché of the Japanese embassy; Capt. Mori, stationed in Philadelphia; Capt. Hirose, Commander Hyakutake, Mr. Nobutaro Kawashima, Mr. Saito, Mr. Iwate and Mr. Shiratori, all of the embassy staff.

The gifts were in a white paper parasol suspended over the table. Bridal bouquets followed.

The young bride-elect is being extensively entertained, and this afternoon is honor guest at a large theater party, at which Miss Rose Clark is hostess. Mrs. George J. May will give a dinner for her this evening.

Word has been received here of the marriage this morning, at 8 o'clock, in St. Raphael's Cathedral, Dubuque, Iowa, of Miss Mae Geraldine McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Henry McCarthy of Pinehurst, Dubuque, and Dr. Thomas Quinn Beesley of the faculty of the Catholic University, this city, son of Mrs. Thomas Beesley of Chicago, Ill.

The solemn high nuptial mass was celebrated by Archbishop John J. Keane, first rector of the Catholic University of America, who also performed the ceremony, assisted by Very Rev. Peter J. O'Callahan, C. S. P., superior of the Apostolic Mission House of this city, and by Rev. Terence G. Brady, pastor of the cathedral at Dubuque.

The church decorations consisted of Easter lilies in alabaster vases and palms in the sanctuary.

Mrs. Purnasiri, wife of Mr. Jajaval Purnasiri, attaché of the Siamese legation, who returned last week, has taken an apartment at the Lonsdale for the coming winter. Mr. Purnasiri, who remained in Gloucester, will return with the staff next week.

Mrs. John H. Hewson and Miss Georgia Schofield of 1019 18th street are staying at Hotel Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks Krantz announce the engagement of their daughter Julie and Mr. Stanford Harding Hartshorn of Gloucester, Mass. The wedding will take place in October.

Mrs. Leo C. May was the hostess at a beautifully arranged luncheon, shown and bridge yesterday at her residence on 36th street, given in compliment to her sister-in-law, Miss Edna Frances May, whose marriage to Mr. Daniel Robert Forbes of Chicago, formerly of this city, will take place Tuesday, September 26, at 11 o'clock, at St. Paul's Church.

The bride was adorned with a centerpiece of yellow blossoms, with corsage bouquets of lilies of the valley at each corner.

The gifts were in a white paper parasol suspended over the table. Bridal bouquets followed.

The young bride-elect is being extensively entertained, and this afternoon is honor guest at a large theater party, at which Miss Rose Clark is hostess. Mrs. George J. May will give a dinner for her this evening.

Word has been received here of the marriage this morning, at 8 o'clock, in St. Raphael's Cathedral, Dubuque, Iowa, of Miss Mae Geraldine McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Henry McCarthy of Pinehurst, Dubuque, and Dr. Thomas Quinn Beesley of the faculty of the Catholic University, this city, son of Mrs. Thomas Beesley of Chicago, Ill.

The solemn high nuptial mass was celebrated by Archbishop John J. Keane, first rector of the Catholic University of America, who also performed the ceremony, assisted by Very Rev. Peter J. O'Callahan, C. S. P., superior of the Apostolic Mission House of this city, and by Rev. Terence G. Brady, pastor of the cathedral at Dubuque.

The church decorations consisted of Easter lilies in alabaster vases and palms in the sanctuary.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore an exquisite French gown of duchesse satin embroidered in seed pearls and draped with old lace and chiffon. Her court train falling from the shoulders was of old lace finished with a wide border of duchesse satin embroidered in pearls and crystals. She wore a tulle veil, held with a coronet of pearls, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and smilax, with a border of white lace. The bride's only ornament was a pendant of black onyx and diamonds set in platinum, and containing a cleverly concealed locket.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary O'Brien of Vancouver, B. C., wore a gown of sea-foam green tulle with a picture hat of lace, and she carried a French bouquet of white roses and smilax in a white lace holder.

Miss Bernadine Lagen and Mrs. Carl Ziepprecht of Dubuque also attended the bride and their gowns were of hand-embroidered white batiste with French jackets of sea green gossamer crepe and large "Marie Antoinette" hats, trimmed with tiny ostrich feathers and silver grapes. They carried bouquets in lace holders.

Little Miss Jeanne Ward of Clinton, Iowa, the flower girl, wore a white lace dress and carried a basket of lilies, white roses and smilax.

Dr. Beesley, who acted as the bride at the altar, was attended by Mr. Carleton McCarthy, the bride's brother, as best man, and the ushers were Dr. Hugh S. Taylor of Princeton University, and Mrs. Charles J. Williamson and daughters have returned from Massachusetts, where they spent the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson were recent guests at the Marlborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City.

Mrs. David S. Barry and Miss Cora Barry of this city are at the Waldorf Hotel in New York city for a few days.

Miss Lota Robinson is the guest of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont at Great Neck, L. I.

An interesting wedding of this evening will be that of Miss Nellie Grace Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander Morrison, and Mr. Benjamin Amos Harlan, which will take place at 8 o'clock at the Rhode Island Avenue, M. P. Church.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn Morrison, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Gladys Benson of Baltimore and Miss Helen Stewart. Mr. Paul B. Cronin will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Bolitha Laws, Mr. De Witt C. Smith, Mr. Robert C. Tracy, all of this city, and Mr. Wilmer R. Leech of New York city.

A small reception for the relatives and wedding party will follow at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan will be at home at the Clifton apartment after November 1, at 1 p.m., at 18 Quincey street, Brooklyn, N. Y. Only a small company of relatives and intimates will be present at the ceremony.

Mr. Rust, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Rust of this city, will be attended by his brother, Mr. G. W. Rust, as best man.

Mr. Rust and his bride will be at home in this city after November 1, at Beverly Court.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles F. Williams have given up their apartment in the

Mr. J. R. McCarthy of New Orleans, La.; Dr. Eugene R. Lewis, Dr. Joseph H. Schrup and Mr. J. E. Waller, all of Dubuque, and Mr. George Edwin Smith of Davenport, Iowa.

The music was the wedding chimes played by the cathedral bell ringer, Dr. Alphonsus Dress.

After the wedding a reception and buffet breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents, where the house was artistically adorned with lilies of the valley, white lilies, smilax and ferns.

Shortly after the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Beesley left for their wedding journey, the latter wearing a dark blue tailored costume trimmed with silver fox and a hat of blue velvet.

They will be at home after November 1 at 1310 New Hampshire avenue, this city.

Mrs. Charles J. Williamson and daughters have returned from Massachusetts, where they spent the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson were recent guests at the Marlborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City.

Women's and Misses' Undergarments and Millinery Store Hours: 9 to 6 Daily.

A Splendid Assortment of Serge Dresses.

Serge is scarce—and as a result most displays are lacking in variety and value.

But we are fortunately favored with a strong showing—strong in the character and diversity of the models; and strong in the grades of fabrics used.

For real utility nothing surpasses Serge—it is wonderfully durable, and in our designer's hands has been fashioned into most exclusive and distinctive gowns—dressy enough for almost any wear; and yet proper for the more general uses.

In this connection we have made special provision for the Misses' school requirements—for which Serge is well adapted.

Therefore you will find all sizes here, in many grades and many exceptionally attractive effects.

$12.50, $15, $19.50 to $29.50.
